The Long Wave in the World Economy Andrew Tylecote, 2013-09-13 Long waves are cycles of some fifty years duration in which a period of rapid expansion is followed by one of slow growth or stagnation This book provides a critical examination of long wave theory and an original explanation of long fluctuations which is highly relevant to the current crisis in the world economy

Inevitably Toxic Brinda Sarathy, Janet Brodie, Vivien Hamilton, 2018-10-30 Not a day goes by that humans aren't exposed to toxins in our environment be it at home in the car or workplace But what about those toxic places and items that aren't marked Why are we warned about some toxic substances and not others The essays in Inevitably Toxic consider the exposure of bodies in the United States Canada and Japan to radiation industrial waste and pesticides Research shows that appeals to uncertainty have led to social inaction even when evidence e.g. the link between carbon emissions and global warming stares us in the face In some cases influential scientists engineers and doctors have deliberately manufactured doubt and uncertainty but as the essays in this collection show there is often no deliberate deception We tend to think that if we can't see contamination and experts deem it safe then we are okay Yet having knowledge about the uncertainty behind expert claims can awaken us from a false sense of security and alert us to decisions and practices that may in fact cause harm In the epilogue Hamilton and Sarathy interview Peter Galison a prominent historian of science whose recent work explores the complex challenge of long term nuclear waste storage

Michel Houellebecq and the Literature of Despair Carole Sweeney,2013-11-21 Widely acknowledged as an important if highly controversial figure in contemporary literature French novelist and poet Michel Houellebecq has elicited diverse critical responses In this book Carole Sweeney examines his novels as a response to the advance of neoliberalism into all areas of affective human life This historicizing study argues that le monde houellebecquien is an atomised society of banal quotidian alienation populated by quietly resentful men who are the botched subjects of late capitalism Addressing Houellebecq s handling of the failure of the radical thought of 68 Sweeney looks at the ways in which his fiction treats feminism the decline of religion and the family as well as the obsolescence of French theory and the Sartrean notion of engaged literature Reading the world with the disappointed idealism of a contemporary moralist Houellebecq s novels Sweeney argues fluctuate between despair for the world as it is and a limp utopian hope for a post humanity

Free Markets and Food Riots John K. Walton,David Seddon,2008-09-15 This book describes and explains the extraordinary wave of popular protest that swept across the so called Third World and the countries of the former socialist bloc during the period from the late 1970s to the early 1990s in response to the mounting debt crisis and the austerity measures widely adopted as part of economic reform and adjustment Explores this general proposition in a cross national study of the austerity protests or the IMF Riots that have affected so many debtor nations since the mid 1970s Argues that modern austerity protests like the classical bread riots in eighteenth century Europe are political acts aimed at injustice but acts that are an integral part of the process of international economic and political restructuring Evaluates how modern food riots are most important for what they reveal about global economic transformation and its social and political consequences Provides a general framework drawing on comparative and historical material and then trace the cycle of uneven development debt neo liberal reform and protest in Latin America Africa Asia the Middle East and Eastern Europe Focusses on the role of women in structural adjustment and protest politics and the features of seemingly anomalous cases which qualify the general argument

Aid and Power - Vol 1 Jane Harrigan,Paul Mosley,John Toye,2013-10-11 When the major aid organizations made flows of aid conditional on changes in policy they prompted an extensive debate in development circles Aid and Power has made one of the most significant and influential contributions to that debate This edition has been revised to take account of changes within the World Bank itself and the extension of policy based lending to the formerly socialist economies of east and central Europe

The Second Coming Joel D. Anastasi, 2008-09 Two thousand years ago the Archangel Gabriel announced the coming of a new age with the birth of Jesus the Christ. Now Gabriel is proclaiming a new 2 000 year age one of man's spiritual unity. This New Age was born January 23 1997 when planets aligned to form a six point star the same configuration that announced Jesus' birth 2 000 years ago. In this New Age humans will follow the pattern of self mastery that Jesus demonstrated to awaken the soul. This Gabriel says is the Second Coming. It is not The Christ the man coming to rescue and save you. What he was telling you was that the Christ lies within you. You are the Christ. The time in evolution has come for the Christ Consciousness the soul to awaken in all humankind. We come to give you the step by step process for the awakening of the Christ Consciousness in all humanity. In this in depth and intriguing interview Joel D. Anastasi has transcribed wisdom received from the Archangel Gabriel who communicated to Joel through trance channel Robert Baker his spiritual advisor. Working from hundreds of pages of interviews Anastasi not only shares Gabriel's wisdom on great spiritual themes but also provides Energizing Exercises to prepare you for the awakening of the soul
