exhorted the voters to abstain from voting so that the referendum did not obtain the necessary quorum In Portugal to the contrary the Church made a pact with the prime minister so that the law on same sex marriages did not include the possibility of adoption And in Belgium the Episcopal conference limited its actions to clearly expressing with religious legal and anthropological arguments its opposition to such laws which all other Episcopal conferences did also In this book the authors analyse the full spectrum of the issue including the emergence of such laws the political discussions the standpoints defended in the media by professionals ethicists and politicians the votes in the parliaments the political interventions of the Episcopal conferences and the attitude of professionals As a result the reader understands what was at stake and the differences in actions of the various Episcopal conferences The authors also analyse the pro and con evaluations among the civil population of such actions by the Church Finally in a comparative synthesis they discuss the public positions taken by Pope Francis to evaluate if a change in Church policy might be possible in the near future Research by GERICR Groupe europ en de recherche interdisciplinaire sur le changement religieux a European interdisciplinary research group studying religious changes coordinated by Alfonso Prez Agote
