between aesthetics and politics this book analyses Iqbal's Islamism through his poetry. It argues that his notion of an Islamist selfhood was expressed in his verse through the interplay between poetic tradition and creative innovation. It also considers how Iqbal expressed an Islamist geopolitical imagination in his work and examines his exploration of the relationship between the modern West and a reconstructed Islam. For the first time, Iqbal's personal letters have been drawn upon to provide an insight into his inner conflicts as articulated in his poetry. Concentrating on the complexity of his work in its own right, the book eschews the standard appropriation of Iqbal into any one political agenda, be it Indian nationalism, Muslim separatism or Iranian Islamic republicanism. With its analytical and in-depth reading of Iqbal's verse and prose, this book opens a fresh perspective on Islam and postcolonialism. It will be a fascinating study for general readers and readers with interests in the intellectual and political history of modern South Asia, colonialism and postcolonialism, Islamic studies and modern South Asian literature, especially Urdu and Persian poetry.

Muhammad Iqbal Chad Hillier, 2015-07-10

There are few moments in human history where the forces of religion, culture and politics converge to produce some of the most significant philosophical ideas in the world. India in the early 20th century was one of these moments where we saw the rise of activist thinkers like Nehru, Jinnah and Gandhi, individuals who not only liberated human lives but their minds as well. One of the most influential members of the group was the poet-philosopher Muhammad Iqbal. Commonly known as the 'spiritual father of Pakistan', the philosophical and political ideas of Iqbal not only shaped the face of Indian Muslim nationalism but also shaped the direction of modernist-reformist Islam around the world. Bringing together a diverse number of prominent and emerging scholars from backgrounds in political science, philosophy and religious studies, this book offers novel examinations of the philosophical ideas that laid at the heart of Iqbal's own. As such, by producing new developments in research on Iqbal's thought from a diversity of prominent and emerging voices within American and European Islamic studies, this text will offer new and novel examinations of the ideas that lie at the heart of Iqbal's own thought: religion, science, metaphysics, nationalism and religious identity. In our text, the reader will re-discover many new connections between the 'Sage of the Ummah' to the greatest thinkers and ideas of European and Islamic philosophies.

God, Science, and Self Nauman Faizi, 2021-08-15

Muhammad Iqbal (d. 1938) was one of the most influential modernist Islamic thinkers of the early twentieth century. His work as a poet, politician, philosopher and public intellectual was widely recognized in his lifetime and plays a major role in contemporary conversations about Islam, modernity and tradition. God, Science, and Self examines the patterns of reasoning at work in Iqbal's philosophic magnum opus, arguably the most significant text of modernist Islamic philosophy, The Reconstruction of Religious Thought in Islam. Since its initial publication in 1934, The Reconstruction has left scholars in a quandary: its themes appear eclectic and its arguments contradictory and philosophically perplexing. In this groundbreaking study, Nauman Faizi argues that the keys to demystifying the contradictions of The Reconstruction are two competing epistemologies at play within the work Iqbal takes knowledge to be descriptive essential foundational and binary but he also takes knowledge to be performative contextual probabilistic and vague Faizi demonstrates how these approaches to knowledge shape Iqbal's claims about personhood God scripture philosophy and science God Science and Self offers an original approach to interpreting Islamic thought as it crafts relationships between scriptural texts philosophic thought and scientific claims for modern Muslim subjects      Gabriel's Wing Schimmel,1963-12-01 This book presents the views of Muhammad Iqbal in regards to the essentials of Islam This includes the five Pillars of Islam and the Creed which is taught to every Muslim child The author aims to present Iqbal's way of thinking arguing suffering and the finding of mental peace in the security of his religion      Fifty Eastern Thinkers Diane Collinson,Kathryn Plant,Robert Wilkinson,2013-04-03 Close analysis of the work of fifty major thinkers in the field of Eastern philosophy make this an excellent introduction to a fascinating area of study The authors have drawn together thinkers from all the major Eastern philosophical traditions from the earliest times to the present day The philosophers covered range from founder figures such as Zoroaster and Confucius to modern thinkers such as Fung Youlan and the present Dalai Lama Introductions to major traditions and a glossary of key philosophical terms make this a comprehensive and accessible reference resource      The Reconstruction of Religious Thought in Islam Mohammad Iqbal,2013-05-22 The Reconstruction of Religious Thought in Islam 1930 is Muhammad Iqbal's major philosophic work a series of profound reflections on the perennial conflict among science religion and philosophy culminating in new visions of the unity of human knowledge of the human spirit and of God Iqbal's thought contributed significantly to the establishment of Pakistan to the religious and political ideals of the Iranian Revolution and to the survival of Muslim identity in parts of the former USSR It now serves as a new bridge between East and West and between Islam and the other Religions of the Book With a new Introduction by Javed Majeed this edition of The Reconstruction opens the teachings of Iqbal to the modern Western reader It will be essential reading for all those interested in Islamic intellectual history the renewal of Islam in the modern world and political theory of Islam's relationship to the West      arab muslim civilization in the mirror of the universal: philosophical perspectives UNESCO,2010      Muslims in India Qamar Hasan,1987 The work is unique in the sense that it has not only delved into historical antecedents of the contemporary attitudes of the new generation of Indian Muslims but has also brought out their adjustment mechanisms and reactions to the demands which are made upon them from a section of the majority For the understanding of different aspects of behaviour of the minority vis a vis the majority the author has liberally drawn upon the relevant literature of three branches of social sciences viz Psychology Sociology and Political Science The studies of minority majority relations elsewhere are referred to for making the reader aware that to a very large extent minorities wherever they are found behave in the similar way Reviews The perspective offered by the author in the present study augurs well for the cause of nation building in the specific context of the persisting and ever elusive communal problem in India Prof Iqbal Narain The publication is so fascinating that

