Subcommittee on the Treasury, Postal Service, and General Government Appropriations,1998      Resettlement in Asian Countries Mohammad Zaman,Reshmy Nair,Shi Guoqing,2021-12-15 This book examines land acquisition and resettlement experience in Asian countries where nearly two thirds of the world s development induced displacement currently takes place Faced with the complexity of balancing legal frameworks and resettlement needs along with increasing demands for safeguarding displaced peoples in recent years many countries within Asia have adopted integrated land and resettlement laws This book presents a comparative review and assessment of the impact of the new land and resettlement laws and regulatory frameworks for expropriation compensation and resettlement Written by an international interdisciplinary team of experts from both practice and academia the book demonstrates the ongoing challenges and struggles associated with social and resettlement risk assessments the social and cultural exclusion of indigenous vulnerable groups in some countries and the lack of institutional capacity to adequately deal with resettlement management and administration The case studies and comparative analyses of laws and practices relating to expropriation compensation and resettlement make significant contributions to advancing resettlement knowledge and management practices The book will be useful as a reference for development practitioners and for researchers across the fields of global development political science Asian studies planning and law The book also has potential use as a resource for resettlement management training programs and graduatelevel courses seminars in development studies      Federal Evaluations , Contains an inventory of evaluation reports produced by and for selected Federal agencies including GAO evaluation reports that relate to the programs of those agencies      Public administration ,1981      Breaking the Ice Barry Zellen,2008-03-20 Breaking the Ice is a comparative study of the movement for native land claims and indigenous rights in Alaska and the Western Arctic and the resulting transformation in domestic politics as the indigenous peoples of the North gained an increasingly prominent role in the governance of their homeland This work is based on field research conducted by the author during his nine year residency in the Western Arctic Zellen discusses the major conflicts facing Alaskan Natives from the struggle to regain control over their land claims to the Native alienation from the corporate structure and culture and the resulting resurgence in tribalism He shows that while the forces of modernism and traditionalism continued to clash these conflicts were mediated by the structures of co management corporate development and self government created by the region s comprehensive land claims settlements Breaking the Ice gives testimony to the achievements of Alaskan Natives through peaceful negotiation and argues that the age of land claims has transmuted this same tribal force into something else altogether in the North a peaceful force to spawn the emergence of new structures of Aboriginal self governance      Evaluation of Management
