Guide to Atlases Supplement, World, Regional, National, Thematic Gerard L. Alexander,1977 Reports from Commissioners Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords,1854 Maps and History Jeremy Black,2000-01-01 Explores the role development and nature of the atlas and discusses its impact on the presentation of the past Ireland's Great Famine, Britain's Great Failure William H. A. Williams,2022-02-08 This book provides readers with a unique in depth understanding of the background to the Irish Famine and a detailed account of the crisis as well as the immediate and long term results of the catastrophe In addition to exploring the ecological and agriculture factors this work shows how cultural economic and political influences shaped British attitudes and policies When the entire potato crop failed in the fall of 1846 what began as an ecological disaster quickly became a political one Hampered by long standing prejudice and Anglo Irish tensions the British government s various attempts to deal with the humanitarian crisis were muddled by competing economic and social goals Among these was the idea that the Famine represented an opportunity to purge Ireland of fragmented land holding and potato dependency by encouraging an English type market driven agriculture Changes did occur but the government s imperial dreams eventually ran up against Irish realities The Cambridge History of Ireland: Volume 3, 1730-1880 James Kelly,2018-02-28 The eighteenth and nineteenth centuries was an era of continuity as well as change Though properly portrayed as the era of Protestant Ascendancy it embraces two phases the eighteenth century when that ascendancy was at its peak and the nineteenth century when the Protestant elite sustained a determined rear guard defence in the face of the emergence of modern Catholic nationalism Employing a chronology that is not bound by traditional datelines this volume moves beyond the familiar political narrative to engage with the economy society population emigration religion language state formation culture art and architecture and the Irish abroad It provides new and original interpretations of a critical phase in the emergence of a modern Ireland that while focused firmly on the island and its traditions moves beyond the nationalist narrative of the twentieth century to provide a history of late early modern Ireland for the twenty first century Birth of the Border Cormac Moore,2019-09-29 The 1921 partition of Ireland had huge ramifications for almost all aspects of Irish life and was directly responsible for hundreds of deaths and injuries with thousands displaced from their homes and many more forced from their jobs Two new justice systems were created the effects on the major religions were profound with both jurisdictions adopting wholly different approaches and major disruptions were caused in crossing the border with invasive checks and stops becoming the norm And yet many bodies remained administered on an all Ireland basis The major religions remained all Ireland bodies Most trade unions maintained a 32 county presence as did most sports trade bodies charities and other voluntary groups Politically however the new jurisdictions moved further and further apart while socially and culturally there were differences as well as links between north and south that remain to this day Very little has been written on the actual effects of partition the day to day implications and the complex ways that society north and south was truly and meaningfully affected Birth of the Border The Impact of Partition in Ireland is the most comprehensive account to date on the far reaching effects of the partitioning of Ireland

Food and Architecture Samantha L. Clarke,Annagret Simms,2017-07-14 This volume is the first publication to draw upon the mass of information provided by the Historic Towns Atlases in order to explore comparative questions in medieval urban history The volume addresses the wider question of comparative urban studies the processes that determined the morphological formation of towns and the symbolic meaning of large scale town plans in their cultural context Ireland John P.
