Irish First European Second:

Framing the European Union Ece Özlem Atikcan, 2015-10-09 This accessible study explores the impact of political language and campaigning upon public opinion towards European integration

Ireland: Looking East Christophe Gillissen, 2010 If Ireland's relations with the Western world have been the object of numerous scientific publications its links with the East have been neglected by research The aim of this book is to redress that imbalance by proposing studies of various aspects of Ireland's interactions with the East It is a multidisciplinary publication dealing with some of the historical political religious cultural demographic and sociological connections between Ireland both North and South and the East The chapters which offer novel perspectives for the field of Irish studies are organised in a chronological sequence from the mid 19th century to the present They focus on three main areas the links between Ireland and the Asian continent notably India China and Turkey its interactions with the Jewish people and the state of Israel and its relations with Eastern European countries in particular Poland and Lithuania

Enlarging the European Union M. Geary, 2013-06-13 The book presents a new history of the first enlargement of the EU It charts the attempts by the European Commission to influence the outcome of the British and Irish bids to join the Common Market during the 1960s and 1970s The most politically divisive EU enlargement is examined through extensive research in British Irish EU and US archives

The History of Ireland from the Invasion of Henry the Second to the Present Times William Dolby, 1778

Historical Dictionary of the European Union Finn Laursen, 2015-10-30 The current European Union EU has existed since 1 November 1993 It emerged from the Treaty of Maastricht largely negotiated during 1991 But the history of European integration goes further back The Schuman Declaration of 9 May 1950 led to the creation of the European Coal and Steel Community ECSC in 1951 and in 1957 the two Treaties of Rome created the European Economic Community EEC and the European Atomic Energy Community EAEC or EURATOM which started operating from 1 January 1958 For some years the EEC was often referred to as the Common Market The Merger Treaty of 1965 in force since 1967 created a single executive the European Commission and a single Council of Ministers The three Communities from the beginning in 1958 shared the Parliamentary Assembly and European Court of Justice ECJ Although these Communities still had separate treaties they were increasingly seen as the European Community EC This new edition of Historical Dictionary of the European Union has a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 400 cross referenced entries on important personalities member states internal policies external relations basic theories treaties and law This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the European Union

The Politics of Ratification of EU Treaties Carlos Closa, 2013-09-02 Since its inception the European Union EU has revised its foundational treaties several times resulting in national ratification processes involving different actors with varying success This book focuses on the politics of ratification of EU Treaties and reviews the processes of ratification of EU primary legislation Existing research and academic debate on EU constitutional politics have almost exclusively focussed on negotiation of new treaties and their institutional setting However this book explains how the result of ratification was achieved and analyses the strategy that actors pursue across Europe Ratification of the Treaty of Maastricht and the EU Constitution failed totally whilst other ratification can be considered partial failures such as the Irish Nice and Lisbon referendums As the EU Constitution has proved the ratification process may have deep effects unforeseen during the processes of negotiation In recent years ratification has produced some of the most intense debates on national membership of the EU and the EU itself The Politics of Ratification of EU Treaties will be of interest to students and researchers of European Studies European Union studies European Union Law and European Union Politics

The Act of Voting Johan A. Elkink, David M. Farrell, 2015-10-14 Electoral behaviour is one of the most dynamic areas of study in the field of comparative politics today A strongly emerging theme in recent years has been the need to set the study of voting behaviour in its wider context that is to understand how the behaviour of the individual non voter is conditioned by the environment in which the election is occurring The main motivation for this book is to respond to this need The Act of Voting examines voting both the question of whether to vote ie electoral turnout and who to vote for in context from a range of interdisciplinary perspectives In addition to other topics and themes chapters explore the national or social identities of individuals and how these contribute to complex social dynamics discuss the institutions that determine who is able to vote and over what and analyse the impact of the locale on the voting act Offering chapters by up and coming scholars in the field of electoral behaviour as well as reflections on how the act of voting should be viewed in the broadest context normatively institutionally and socially this book will be of interest to students and scholars researching political behaviour public opinion and politics more generally
