Ireland In Old Photographs:

Ireland from Old Photographs ,1971 Ireland in Old Photographs Carey Schofield,1994 Old Ireland in Colour 3 John Breslin,Sarah Anne Buckley,2023-10-12 Often imitated but never equalled the Old Ireland in Colour books are beloved by Irish readers at home and abroad and in this the third book of the series the authors have uncovered yet more photographic gems and breathed new life into them in glorious colour All of Irish life is here from evictions in Connemara to the mosgt elegant drawing rooms in Dublin Famous faces from politics and the arts appear alongside humble labourers and farmers and impish children from all kinjds of backgrounds light up this book s glorious pages With endless surprising details to pore over in every picture and captivating and illuminating text Old Ireland in Colour 3 is a winning addition to this spectacular series of bestselling books Dublin from Old Photographs ,1972 Ireland on Show Fintan Cullen,2017-07-05 Looking past the apparent lack of a sustainable Irish display culture this book demonstrates that there is a very full story to tell of the way Ireland displayed its art from the late eighteenth to the early twentieth century Ireland on Show analyzes the impact of the display of art as a significant political and cultural feature in the make up of nineteenth century Ireland and in how Ireland was viewed beyond its own shores in particular in Great Britain and the United States Fintan Cullen directs much needed critical attention and analysis to a subject that has been largely overlooked from an Irish perspective This study moves beyond museums to address the range of art institutions in Irish cities that displayed art from the Royal Hibernian Academy founded in the 1820s to Hugh Lane s Municipal Art Gallery opened in Dublin in 1908 Throughout the book explores the battle between the display of a unionist ethos and a nationalist point of view a constant that resurfaces over the period By highlighting the tension between unionist and nationalist viewpoints Cullen uses the display of art to investigate the complexities of Irish cultural life before the founding of the Free State Ireland from Old Photographs 1893 ,1982

Tourism, Land and Landscape in Ireland K.J. James,2014-06-20 This study exploring a broad range of evocative Irish travel writing from 1850 to 1914 much of it highly entertaining and heavily laced with irony and humour draws out interplays between tourism travel literature and commodifications of culture It focuses on the importance of informal tourist economies illicit dimensions of tourism national landscapes legend and invented tradition in modern tourism Ireland Maurice Gorham,1971 The Real Ireland Harvey O'Brien,2004 The Real Ireland is the first study of Irish documentary film but more than that it is a study of Ireland itself of how the idea of Ireland evolved throughout the twentieth century and how documentary cinema both recorded and participated in the process of change More than just a film studies work it is a discussion of history politics and culture which also explores the philosophical roots of the documentary idea and how this idea informs concepts of society self and nation It features rare and previously unseen illustrations and a detailed documentary filmography the first of its kind in print anywhere Memory Ireland Oona Frawley,2012-03-29 In the second volume of a series that will ultimately include four the authors consider Irish diasporic memory and memory practices

While the Irish diaspora has become the subject of a wide range of scholarship there has been little work focused on its relationship to memory The first half of the volume asks how diasporic memory functions in different places and times and what forms it takes on As an island nation with a history of emigration Ireland has developed a rich diasporic cultural memory one that draws on multiple traditions and historiographies of both home and away Native traditions are not imported wholesale but instead develop their own curious hybridity reflecting the nature of emigrant memory that absorbs new ways of thinking about home How do immigrants remember their homeland How do descendants of immigrants remember a land they rarely visit How does diasporic memory pass through families and how is it represented in cultural forms such as literature festivals and souvenirs In its second half this volume shifts its attention to the concept of memory practices ways of cultural remembering that result from and are shaped by particular cultural forms Many of these cultural forms embody memory materially through language music and photography and because of their distinctive expressions of culture give rise to distinctive memory practices Gathering the leading voices in Irish studies this volume opens new pathways into the body of Irish cultural memory demonstrating time and again the ways in which memory is supported by the negotiations of individuals within wider cultural contexts Contributors include Aidan Arrowsmith Hasia Diner Joep Leerssen Paul Muldoon Nuala N Dhomhnaill
