Iranian Islam:

Iranian Islam Fereshteh Ahmadi, Nader Ahmadi, 1998-10-07 The author examines from different perspectives theological and philosophical as well as socio political and historical the significance of the concept of the individual in the ways of thinking of Iranians This book establishes that the mystical dimension of Islamic thought the divine nature of Islamic law and the mode of relationship between ruler and the ruled in combination counteracted growth of concern for the individual self in Iranian thought

Islam in Iran Il'ia Pavlovich Petrushevski, Il'ia Pavlovich Petrushevski, 1985-01-01 A scholarly and authoritative history of the emergence and growth of Islam in Iran during the early and later medieval periods This book by I P Petrushevsky the foremost Soviet Iranologist was originally published in Russia in 1966 After discussing the Arabian environment in which the faith of Islam arose and the character legal social and doctrinal of the new message the author moves on to trace the peculiarly Iranian development of Islamic beliefs the schisms which arose in its early history and the eventual creation of a Sunni orthodoxy Written from the Russian perspective with Russia's long contact with Iranian and Turkish Muslim neighbors it provides a stimulating and salutary balance to the study of the Islamic world

Islamic Architecture in Iran Saeid Khaghani, 2012-07-30 The architecture of the Islamic world is predominantly considered in terms of a dual division between tradition and modernity a division which Saeid Khaghani here argues has shaped and limited the narrative applied to this architecture Khaghani introduces and reconsiders the mosques of eighth to fifteenth century Iran in terms of poststructural theory and developments in historiography in order to develop a brand new dialectical framework Using the examples of mosques such as the Friday Mosques in Isfahan and Yazd as well as the Imam mosque in Isfahan Khaghani presents a new way of thinking about and discussing Islamic architecture making this valuable reading for all interested in the study of the art architecture and material culture of the Islamic world

How Islam Rules in Iran Mehran Kamrava, 2024-04-30 Examines the jurisprudential justifications that underlie the continuous and ever changing relationship between state and religion in Iran

Political Islam, Iran, and the Enlightenment Ali Mirsepassi, 2010-12-06 Ali Mirsepassi's book presents a powerful challenge to the dominant media and scholarly construction of radical Islamist politics and their anti Western ideology as a purely Islamic phenomenon derived from insular traditional and monolithic religious foundations It argues that the discourse of political Islam has strong connections to important and disturbing currents in Western philosophy and modern Western intellectual trends The work demonstrates this by establishing links between important contemporary Iranian intellectuals and the central influence of Martin Heidegger's philosophy We are also introduced to new democratic narratives of modernity linked to diverse intellectual trends in the West and in non Western societies notably in India where the ideas of John Dewey have influenced important democratic social movements As the first book to make such connections it promises to be an important contribution to the field and will do much to overturn some pervasive assumptions about the dichotomy between East and West

