Irk Np On Ms Outlook 2000 Introductory:

Literary Culture and Female Authorship in Canada 1760-2000 Faye Hammill, 2021-10-18 There are two ladies in the province I am told who read writes Frances Brooke s Arabella Fermor but both are above fifty and are regarded as prodigies of erudition Brooke s The History of Emily Montague 1769 was the first work of fiction to be set in Canada and also the first book to reflect on the situation of the woman writer there Her analysis of the experience of writing in Canada is continued by the five other writers considered in this study Susanna Moodie Sara Jeannette Duncan L M Montgomery Margaret Atwood and Carol Shields All of these authors examine the social position of the woman of letters in Canada the intellectual stimulation available to her the literary possibilities of Canadian subject matter and the practical aspects of reading writing and publishing in a post colonial country This book turns on the ways in which those aspects of authorship and literary culture in Canada have been inscribed in imaginative autobiographical and critical texts by the six authors It traces the evolving situation of the Canadian woman writer over the course of two centuries and explores the impact of social and cultural change on the experience of writing in Canada

Spinning Popular Culture as Public Pedagogy Jon Austin, 2017-01-28 Spinning Popular Culture is a book about the effervescent activity lying perhaps dormant beneath the surface of seemingly inert and mundane cultural items in everyday life It is a book about the power of the Everyday to maintain loyalty to or at the very least an unthinking acceptance of particular ways of being in the world It is also about the capacity of such seemingly mundane artefacts to provoke resistance to this and to enliven the visioning of social alternatives It is a book about individual critical analyses of album cover art Following a brief history of the development of the aesthetics of the packaging of recorded music eleven internationally recognised critical scholars each interrogate the cover of a particular vinyl record album they grew up with or with which they have some personal experience or resonance The totality of the cultural artefact that is the vinyl record album is essentially dissected and considered from perspectives of paratextuality and pedagogy In this book the contributors make the connections of everyday life to memory and history by locating the album in their personal biographies They then look to the artwork on the album cover to explore the pedagogical possibilities they see resident there The individual chapters each in very different ways provide examples of the exposure of such broad public pedagogies in practice through critiquing the artwork from both reproductive and resistance positions Hopefully readers will be encouraged to look more consciously at the Everyday the mundane and the taken for granted in their own lives with a view to becoming more critically aware of the messages circulating unnoticed through popular culture Spinning Popular Culture might also encourage the reader to pull out that box of old vinyl records sitting in the back of a storage cupboard somewhere and revisit and rethink their histories Or maybe to just find a turntable somewhere and play them one more time

Cinema and Secularism Mark Cauchi, 2023-12-14 Cinema and Secularism is the first collection to make the relationship between cinema and secularism thematic utilizing a number of different methodological approaches to examine their identification and differentiation across film theory film aesthetics film history and throughout global cinema The emergence of moving images and the history of cinema historically coincide with the emergence of secularism as a concept and discourse More than historically coinciding however cinema and secularism would seem to have and many contemporary theorists and critics seem to assume a more intrinsic almost ontological connection to each other While early film theorists and critics explicitly addressed questions about secularism religion and cinema once the study of film was professionalized and secularized in the Western academy in both film studies and religious studies explicit and critical attention to the relationship between cinema and secularism rapidly declined Indeed if one canvases film scholarship today one will find barely any works dedicated to thinking critically about the relationship between cinema and secularism Extending the recent secular turn in the humanities and social sciences Cinema and Secularism provokes critical reflection on its titular concepts Making contributions to theory philosophy criticism and history the chapters in this pioneering volume collectively interrogate the assumption that cinema is secular how secularism is conceived and related to cinema differently in different film cultures and whether the world is disenchanted or enchanted in cinema Coming from intellectually diverse backgrounds in film studies religious studies and philosophy the interdisciplinary contributors to this book cover films and traditions of thought from America Europe Africa the Middle East South Asia and East Asia In these ways Cinema and Secularism opens new areas of inquiry in the study of film and contributes to the ongoing interrogation of secularism more broadly

The Geography of Developing Areas Glyn Williams, Paula Meth, Katie Willis, 2009-02-18 Rather than presenting the global South to students as a set of problems rapid urbanisation population growth poverty etc this textbook focuses on the diversity of life in the South and looks at the role it plays in shaping and responding to current global change The text integrates traditional concerns of development geographers such as economic development and social inequality with aspects of the global South usually given less attention such as cultural identity and political conflict Divided into four main sections Representing the global South argues that images of the so American Agriculturist ,1911 Electronics ,1969 June issues 1941 44 and Nov issue 1945 include a buyers guide section The Breeder's Gazette ,1901 The Advance ,1911 Drum ,1998 The Cultivator & Country Gentleman ,1889 The farm the garden the fireside The Encyclopedia of Science Fiction and Fantasy Through 1968: Who's who, A-L ,1974 This massively comprehensive work of science fiction and fantasy bibliography is already a library standard It consists of an alphabetical listing of hundreds of authors anthologists editors artists etc with biographical sketches where available and compilations of their science fiction and fantasy works The contents of most collections and anthologies are listed In most cases the entries include bibliographic data for all known English language editions and forms as well as some foreign translations Each author's entry also includes listings of books and short stories which form connected series such as Robert Heinlein's famous Future History Large 8 1 2 x 11 inch pages in two columns of small print Poor's ,1939 Guide to Microforms in Print K G Saur Books, K.
