□□□□□□□□□□□□□□□□ □□□,1986 The Professionalization of Window Display in Britain, 1919-1939 Kerry Meakin,2024-09-05 This book provides the first comprehensive history of window display as a practice and profession in Britain during the dynamic period of 1919 to 1939 In recent decades the disciplines of retail history business history design and cultural history have contributed to the study of department stores and other types of shops However these studies have only made passing references to window display and its role in retail society and culture Kerry Meakin investigates the conditions that enabled window display to become a professional practice during the interwar period exploring the shift in display styles developments within education and training and the international influence on methods and techniques Piecing together the evidence visual and written about people events organisations exhibitions and debates Meakin provides a critical examination of this vital period of design history highlighting major display designers and artists The book reveals the modernist aesthetic developments that influenced high street displays and how they introduced passers by to modern art movements The American Exporter ,1926 Merchants Record and Show Window ,1929 European Market United States. International Trade Administration,1980 Advertising and the European City Clemens Wischermann,Elliott Shore,2019-01-15 First published in 2000 this volume responds to the rise and spread of advertising throughout Europe and the world in the past one and a half centuries which is breathtaking in its scope and influence now part of the way we think and live Historians are only just beginning to understand this process replacing outmoded theories of manipulation which focused on the advertiser with more sophisticated cultural explanations that centre on the way consumers filter and select messages creating new worlds of perception The authors of this work find the origins and trace the development of this new world or perception in the modern city London and Paris the forerunners and the cities and larger towns of France Germany Belgium and the Netherlands where advertising created new urban perceptions leading to new avenues of consumption and altered lifestyles Advertising is viewed in this work as a new way of perceiving and organising the world of the city dweller a visual culture a way of attaching meaning to things and to words or rearranging the mental map of modern life The Handbook of Window Display William Nelson Taft,1926 Inside European Identities Sharon Macdonald,2020-08-27 Following recent events in Eastern Europe questions surrounding European identity seem more pressing than ever This volume explores through a series of ethnographic case studies the construction and experience of identities in Western Europe All of the case studies are based on fieldwork and in geographical scope range from Wales to the Basque country from Corsica to the Lake District The peoples they look at are similarly diverse nationalists and members of the Communist party rural and urban populations The essays illustrate the ways in which detailed ethnographic case studies can illuminate how identities are lived by ordinary people European Identity Alex Drace-Francis,2013-10-17 What is Europe A continent A political institution A cultural community Bringing together 101 key texts on the theme of European identity this reader provides essential insights into the idea of Europe from 450 BC to the twenty first century The only collection of its kind in English it includes rare and newly translated material alongside classic texts from antiquity and the Enlightenment from figures as diverse as Aristotle Immanuel Kant Fyodor Dostoevsky Winston S Churchill and Julia Kristeva Space is also given to views of Europe from the outside including Asian African Latin American US and Caribbean authors With an introductory overview notes on each text and a guide to further reading Alex Drace Francis brings issues of European identity into sharp relief for both teachers and students of European history geography culture and politics European Society in the Eighteenth Century Robert Forster,2016-01-12 Industrial Arts Index ,1927 Boot and Shoe Recorder ,1921 European War Pamphlets ,1920 The Streets of Europe Brian Ladd,2020-09-01 This is a sensory history and a sensual story told from street level a clear and powerful account of the transformation of street life in Europe Leora Auslander author of Taste and Power Merchants shouts jostling strangers aromas of fresh fish and flowers plodding horses and friendly chatter long filled the narrow crowded streets of the European city As they developed over many centuries these spaces of commerce communion and commuting framed daily life At its heyday in the 1800s the European street was the place where social worlds connected and collided Brian Ladd recounts a rich social and cultural history of the European city street tracing its transformation from a lively scene of trade and crowds into a thoroughfare for high speed transportation Looking closely at four major cities London Paris Berlin and Vienna Ladd uncovers both the joys and the struggles of a past world The story takes us up to the twentieth century when the life of the street was transformed as wealthier citizens withdrew from the crowds to seek refuge in suburbs and automobiles As demographics and technologies changed so did the structure of cities and the design of streets significantly shifting our relationships to them In today s world of high speed transportation and impersonal marketplaces Ladd leads us to consider how we might draw on our history to once again build streets that encourage us to linger By unearthing the vivid descriptions recorded by amused and outraged contemporaries Ladd reveals the changing nature of city life showing why streets matter and how they can contribute to public life A dazzlingly kaleidoscopic overview of city life city living and city dying Judith Flanders author of The Invention of Murder Central Furrier ,1927 National Drug Clerk ,1924 Weekly Florists' Review Gilbert Leonard Grant,1923 The Dry Goods Reporter ,1912 Window Display Tony Morgan,2010-09-27 A showcase of the most exciting innovative and successful window displays worldwide with seven chapters covering key topics for the visual merchandiser each with a gallery of photographs demonstrating how and why each window is successful Colour is a great tool to promote a trend Seasonal Windows exploit key shopping seasons while following Trends in fashion food or homewares and translating them quickly into a display is a key skill for a visual merchandiser Graphics and Photography are cost effective and efficient tools or use Lighting to add drama whether spotlighting products or flooding an entire window Theatre shows off exuberant and avant garde displays created to wow passers by Quirky windows allow free rein for wild ideas with
