Evangelical Futures A Conversation On Theological Method:

Evangelical Futures John Gordon Stackhouse, 2000 All the contributors to this project agree that evangelical theology needs to attend to dimensions of its task beyond the question of the nature and interpretation of the Bible We hope that these essays will be worthwhile in both affirming our evangelical common ground as a distinctive tradition in contemporary theology and provoking us all to develop that tradition more carefully and creatively to meet the needs of our time from the preface

Beyond Evangelicalism Steven Knowles, 2010 A prolific author and thinker Stanley J Grenz was a respected and influential figure not only within evangelicalism but in the wider theological world Amongst the many issues tackled by him it is perhaps his revisioning of evangelical theology in the light of the postmodern challenge that has caused the biggest stir in the theological world Advocating a nonfoundationalist methodology Grenz attempts to re position evangelical theology in line with postmodern concerns This will be the first book length treatment on Grenz s work on theological methodology and therefore will break new ground in this important area of study

J. I. Packer and the Evangelical Future Timothy George, 2009-10 Athletes and actors models and musicians pastors and politicians many have stepped forward looked in the camera and proclaimed I am second But most in the I Am Second movement are not celebrities They are ordinary people and they ve come to the simple realization that when God comes first in their lives everything makes sense But living second is not easy It takes grit and humility submission to God s will a willingness to listen and serve and openness to God s healing and call Live Second is a daily guide to making Jesus first in your life With 365 readings prayers action steps and an online community of support what you hold in your hands is a tool built to help you make truth Scripture and Jesus your number one priority each and every day of the year Following Jesus is not meant to be easy just worth it Live Second is exactly what you need as you become the new inspired God honoring creation he made you to be

The Futures of Evangelicalism Craig G. Bartholomew, Robin Parry, Andrew West, 2004 An insightful assessment of the current state of evangelical affairs and the varied directions evangelicalism is poised to take Contributors include Alister McGrath Eugene Peterson I Howard Marshall Gregory J Laughery Stephen Lazarus Robin Parry and Andrew West

The Pastor Theologian Gerald Hiestand, Todd A. Wilson, 2015-06-23 Pastoral ministry today is often ruled by an emphasis on short sighted goals pragmatic results and shallow thinking Unfortunately those in the academy tend to have the opposite problem failing to connect theological study to the pressing issues facing the church today Contemporary evangelicalism has lost sight of the inherent connection between pastoral leadership and theology This results in theologically anemic churches and ecclesial anemic theologies Todd Wilson and Gerald Hiestand contend that among a younger generation of evangelical pastors and theologians there is a growing appreciation for the native connection between theology and pastoral ministry At the heart of this recovery of a theological vision for ministry is the re emergence of the role of the pastor theologian The Pastor Theologian presents a taxonomy of the pastor theologian and shows how individual pastors given their unique calling and gift set can best embody this age old vocation in the 21st century They present three models that combine theological study and practical ministry to the church The Local Theologian a pastor theologian who ably services the theological needs of a local congregation The Popular Theologian a pastor theologian who writes theology to a wider lay audience The Ecclesial Theologian a pastor theologian who writes theology to other theologians and scholars Raising the banner for the pastor as theologian this book invites the emerging generation of theologians and pastors to reimagine the pastoral vocation along theological lines and to identify with one of the above models of the pastor theologian Themelios, Volume 47, Issue 3 Brian Tabb, 2023-01-12 Themelios is an international evangelical peer reviewed theological journal that expounds and defends the historic Christian faith Themelios is published three times a year online at The Gospel Coalition <http://thegospelcoalition.org/themelios> and in print by Wipf and Stock Its primary audience is theological students and pastors though scholars read it as well Themelios began in 1975 and was operated by RTSF UCCF in the UK and it became a digital journal operated by The Gospel Coalition in 2008 The editorial team draws participants from across the globe as editors essayists and reviewers General Editor Brian Tabb Bethlehem College and Seminary Contributing Editor D A Carson Trinity Evangelical Divinity School Consulting Editor Michael J Ovey Oak Hill Theological College Administrator Andrew David Naselli Bethlehem College and Seminary Book Review Editors Jerry Hwang Singapore Bible College Alan Thompson Sydney Missionary Nathan A Finn Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary Hans Madueme Covenant College Dane Ortlund Crossway Jason Sexton Golden Gate Baptist Seminary Editorial Board Gerald Bray Beeson Divinity School Lee Gatiss Wales Evangelical School of Theology Paul Helseth University of Northwestern St Paul Paul House Beeson Divinity School Ken Magnuson The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary Jonathan Pennington The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary James Robson Wycliffe Hall Mark D Thompson Moore Theological College Paul Williamson Moore Theological College Stephen Witmer Pepperell Christian Fellowship Robert Yarbrough Covenant Seminary The Trinitarian Theology of Stanley J. Grenz Jason S. Sexton, 2013-09-12 Exploring one of the most controversial figures in recent evangelical theology this book thoroughly examines core features of Stanley J Grenz s Trinitarian vision Canonical Theology Peckham, 2016 What are the roles of canon and community in the understanding and articulation of Christian doctrine Should the church be the doctrinal arbiter in the twenty first century In Canonical Theology John Peckham tackles this complex ongoing discussion by shedding light on issues surrounding the biblical canon and the role of the community for theology and practice Peckham examines the nature of the biblical canon the proper relationship of Scripture and tradition and the interpretation and application of Scripture for theology He lays out a compelling canonical approach to systematic theology including an explanation of his method a step by step account of how to practice it and an example of what theology derived from this canonical approach looks like Karl Barth in North America John Peter Lewis, 2009-04-01 This study looks at the formation of theology as it emerges out of biography Indeed the biography of the theologian is the key to unlocking the meaning of his or her writings and a valuable tool for a thorough investigation of their work There will be a focus on the biography of Karl Barth and how this relates to his theological writings Attention will then be turned on a group of North American theologians to analyze how Barth's theology has influenced their personal experiences and corresponding theologies The personal experience of the theologian provides the background to the theological judgments she or he makes and therefore provides valuable insight into what she or he has written Experiences in the theologian's life determine how she or he forms and communicates the ideas that the experiences have given rise to Indeed theologians profoundly connect with readers as they write theology as an expression of their experiences of faith Therefore this book contends that there is a necessary connection to be made between the theologian as a person and the theology that emerges out of her or his unique biography Indeed it will be argued that theology is born out of the lived encounters of the theologian that develop into the kind of personal convictions passions concerns questions and a motivation to connect with others that is evident in her or his writing Consequently theology and theologian are inseparable

