Imperial Wine Jennifer Regan-Lefebvre, 2024-04-23 A fascinating and approachable deep dive into the colonial roots of the global wine industry Imperial Wine is a bold rigorous history of Britain's surprising role in creating the wine industries of Australia South Africa and New Zealand Here historian Jennifer Regan Lefebvre bridges the genres of global commodity history and imperial history presenting provocative new research in an accessible narrative This is the first book to argue that today's global wine industry exists as a result of settler colonialism and that imperialism was central not incidental to viticulture in the British colonies Wineries were established almost immediately after the colonization of South Africa Australia and New Zealand as part of a civilizing mission tidy vines heavy with fruit were symbolic of Britain's subordination of foreign lands Economically and culturally nineteenth century settler winemakers saw the British market as paramount However British drinkers were apathetic towards what they pejoratively called colonial wine The tables only began to turn after the First World War when colonial wines were marketed as cheap and patriotic and started to find their niche among middle and working class British drinkers This trend combined with social and cultural shifts after the Second World War laid the foundation for the New World revolution in the 1980s making Britain into a confirmed country of wine drinkers and a massive market for New World wines These New World producers may have only received critical acclaim in the late twentieth century but Imperial Wine shows that they had spent centuries wooing and indeed manufacturing a British market for inexpensive colonial wines This book is sure to satisfy any curious reader who savors the complex stories behind this commodity chain Willing's Press Guide and Advertisers' Directory and Handbook ,1891 North American Pinot

Noir John Winthrop Haeger,2004-09-14 A comprehensive reference guide to Pinot Noir wine in North America including historical and viticultural background and profiles of six dozen prominent pinot producers in California Oregon British Columbia New York and elsewhere Willing's Press Guide and Advertisers' Directory and Handbook ,1913

Which Direction Ireland? Proceedings of the 2006 ACIS Mid-Atlantic Regional Conference Donald McNamara,2009-10-02 Ireland is going changes so rapidly and so dramatically that it has left many people both in Ireland and abroad wondering where it is headed next as well as leaving some people wondering where it actually came from Which direction Ireland probes a variety of currents and concepts at play in Ireland examining geographical historical social political and literary changes that have taken place in both Ireland and Irish America It offers cogent insight into those changes and and well founded projections about the future While examining the question Which Direction Ireland provides encouragement for those who want to make the journey with enthusiasm as well as curiosity Opus Vino DK,2010-10-18 The techniques and research that have led the world s winemaking revolution have been transported around the globe pushing boundaries in every region An expansive new reference is needed to embrace these changes Opus Vino provides greater coverage and a more up to date approach to the wine world than any other illustrated wine book Use it as an encyclopedia to look up wine producing regions appellations wineries and producers as an atlas to find places of interest and as a travel guide to plan winery tours Opus Vino takes a new look at the new world of wine from a new generation of wine writers It takes wine publishing to new heights and gives both professionals and amateur enthusiasts a wine reference fit for the 21st century Pandemic Perspectives on the Irish Diaspora in Germany Margaret Haverty,2024-09-10 This book reflects on how the pandemic impacted upon qualitative social research but also how it affected the lives of the members of the Irish diaspora on the European continent The crisis acted as a pressure cooker for those living abroad transforming distance and migration situations to resemble times gone by when travel was far more prohibitive and emigration felt more permanent At the same time expat lives were being thrown headlong into a new future shaped more profoundly than ever by digital means This work is a close examination of how Irish migrants in Germany construct their Irishness and in doing so maintain their belonging to Ireland across a geographic distance transformed by the pandemic This work seeks to draw out the underlying patterns and meanings in the day to day practices of Irishness by members of Ireland s putative diaspora in Germany by interweaving a multitude of ethnographic vignettes and rich interview material with relevant and interestingtheoretical concepts Interlocutors see Ireland as a site of personal memory good bad and in between and of meaning making practices Ireland is deeply personal to them that understood their practices of belonging to Ireland are
