Hill, 2010-08-26 A New History of Ireland is the largest scholarly project in modern Irish history In 9 volumes it provides a comprehensive new synthesis of modern scholarship on every aspect of Irish history and prehistory from the earliest geological and archaeological evidence through the Middle Ages down to the present day Volume VII covers a period of major significance in Ireland s history It outlines the division of Ireland and the eventual establishment of the Irish Republic It provides comprehensive coverage of political developments north and south as well as offering chapters on the economy literature in English and Irish the Irish language the visual arts emigration and immigration and the history of women The contributors to this volume all specialists in their field provide the most comprehensive treatment of these developments of any single volume survey of twentieth century Ireland Ireland's

1916 Rising Mark McCarthy, 2016-05-06 In light of its upcoming centenary in 2016 the time seems ripe to ask why how and in what ways has memory of Ireland s 1916 Rising persisted over the decades In pursuing answers to these questions which are not only of historical concern but of contemporary political and cultural importance this book breaks new ground by offering a wide ranging exploration of the making and remembrance of the story of 1916 in modern times It draws together the interlocking dimensions of history making commemoration and heritage to reveal the Rising s undeniable influence upon modern Ireland s evolution both instantaneous and long term In addition to furnishing a history of the tumultuous events of Easter 1916 which rattled the British Empire s foundations and enthused independence movements elsewhere Ireland s 1916 Rising mainly concentrates on illuminating the evolving relationship between the Irish past and present In doing so it unearths the far reaching political impacts and deep seated cultural legacies of the actions taken by the rebels as evidenced by the most pivotal episodes in the Rising s commemoration and the myriad varieties of heritage associated with its memory This volume also presents a wider perspective on the ways in which conceptualisations of heritage culture and identity in Westernised societies are shaped by continuities and changes in politics society and economy In a topical conclusion the book examines the legacy of Queen Elizabeth II s visit to the Garden of Remembrance in 2011 and looks to the Rising s 100th anniversary by identifying the common ground that can be found in pluralist and reconciliatory approaches to remembrance

Secular Martyrdom in Britain and Ireland Quentin Outram, Keith Laybourn, 2018-01-30 This edited collection examines the concept and nature of the people's martyrology raising issues of class, community, religion and authority. It examines modern martyrdom through studies of Peterloo, Tolpuddle, Featherstone, Tony Pandy, Emily Davison, fatally injured by the King's horse on Derby Day 1913, the 1916 Easter Rising, Jarrow the town that was murdered and martyred in the 1930s, David Oluwale a Nigerian killed in Leeds in 1965 and Bobby Sands the IRA hunger striker who died in 1981. It engages with the burgeoning historiography of memory to try to understand why some events such as Peterloo, Tony Pandy and the Easter Rising have become household names whilst others, most notably Featherstone and Oluwale, are barely known. It will appeal to those interested in British and Irish labour history as well as the study of memory and memorialization. The Ship of Dreams Gareth Russell, 2019-11-19 This original and meticulously researched retelling of history's most infamous voyage. Denise Kiernan, New York Times bestselling author, uses the sinking of the Titanic as a prism through which to examine the end of the Edwardian era and the seismic shift modernity brought to the Western world. While there are many Titanic books, this is one readers will consider a favorite. Voyage In April 1912 six notable people were among those privileged to experience the height of luxury first class passage on the ship of dreams, the RMS Titanic: Lucy Leslie, Countess of Rothes, son of the British Empire; Tommy Andrews, American captain of industry; John Thayer and his son Jack, Jewish American immigrant; Ida Straus and American model and movie star Dorothy Gibson. Within a week of setting sail they were all caught up in the horrifying disaster of the Titanic's sinking, one of the biggest news stories of the century. Today we can see their stories and the Titanic's voyage as the beginning of the end of the established hierarchy of the Edwardian era. Writing in his signature elegant prose and using previously unpublished sources, deck plans, journal entries and surviving artifacts, Gareth Russell peers through the portholes of these first class travelers to immerse us in a time of unprecedented change in British and American history. Through their intertwining lives he examines social, technological, political and economic forces such as the nuances of the British class system, the explosion of competition in the shipping trade, the birth of the movie industry, the Irish Home Rule Crisis and the Jewish American immigrant experience, while also recounting their intimate stories of bravery, tragedy and selflessness. Lavishly illustrated with color and black and white photographs, this is a beautiful requiem. The Wall Street Journal in which readers get the story of this particular floating Tower of Babel in riveting detail and with all the wider context they could want. Christian Science Monitor. Irish Economic and Social History, 1999 Books Ireland, 1998-02 Annual Bibliography of British and Irish History, 1998 Ireland, 1905-1925: Text and historiography Russell Rees, Anthony C. Hepburn, 1998 This is a readable account of Irish history in the first quarter of the 20th century. Drawing on the most recent scholarship on this period, the author presents a balanced narrative with a useful historiographical section at the end of each chapter. Dublin's Suburban Towns, 1834-1930 Séamas Ó Maitiú, 2003 In the nineteenth century the expanding Dublin middle class deserted the city for the suburbs, creating nine independent townships This book examines the impact that these suburban towns had on the greater Dublin area The author explores the civic achievements of the townships in the areas of water supply main drainage public lighting road building refuse disposal electricity supply and the provision of town halls public libraries technical schools and public baths The reaction at township level to the huge political changes in the 1914 1922 period is also explored as are the attempts by Dublin Corporation finally successfully in 1930 to extend its boundaries to include the townships Publisher s description Royal Historical Society Annual Bibliography of British and Irish History: Publications of 1998 Austin Gee,1999-10-28 The Royal Historical Society s Annual Bibliography of British and Irish History provides a comprehensive and authoritative survey of books and articles on historical topics published in a single calendar year The volume covers all periods of British and Irish history from Roman Britain to the late twentieth century and also includes a section on imperial and commonwealth history It is the most complete and up to date bibliography of its type and an indispensable tool for historians Ten Years of Irish Publishing,2000 CD ROM contains bibliographic listings with title author publisher pages price ISBN and date The School Librarian,2000 The History of Ireland, Vol. 1 Geoffrey Keating,2017-10-22 Excerpt from The History of Ireland Vol 1 Containing the Introduction and the First Book of the History Dr Joyce says To publish text translation and annotations of old Keating whom I revere and love would be a great work enough to place all Irishmen present and future under deep obligations to you A grand ambition enough to make a man s whole life pleasant and healthy I too can claim that I have always had a like deep veneration and affection for our good old author and to do this work has been with me the desire and dream of half a lifetime in fact since I was first able to read the Irish language and took part now more than a quarter of a century ago in the movement for its preservation I even then hoped to have commenced this undertaking but other matters in themselves of minor interest were more pressing needs for the time now however the Irish Texts Society gives me the opportunity so long wished for and from Dr Hyde the President Miss Eleanor Hull the Hon Sec my colleagues on the Committee and other members and friends I have received such encouragement and assistance as give me hope that I may be able under their auspices to complete so great and useful a work About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works History of Ireland Standish O'grady,2012-08-01 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although