Theology in the Present Age Christopher Ben Simpson, Steven D. Cone, 2013-08-23 This volume of essays centers on the theme of doing Christian theology in the present postmodern context a consistent theme of the teaching of John D Castelein The work will celebrate and honor John's years of service by representing reflections of his teaching in the thought of his students and colleagues The essays range over such topics as theological reflections on the postmodern philosophical themes the relations between Christian theology and culture the contributions of philosophical hermeneutics for Christian theology and the challenges of engaging in ministry in a postmodern context The seventeen contributors to the volume are former students and both present and former colleagues involved in various ministries be they in a college setting or in a local church

The Cambridge Companion to Evangelical Theology Timothy Larsen, Daniel J. Treier, 2007-04-12 Evangelicalism a vibrant and growing expression of historic Christian orthodoxy is already one of the largest and most geographically diverse global religious movements This Companion first published in 2007 offers an articulation of evangelical theology that is both faithful to historic evangelical convictions and in dialogue with contemporary intellectual contexts and concerns In addition to original and creative essays on central Christian doctrines such as Christ the Trinity and

Justification it breaks new ground by offering evangelical reflections on issues such as gender race culture and world religions This volume also moves beyond the confines of Anglo American perspectives to offer separate essays exploring evangelical theology in African Asian and Latin American contexts The contributors to this volume form an unrivalled list of many of today s most eminent evangelical theologians and important emerging voices Re-Envisioning Transformation David C. Scott,2018-09-14 In today s church use of the term transformation has become commonplace Various perspectives are offered on what a Christian view of transformation is and on how it may be achieved These often conflicting views suggest an ecclesial landscape characterized by pluralism division fragmentation confusion relativism individualism pragmatism and subjectivism Despite the current interest in transformational theology the absence of a common coherent and integrated vision and the lack of transformation is often accepted and affirmed Re Envisioning Transformation looks at the possibility of moving toward a vision of transformational theology that is cohesive unified broad effectual and distinctly Christian In this book the contributions of two radically different theologians of the Christian life are examined This provides the basis from which to develop a comprehensive and integrated framework of transformational theology pointing God s people toward the need to express and live out a distinctly Christian vision Evangelicals Engaging in Practical Theology Helen Morris,Helen Cameron,2022-03-30 This book aims to introduce a distinctively evangelical voice to the discipline of practical theology Evangelicals have sometimes seen practical theology as primarily a liberal project This collection however actively engages with practical theology from an evangelical perspective both through discussion of the substantive issues and by providing examples of practical theology done by evangelicals in the classroom the church and beyond This volume brings together established and emerging voices to debate the growing role which practical theology is playing in evangelical and Pentecostal circles Chapters begin by addressing methodological concerns before moving into areas of practice Additionally there are four short papers from students who make use of practical theology to reflect upon their own practice Issues of authority and normativity are tackled head on in a way that will inform the debate both within and beyond evangelicalism This book will therefore be of keen interest to scholars of practical evangelical and Pentecostal theology A High View of Scripture? Craig D. Allert,2007-06 This addition to the Evangelical Ressourcement series offers wisdom from the early church for understanding the authority of Scripture Spirit and Scripture Kevin L. Spawn,Archie T. Wright,2011-11-10 This book considers the academic treatment of biblical interpretation in the renewal movement the fastest growing tradition in Christendom today The initial chapter surveys the history of biblical interpretation in the renewal tradition and provides a conceptual basis for the book In Part II six renewal scholars outline a proposal for the future of biblical hermeneutics in the tradition These authors address certain key questions What is the role of the Holy Spirit in biblical interpretation What are the distinctive presuppositions methods and goals of renewal biblical hermeneutics Three prominent biblical scholars Craig G Bartholomew James D G Dunn R Walter L Moberly respond to the proposals outlined above These critical responses deepen the examination of renewal biblical hermeneutics as well as increase its appeal to biblical and theological scholars in general The final chapter offers a synthesis and evaluation of the accomplishments of the discussion as well as an assessment of the state of the discipline with an eye toward the future
