Bible and Ethics in the Christian Life Bruce C. Birch,Jacqueline E. Lapsley,Cynthia D. Moe-Lobeda,Larry L. Rasmussen,2018-05-01 Earth is changing in ways it hasn t for hundreds of thousands of years At the same time Christianity is breaking away from its millennium long geographical and cultural center in the Euro West Its growth is in Asia Africa and Latin America primarily in Pentecostal evangelical and independent churches These dramatically changed planetary and ecclesial landscapes have led many to conclude that we need a new way of thinking about our collective existence who are we and what is the nature of our responsibility in this deeply altered world To address that question biblical scholars Bruce C Birch and Jacqueline E Lapsley and Christian ethicists Larry L Rasmussen and Cynthia Moe Lobeda carry on a new conversation that engages how Christians are to understand the authority and use of Scripture the basic elements of any full bodied Christian ethic attuned to our circumstances and the nature of our responsibility to our planetary neighbors and creation itself Christian Ethics Russell A. Morris,2015-08-14 Within the Christian community at large there is often little correlation between scriptural guidelines for Christian living and the lifestyle practices and behavior of believers Christian social scientist George Barna has done extensive research in this area that reveals alarming data For example nearly nine of ten adults state that religious faith is very important in their lives However only one in five adults claims that the Bible is the dominant influence in their decisions regarding lifestyle practices Further research suggests that there is often little difference between the lifestyle practices of Christians and non Christians This nominal difference in lifestyle practices and behavior between Christians and non Christians as well as the minimal correlation between Scripture and practice among many Christians produced an interest in this area of practical theology Serving as a Christian pastor over the past two decades the reality of Barnas research has been observed personally The biblical parallel of the prevailing apathy within todays churches is seen in Judges 21 25 NASB In those days there was no king in Israel everyone did what was right in his own eyes That is in those days there was no accepted standard of truth Likewise only one in four American adults believes in the existence of absolute truth As a result the relationship between doctrine and practice belief and behavior is often minimal with many Christians doing only what is right in their own eyes rather than allowing Gods Word to influence their mode of living A distinct relationship between belief and behavior is seen in I Timothy 4 16 In this passage Paul clearly identifies a correlation between what one believes doctrine and the lifestyle behavior one lives when he writes Watch your life and doctrine closely Persevere in them because if you do you will save both yourself and your hearers From this verse it is clear that there are two areas in the life of the Christian that need to be scrutinized and pursued namely belief and behavior The fundamental thesis of this book is that a deeper understanding of Christian ethics will inform and facilitate the Christian life

Is There a Christian Ethics? Lucien Richard, 1988 The Moral Disciple Kent A. Van Til, 2012-08-08 The ability to judge good from bad right from wrong is a uniquely human characteristic However given the complexity of life it is often difficult to discern which choice to make where our responsibilities lie or what the consequences of an action or of a nonaction will be In The Moral Disciple Kent Van Til surveys the skills and dispositions that we need to address moral issues responsibly This basic introduction to Christian ethics the systematic evaluation of morality highlights the centrality of Christ and the Christian faith in moral formation and it offers an ethical framework to guide Christians as they engage a host of moral dilemmas including those surrounding wealth sexuality and the end of life Using easy to read prose and defining terms carefully Van Til provides an accessible introduction to this crucial and practical subject

Can Ethics Be Christian? James M. Gustafson, 1975 Is there a special relation between religious beliefs and moral behavior In particular is there a distinctive Christian moral character and how is this manifested in moral actions The influential theologian James M Gustafson probes these questions and offers an analysis of the distinctively religious reasons of the heart and mind which constitute the basis for a Christian ethics Professor Gustafson grounds his discussion in a concrete example of moral conduct which deeply impressed him The incident narrated in detail at the start and referred to throughout concerns a nonreligious colleague who came to the aid of an intoxicated soldier Although seemingly trivial this incident in the author s view approximates the normal sorts of experiences in which individuals have to make moral decisions every day it becomes a touchstone to investigate the logical social and religious elements in moral decision making for the Perplexed Victor Lee Austin, 2012-12-06 Christian ethics is a most perplexing subject This Guide takes the reader through the most fundamental issues surrounding the question of Ethics from a Christian perspective Is ethics a meaningful topic of discourse and can there be such a thing as an ethical argument or ethical persuasion What is the meaning of the adjective in Christian Ethics Could right behavior be different for Christians than it is for others Can we turn to the Bible for help Does the Bible tell us what to do or give us insight into the good we should aim to achieve or give us a narrative by which to live Is it best to think of ethics as a matter of duty or good or excellence If we take the virtue line and say that ethics is about human excellence doing well as a human being or succeeding at being a good human being then what will we say about humans who cannot achieve excellence The virtue approach leads us to place friendship as the goal of ethics The Ethics of the Christian Life Theodor Häring, 1909 The Peaceable Kingdom Stanley Hauerwas, 1991-08-31 Stanley Hauerwas presents an overall introduction to the themes and method that have distinguished his vision of Christian ethics Emphasizing the significance of Jesus life and teaching in shaping moral life The Peaceable Kingdom stresses the narrative character of moral rationality and the necessity of a historic community and tradition for morality Hauerwas systematically develops the importance of character and virtue as elements of decision making and spirituality and stresses nonviolence as critical for shaping our understanding of Christian ethics Christian Ethics Larry Chouinard, David A. Fiensy, George F.