The reciprocal services between Islam and Iran

Murtazá Muṭahhari,2004 The Islamic Republic of Iran Seen from Within Ladier-Fouladi Marie,2022-10-27 The shattering of the Islamic Republic's legitimacy following the rigged presidential elections of June 2009 and the wave of protests that it provoked dubbed the Green Movement triggered a process of radicalisation of the Iranian political regime This radicalisation can be seen in the overall political project of total domination implemented in the 2010s which no longer sought to win the support of an exasperated population but to contain it long enough to be able to systematically alienate the next generations in the hope that these would be both numerous and devoted to the theocratic state This new domestic policy also extends to the regional and international level through the presence of Iranian or pro Iranian military forces in neighbouring countries a presence that has already triggered the escalation of extreme tensions in the region thereby aggravating the antagonistic Iranian American relationship This power struggle between Iran and the United States risks dragging the Islamic Republic into a new conflict not long after commemorating the 40th anniversary of the Iraq Iran war 22 September 1980 This book was born out of the need to clarify the complex issue of the radicalisation of the Islamic Republic To this end the author examines the new domestic policy shedding light on both the watershed of 2009 and the hegemonic regional ambition of the theocratic regime Political Islam Joel Beinin,Joe Stork,2023-04-28 The essays and case studies collected here featuring some of the best material from Middle East Report over the past decade as well as much original material challenge the facile generalizations about what Western media and political establishments usually call Islamic fundamentalism The authors demonstrate the complexity of these movements and offer complementary and contrasting interpretations of their origins and significance The material included covers a broad range of themes including democracy and civil society gender relations and popular culture as they have emerged in countries throughout the Middle East and North Africa The essays and case studies collected here featuring some of the best material from Middle East Report over the past decade as well as much original material challenge the facile generalizations about what Western media and political establishments The Persian Presence in the Islamic World Richard G. Hovannisian,Georges Sabagh,1998-11-19 The thirteenth volume based on the Giorgio Levi Della Vida conference reassesses the role of the Iranian peoples in the development and consolidation of Islamic civilization In his key essay Ehsan Yarshater casts fresh light on that role challenging the view that after reaching a climax in Baghdad in the ninth century Islamic culture entered a period of decline In fact he maintains a new and remarkably creative phase began in Khurasan and Transoxania symbolized by the adoption of Persian as a medium of literary expression By the mid sixteenth century Persian literary and intellectual paradigms had spread from Anatolia to India encompassing the greater part of the Islamic world Yarshater also challenges traditional assumptions about the Islamization of Persia In the essays which follow six distinguished scholars consider the historical cultural and religious aspects of the Persian presence in the Islamic world Rethinking Iranian Nationalism and Modernity Kamran Scot Aghaie,Afshin Marashi,2014-07-01 While recent books have explored Arab and Turkish nationalism the nuances of Iran have received scant book length study until now Capturing the significant changes in approach that have shaped this specialization Rethinking Iranian Nationalism and Modernity shares innovative research and charts new areas of analysis from an array of scholars in the field Delving into a wide range of theoretical and conceptual perspectives the essays all previously unpublished encompass social history literary theory postcolonial studies and comparative analysis to address such topics as Ethnicity in the Islamic Republic of Iran Political Islam and religious nationalism The evolution of U S Iranian relations before and after the Cold War Comparing Islamic and secular nationalism s in Egypt and Iran The German counterrevolution and its influence on Iranian political alliances The effects of Israel s image as a Euro American space Sufism Geocultural concepts in Azar s Atashkadeh Interdisciplinary in essence the essays also draw from sociology gender studies and art and architecture Posing compelling questions while challenging the conventional historiographical traditions the authors many of whom represent a new generation of Iranian studies scholars give voice to a research approach that embraces the modern era s complexity while emphasizing Iranian nationalism s contested multifaceted and continuously transformative possibilities

Iran, Islam and Democracy Ali M. Ansari, 2019-05-15 The surprise election of Hasan Rouhani in 2013 has refocused attention on the dynamics between Islam and democracy in Iran after the hiatus of the Ahmadinejad presidency With comparisons being drawn between Rouhani and his predecessor the late Reformist President Mohammad Khatami there has never been a better time for a close look at the rise and fall of the Reform movement in Iran situating it within the context of the politics of managing change This revised and updated edition incorporates recent work on the presidential election crisis of 2009 along with the election of Rouhani in 2013 and an additional essay on the idea of reformism in Iran in historical context The study remains then most comprehensive account of the politics of reform and in situating the Rouhani presidency within that context it shines a clear light on the pressures and pitfalls Iran faces in politics and international relations

Arabs and Iranians in the Islamic Conquest Narrative Scott Savran, 2017-09-08 Arabs and Iranians in the Islamic Conquest Narrative analyzes how early Muslim historians merged the pre Islamic histories of the Arab and Iranian peoples into a didactic narrative culminating with the Arab conquest of Iran This book provides an in depth examination of Islamic historical accounts of the encounters between representatives of these two peoples that took place in the centuries prior to the coming of Islam By doing this it uncovers anachronistic projections of dynamic identity and political discourses within the contemporaneous Islamic world It shows how the formulaic placement of such embellishment within the context of the narrative served to justify the Arabs rise to power whilst also explaining the fall of the Iranian Sasanian empire The objective of this book is not simply to mine Islamic historical chronicles for the factual data they contain about the pre Islamic period but rather to understand how the authors of these works thought about this era By investigating the intersection between early Islamic memory identity construction and power discourses this book will benefit researchers and students of Islamic history and literature and Middle Eastern Studies
