Is Faith in God Reasonable? Corey Miller, Paul Gould, 2014-04-03 The question of whether faith in God is reasonable is of renewed interest in today s academy In light of this interest as well as the rise of militant religion and terrorism and the emergent reaction by neo atheism this volume considers this important question from the views of contemporary scientists philosophers and in a more novel fashion of rhetoricians It is comprised of a public debate between William Lane Craig supporting the position that faith in God is reasonable and Alex Rosenberg arguing against that position Scholars in the aforementioned fields then respond to the debate representing both theistic and atheistic positions The book concludes with rejoinders from Craig and Rosenberg

Islam, Adem Eryiğit, 2022-07-06 Proto Salafist 14th century theologian Ibn Taymiyya is recognized as the intellectual forefather of contemporary Salafism and Jihadism This volume offers a unique approach to the study of Ibn Taymiyya by offering an English translation of his fundamental political treatise The Office of Islamic Government and shorter collections from The Collected Fatwas and The Prophetic Way and Islamic Governance in Reconciling between the Ruler and the Ruled The volume not only sheds light on these primary sources through translation and annotation but also offers a theoretical analysis of Ibn Taymiyya s thought and how his legal views can be reconciled with current trends in Islamic political theory The analysis provides an overview of Ibn Taymiyya s geopolitical context and includes an original study of his normative political thought In examining the contemporary implications of Ibn Taymiyya s political theology the authors explore his doctrine of the Islamic state in the context of Islamic decolonial theory Islam and the State in Ibn Taymiyya will appeal to academics in the fields of political science and religious studies particularly within the field of Islamic history

Religious Belief and the Will Louis P. Pojman, 2024-10-31 Can we ever achieve belief by a direct act of will If it will help us to be happier should we make ourselves believe propositions which the evidence alone does not warrant These are the sort of questions which Professor Pojman examines in Religious Belief and the Will originally published in 1986 He deals with a constellation of problems related to believing and willing to believe his main concern is with religious faith and belief though his analysis is also of interest to epistemology and ethics Pojman asks what is so important about believing propositions in the first place and why religious creeds have made propositional belief a necessary condition for salvation He considers whether one can be rational and still use the will to believe what the evidence alone does not warrant He also discusses whether faith and belief are generically related or distinct attitudes This is the first full length treatise on religious belief that approaches the subject from the viewpoint of volitional activity i e related to the will It presents a rethinking of the way the will interacts with belief a relationship often misconstrued in works of philosophy and theology Pojman believes that the will is central to religious commitment and that by understanding the relationship between the attitude of belief and the activity of willing we are enabled to get fresh insight into the classical problem of religious belief and the will

A Balanced Christian Life Watchman Nee, 1981-12-01 Ephraim is a cake not turned Hosea 7 8 This is a figurative way of saying not balanced The cake is burned on the one side uncooked on the other on one side it is overdone on the other totally undone The cake is unfit to be eaten and is thus destined to be cast out Our God is most balanced He is love and He is light Our Lord Jesus is full of grace and full of truth The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of wisdom as well as of revelation In creation God hath measured the waters in the hollow of his hand and meted out heaven with a span and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure and the hills in a balance Is 40 12 Concerning redemption it is said that mercy and truth are met together righteousness and peace have kissed each other Truth springeth out of the earth and righteousness hath looked down from heaven Ps 85 10 11 The new creation therefore must be well balanced In this present volume Watchman Nee attempts to show from God s word the perfect equilibrium of divine truth Human nature however is prone to emphasize one side to the exclusion of the other side of truth This has caused much confusion and many problems among God s people It is essential that we know the balance of truth and hold on to both sides so that our Christian life may be well rounded as God has ordained The contents of the book opens with a treatment of the balance between the gate and the way continues with a presentation of the balance between the objective and the subjective includes a discussion on the work inward and the work outward in the Christian life as well as on the rest given and the rest found as promised by Christ contemplates the other side of prayer frequently neglected namely to watch and concentrates on the other less emphasized aspect of the trespass offering that of restoration The book then provides a commentary on the contrast between the truly meek and the spiritually poor and finally concludes with a consideration of the equilibrium that is so necessary between the believer s faith and the believer s walk May all who read this volume be brought into a balanced Christian life
