Development, architecture, and the formation of heritage in late twentieth-century Iran Ali Mozaffari, Nigel Westbrook, 2020-10-13 What is the relationship between development as a globalizing project and the production of cultural specificities in developmental contexts Utilising an architectural lens this book illustrates how development instigates interest in the past and in the process creates heritage It shows multiple uses of the past and their contestation in highly fluid social contexts Iran in the 21st Century Homa Katouzian, Hossein Shahidi, 2007-10-15 This book examines Iran and its position in the contemporary world It contains chapters on social developments in the country including gender relations contemporary politics international relations relations with the US and Israel nuclear weapons and energy programmes oil and the development of the economy The Visibility of Modernization in Architecture Gevork Hartoonian, 2023-07-28 This edited collection explores the visibility of modernization in architecture produced in different capitalist regions across the world and provides readers with a historico-theoretical and historico-geographical discussion Focusing on a particular building type an influential architect's work as well as relevant texts and documents each chapter addresses the many facets of delay which are central to the problematization of capitalism's progressive dissemination of technological and aesthetic regimes of modernism. This collection underlines the centrality of temporality for a critical understanding of colonialism, modernism and capitalism. The book is primarily concerned with the historical timeline, the tangential point when a nation enters modernization processes. In exploring modernism in diverse regions such as East Asia, Pacific, Eastern Europe and Iran, each chapter addresses the historiographic and architectonic unfolding of modernization beyond the western hemisphere. The exploration of these diverse case studies will be of interest to students of architecture and researchers working on the collision of temporalities and the subject's critical importance for different country's built environments. Chapter 13 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license.

Margaret Laurence and Jack McClelland, Letters Laura K. Davis, Linda M. Morra, 2018-05-18 Margaret Laurence and Jack McClelland, one of Canada's most beloved writers and one of Canada's most significant publishers, enjoyed an unusual rapport. In this collection of annotated letters, readers gain rare insight into the private side of these literary icons. Their correspondence reveals a professional relationship that evolved into deep friendship over a period of enormous cultural change. Both were committed to the idea of Canadian writing in a very real sense; their mutual and separate work helped bring Canadian literature into being. With its insider's view of the book business from the late 1950s to the mid 1980s, Margaret Laurence and Jack McClelland Letters presents a valuable piece of Canadian literary history, curated and annotated by Davis and Morra. This is essential reading for all those interested in Canada's literary culture.

Farewell Shiraz Cyrus Kadivar, 2017 In Farewell Shiraz, Kadivar tells the story of his family and childhood against the tumultuous backdrop of twentieth-century Iran, from the 1905-1907 Constitutional Revolution to the fall of Mohammad Reza Shah Pahlavi, before presenting accounts of his meetings with key witnesses to the Shah's fall and the rise of Khomeini. Each of the people interviewed provides a richly detailed picture of the momentous events that took place and the human drama behind them.

The Writings of Josep Lluís Sert José Luis Sert, 2015-01-01 Josep Lluís Sert (1902-1983) was the last president of CIAM (International Congresses of Modern Architecture) and dean of the Harvard University Graduate School of Design from 1953 to 1969, where he founded the discipline of urban design. His writings offer a new view of his activities in architecture and urban planning and provide the intellectual context for his own work as an architect, much of which is still controversial and often poorly understood. This book includes 16 essays dating from 1951 to 1977, ten of which are previously unpublished. The Writings of Josep Lluís Sert illuminates Sert's contributions to 20th-century architecture, urban design and design pedagogy and makes clear the similarities and differences between his ideas and those of his mentor, Le Corbusier. The essays reveal Sert's advocacy both for pedestrian urbanism and for planning in relation to the natural environment, ideas that have become important issues in contemporary urban design. Each text is introduced by the editor, Eric Mumford, a scholar of CIAM, Sert and modern urbanism. Publisher's website: Gnostic
