Irish Sporting Short Stories:

Irish Sporting Short Stories David Marcus, 1995 The Irish are a great sporting nation as well as a great literary one Both aspects of Irish life are combined in this collection of sporting short stories from the great names of Irish writing from Sean O Faolain Liam O Flaherty and Somerville and Ross to Mary Morrissey Bryan MacMahon and John B Keane Sixteen sports are represented including horse racing rugby fishing greyhound racing Gaelic football rowing boxing croquet mountain climbing and hurling Index to Short Stories, 1929 Index to Short Stories--Supplement Ina Ten Eyck Firkins, 1929 A History of the Irish Short Story Heather Ingman, 2009-05-14 Though the short story is often regarded as central to the Irish canon this text was the first comprehensive study of the genre for many years Heather Ingman traces the development of the modern short story in Ireland from its beginnings in the nineteenth century to the present day Her study analyses the material circumstances surrounding publication examining the role of magazines and editors in shaping the form Ingman incorporates recent critical thinking on the short story traces international connections and gives a central part to Irish women's short stories Each chapter concludes with a detailed analysis of key stories from the period discussed featuring Joyce Edna O'Brien and John McGahern among others With its comprehensive bibliography and biographies of authors this volume will be a key work of reference for scholars and students both of Irish fiction and of the modern short story as a genre The Game Tadhg Coakley, 2022-05-31 This book is a multifaceted reflection on sport It is part memoir outlining Tadhg Coakley's time as a player and fan of sport and how it has shaped his life It is also a book of essays critiquing several aspects of sport both good and bad and showing its influence in the wider world It is also a work of auto-fiction wherein Coakley uses his novelistic abilities to chart narratives personal and public It is finally a work of scholarship brilliantly interweaving the author's view of a life spent inside and outside the white lines with the cultural discourse of previous writers and thinkers on the many themes explored The book is an exploration and explanation of what sport means why it is the world's largest single consumer product and such a dominant pervasive presence in Irish culture Why for example were the terms European Championships and Premier League the top Google searches in Ireland for 2021 Why was Christian Eriksen the most searched person In this book Tadhg Coakley interacts with sport in the way that Olivia Laing interacts with isolation The Lonely City Sinéad Gleeson and Emilie Pine interact with the female body and female experiences Constellations and Notes to Self Doireann Ní Ghríofa interacts with being haunted by an eighteenth century poet A Ghost in the Throat and Fintan O'Toole interacts with Irish history We Don't Know Ourselves This is a book that needed to be written We are consuming sport in ever greater gulps often blindly The coverage of sport is vast newspapers magazines books a whole raft of TV channels in many languages websites podcasts blogs radio stations hourly sports bulletins with every news cycle Why is that and what does it mean The book does not romanticise or idealise sport Sport has a dark side and is rife with greed corruption sexism homophobia nationalism and a raft of toxic masculine behaviour and the author interrogates his own behaviour and attitudes in respect of some of these On the other hand in sport as in art people can forge their own identities in grace imagination and the possibility of what may be This contradictory duality and the cognitive dissonance it carries with it is one of the most fascinating aspects of sport Sport like story is mostly about loss Ultimately sport like story is about what happens to the fans outside the white lines and for the readers off the page Ireland: The People, The Places, The Stories, The Craic Rachel Pierce,2021-09-02 A stunning celebration of the rich culture and fascinating history of Ireland featuring ten Irish illustrators Go on a journey around the spectacular isle cramming in facts about Ireland s famous people landmarks myths legends battles music and everything in between From Donegal to Cork via the Giant s Causeway and Tayto Park discover everything about the Irish isle that makes it so special With a foreword from much loved Irish comedian Dara O Briain Showcases the talent of ten of Ireland s top illustrators Sport and Ireland Paul Rouse,2015 The first history of sport in Ireland locating the history of sport within Irish political social and cultural history and within the global history of sport It studies the relationship between sport and national identity how sport influences policy making in modern states and the ways in which sport has been colonized by the media Sport in Ireland - With Notes and Prose Idyls on Shooting and Trout Fishing W.
