Barton Palmer, 2018-10-09 Winner of the 2019 SAML A Studies Book Award for Edited Collections presented by the South Atlantic Modern Language Association Rule Britannia surveys the British biopic a genre crucial to understanding how national cinema engages with the collective experience and values of its intended audience Offering a provocative take on an aspect of filmmaking with profound cultural significance the volume focuses on how screen biographies of prominent figures in British history and culture can be understood as involved if unofficially in the shaping and promotion of an ever protean national identity The contributors engage with the vexed concept of British nationality especially as this sense of collective belonging is problematized by the ethnically oriented alternatives of English Scottish Welsh and Irish nations They explore the critical and historiographical issues raised by the biopic demonstrating that celebration of conventional virtue is not the genre's only natural subject Filmic depictions of such personalities as Elizabeth I Victoria George VI Elizabeth II Margaret Thatcher Iris Murdoch and Jack the Ripper are covered

Gendering History on Screen Julia Erhart,2018-03-05 Movies about significant historical personalities or landmark events like war seem to be governed by a set of unspoken rules for the expression of gender Films by female directors featuring female protagonists appear to receive particularly harsh treatment and are often criticised for being too emotional and incapable of expressing real history Through her examination of films from the United States Europe Australia and elsewhere Julia Erhart makes powerful connections between the representational strategies of women directors such as Kathryn Bigelow Ruth Ozeki and Alexandra von Grote and their concerns with exploring the past through the prism of the present She also compellingly explores how historiographical concepts like valour memory and resistance are uniquely re-envisioned within sub genres including biopics historical documentaries Holocaust movies and movies about the War on Terror Gendering History on Screen will make an invaluable contribution to scholarship on historical film and women's cinema
