Burdett,2012-11-01 Nobody knows Bangkok like Royal Thai Police Detective Sonchai Jitpleecheep and there is no one quite like Sonchai a police officer who has kept his Buddhist soul intact more or less despite the fact that his job shoves him face to face with some of the most vile and outrageous crimes and criminals in Bangkok But for his newest assignment everything he knows about his city and himself will be a mere starting point He s put in charge of the highest profile criminal case in Thailand an attempt to bring an end to trafficking in human organs He sets in motion a massive sting operation and stays at its center traveling to Phuket Hong Kong Dubai Shanghai and Monte Carlo He draws in a host of unwitting players that includes an aging rock star wearing out his second liver and the mysterious diabolical albeit gorgeous co queenpins of the international body parts trade the Chinese twins known as the Vultures And yet it s closer to home that Sonchai will discover things getting really dicey rumors will reach him suggesting that his ex prostitute wife Chanya is having an affair Will Sonchai be enlightened enough forget Buddha think jealous husband to cope with his very own compromised and compromising world All will be revealed here in John Burdett s most mordantly funny propulsive fiendishly entertaining novel yet Chasing the Dragon Christopher R. Cox,1997-09-15 Prize winning journalist Chris Cox recounts his adventures tracking the heroin trail from the streets of Boston to the armed jungle camp of a rebel warlord and drug kingpin along the Thai border in Southeast Asia Part travel epic and part adventure story It s a journey you probably wouldn t want to make but might find fascinating to read about THE BOSTON GLOBE The Los Diaries Mark Jones,2012-07-11 This is the first part of a reflective account of my experiences in Thailand over the past seventeen years It is an account of someone who has journeyed two different paths that of a professional diving instructor and later a whoremonger It is a story of a journey from an initially carefree idyllic adventurous lifestyle in an island paradise to the harsh reality of the urban environments of Bangkok and Pattaya It is a story of a journey into the dark side of life in Thailand and a realization that there s a hardness and ruthlessness in that dark side which when you ve lived here for seventeen years offers you nothing in return except a world largely devoid of integrity honesty and sincerity It is my story and it is like those of so many other foreigners who settle in this land a story of a roller coaster ride through adventure hardship and endurance It s also a story of mateship something which is a rare commodity in this day and age I make no apologies for what you ll read beyond this page You may be humored shocked and even angered but ultimately you ll come to realize that there is no other country in the world like the Land Of Smiles These are the LOS diaries Monastery, Monument, Museum Maurizio Peleggi, 2017-10-31 Ranging across the longue dur e of Thailand s history Monastery Monument Museum is an eminently readable and original contribution to the study of the kingdom s art and culture Eschewing issues of dating style and iconography historian Maurizio Peleggi addresses distinct types of artifacts and artworks as both the products and vehicles of cultural memory From the temples of Chiangmai to the Emerald Buddha from the National Museum of Bangkok to the prehistoric culture of Northeast Thailand and from the civic monuments of the 1930s to the political artworks of the late twentieth century even well known artworks and monuments reveal new meanings when approached from this perspective Part I Sacred Geographies focuses on the premodern era when religious credence informed the cultural alteration of landscape and devotional sites and artifacts including visual representation of the Buddhist cosmology were created Part II Antiquities Museums and National History covers the 1830s through the 1970s when antiquarianism and eventually archaeology emerged and developed in the kingdom partly the result of a shift in the elites worldview and partly a response to colonial and neocolonial projects of knowledge Part III Discordant Mnemoscapes deals with civic monuments and artworks that anchor memory of twentieth century political events and provide stages for both their commemoration and counter commemoration by evoking the country s embattled political present Monastery Monument Museum shows us how cultural memory represents a kind of palimpsest the result of multiple inscriptions reworkings and manipulations over time The book will be a rewarding read for historians art historians anthropologists and Buddhism scholars working on Thailand and Southeast Asia generally as well as for academic and general readers with an interest in memory and material culture A Life of His Own Making Saul Sheiman, 2008-12 This is the history of a farang man who refused to age in the traditional manner and who succeeded by reinventing himself in Thailand with the aid of Thai culture History is shown against the backdrop of Thailand with a particular view of Bangkok p iii