Overcoming Tradition And Modernity

Robert D. Lee, 2018-02-12 Authenticity has begun to rival development as a key to understanding the political aspirations of the Islamic world Almost everywhere modernity has laid waste to tradition those habits and practices deemed to be timeless and true Imperialism carried European notions of progress into Muslim dominated parts of the globe and subsequently Muslims themselves espoused Western practices techniques and philosophies Regimes calling themselves liberal socialist and Arab nationalist all embraced modernity as their principal objective Most of these regimes failed to create the promised better lives their citizens desired Moreover ordinary Muslims felt despair as modernity ripped apart families exposed youngsters to the materialism and hedonism of Western entertainments heightened social expectations and undermined religious belief Even though tradition has proved itself incapable of staving off modernity the promises and premises of modern development literature have been called into question Where is the truth around which Muslims can rally Does modernity require a rejection of tradition Does the embrace of Islamic ideas necessitate turning away from modernity Robert D Lee explores these compelling questions by presenting four contemporary Muslim writers Muhammad Iqbal Sayyid Qutb Ali Shari ati and Mohammed Arkoun all of whom have refused to bow to such a dichotomy of modernity and tradition This study examines their efforts deeply influenced by European thinking to find a truth beyond tradition and modernity an authentic understanding of Islam upon which Muslims can build a future All four thinkers believe such an authentic understanding can serve as the foundation for a new politics Lee argues however that each of these versions of authenticity suffers shortcomings and falters in its efforts to move from the particularity of culture onto a grander scale of political organization appropriate for the modern world

Classic Issues in Islamic Philosophy and Theology Today Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, Nazif Muhtaroglu, 2009-11-25 With some exceptions there is not a real interest in Islamic philosophy and theology in Western institutions today This largely ignored area has the potential to present enlightening insights into the development of the Western thought and to contribute to contemporary discussions in philosophy and theology in general Scholars working in Islamic thought usually focus on its medieval background and consider it to be mainly of a historical interest and far away from the intellectual world of today Showing its contemporary relevance is an important task by which the status of Islamic philosophy can be elevated to its proper station By considering these points in mind the University of Kentucky organized an international graduate student conference on Islamic philosophy and theology with an emphasis on its contemporary relevance which was held between the 28th and 30th September 2007 This book emerged out of the conference by adding more chapters relevant to the main theme of the book This book presents analyses and discussions of different topics in Islamic philosophy and theology by relating them to contemporary debates and ideas in four main areas epistemology metaphysics philosophy of religion and value theory There are ten chapters in sum Some of the chapters are written by graduate students and some of them by experienced scholars Each chapter presents considerable insight into its relevant topic but does not represent the opinion of anybody except the author

Muslim and Supermuslim Roy Jackson, 2020-02-05 This book looks to the rich and varied Islamic tradition for insights into what it means to be human and by implication what this can tell us about the future human The transhumanist movement in its more radical expression sees Homo sapiens as the cousin perhaps the poorer cousin of a new Humanity 2.0 Man is replaced by Superman The contribution that Islam can make to this movement concerns the central question of what this Superman or Supermuslim would actually entail To look at what Islam can contribute we need not restrict ourselves to the Qur'an and the legal tradition but also reach out to its philosophical and literary corpus Roy Jackson focuses on such contributions from Muslim philosophy science and literature to see how Islam can confront and respond to the challenges raised by the growing movement of transhumanism
