An Iraqi in Paris Samuel Shimon, 2005 An Iraqi In Paris Samuel Shimon, 2012-03-15 A young Iraqi writer sets out to become a Hollywood film maker only to end up as a refugee on the streets of Paris where he beds down in a metro station Although his dream of making a film about his deaf mute father is never realised the extraordinary encounters he has with the likes of Jean Luc Godard Samuel Beckett and a ghost from P re Lachaise Cemetery transform his own story into a captivating drama more compelling than anything on the big screen An Iraqi in Paris Samuel Shimon, 2011-02-21 A young Iraqi writer sets out to become a Hollywood filmmaker only to end up as a refugee on the streets of Paris A Poetics of Arabic Autobiography Ariel M. Sheetrit, 2020-02-27 This book examines the poetics of autobiographical masterpieces written in Arabic by Leila Abouzeid Hanan al Shaykh Samuel Shimon Abd al Rahman Munif Salim Barakat Mohamed Choukri and Hanna Abu Hanna These literary works articulate the life story of each author in ways that undermine the expectation that the self the auto of autobiography would be the dominant narrative focus Although every autobiography naturally includes and relates to others to one degree or another these autobiographies tend to foreground other characters voices places and texts to the extent that at times it appears as though the autobiographical subject has dropped out of sight even to the point of raising the question is this an autobiography These are indeed autobiographies Sheetrit argues albeit articulating the story of the self in unconventional ways Sheetrit offers in depth literary studies that expose each text s distinct strategy for life narrative Crucial to this book s approach is the innovative theoretical foundation of relational autobiography that reveals the grounding of the self within the collective not as symbolic of it This framework exposes the intersection of the story of the autobiographical subject with the stories of others and the tensions between personal and communal discourse Relational strategies for self representation expose a movement between two seemingly opposing desires the desire to separate and dissociate from others and the desire to engage and integrate within a particular relationship community culture or milieu This interplay between disentangling and conscious entangling constitutes the leitmotif that unites the studies in this book

Paris Was Ours Penelope Rowlands, 2011-02-08 Thirty two essays many never before published of life in Paris from writers who were drawn by the city s charms to take up residence there In thirty two personal essays more than half of which are published here for the first time authors describe how they were seduced by Paris and then began to see things differently They came to write to cook to find love to study to raise children to escape or to live the way it s done in French movies they came from the United States Canada and England from Iran Iraq and Cuba and a few from other parts of France And they stayed not as tourists but as Parisians some are still living there In Paris Was Ours these outsiders turned insiders share their observations and revelations about the City of Light The collection includes entries from celebrated literary expats such as Diane Johnson David Sedaris Judith Thurman Joe Queenan and Edmund White Together their reflections form an unusually perceptive and multifaceted portrait of a city that is entrancing at times exasperating but always fascinating

They remind us that Paris belongs to everyone it has touched and to each in a different way A wonderful collection The essays capture the mood of the city in all of its dark and light shades evoking the spirit of Eugene Atget and Marcel Proust Chicago Tribune

Paris Metro: A Novel Wendell Steavenson, 2018-03-13 A nuanced engrossing novel about conviction and terrorism in a cosmopolitan complicated world National Book Review From the American invasion of Iraq in 2003 to the terrorist attacks in Paris in 2015 Paris Metro is a story of East meets West Kit a reporter has spent several years after 9 11 living in the Middle East working as a correspondent for an American newspaper Along the way she falls in love and marries a charismatic Iraqi diplomat named Ahmed before their separation leaves Kit raising their teenage son alone in Paris But after the Charlie Hebdo attack occurs and a few months later terrorists storm the Bataclan Kit's core beliefs are shattered The violence she had spent years covering abroad is now on her doorstep As Kit struggles with her grief and confusion she begins to mistrust those closest to her her friends her husband even her own son The French Betrayal of America

Kenneth R. Timmerman, 2005-03-22 Can we trust France Apparently not After more than 200 years of shared history and interests the U S France marriage looks as if it's ending in an acrimonious divorce Here is the shocking insider account In the wake of French behavior at the United Nations where Foreign Minister Dominique de Villepin systematically undermined the efforts of Secretary of State Colin Powell to convince the Security Council to authorize force against Iraq Americans have at best come to suspect our ally of double dealing and at worst come to view them as the enemy Almost daily over the past year new stories have emerged of how the government of French President Jacques Chirac has sought to undermine the U S war on terror publicly sniping at America and inciting other countries to do the same What's wrong with France What's behind their recent perfidy According to bestselling author Kenneth R Timmerman the American public doesn't know half the story After they read The French Betrayal of America American anger at France will turn to outrage Timmerman who worked as a journalist in France for eighteen years and knows the players on both sides lifts the veil of Jacques Chirac's scandalous love affair with Saddam Hussein beginning in 1975 when he took him on a tour of top secret French nuclear facilities The French attitude toward the dictator which seemed to baffle American politicians was in fact entirely predictable Put bluntly it was all about money oil and guns Chirac needed Saddam's oil and Saddam's money and Saddam needed French weapons and French nuclear technology Despite this the relationship between France and America was not only amicable but at times very mutually beneficial That was until the most recent war on Iraq where France turned the tables engaging in dirty diplomacy and helping to sway other European countries to their side French war coverage was not merely one sided It was viciously inaccurate skewed and openly anti American Timmerman also presents incredible new evidence of France's duplicity including the fact that the French stood to gain 100 billion from secret oil contracts they had concluded with Saddam Hussein The French Betrayal of America raises questions of whether the nuclear cooperation agreements still in force with the French today should be canceled in light of France's behavior Our security interests no longer converge and our economic systems increasingly appear to be at loggerheads The war in Iraq harshly exposed French treachery and their desire to do business with the worst of international tyrants putting their economy their international standing and their relationship with a 200 year old friend in severe jeopardy

When Nations Can't Default Simon Hinrichsen,2023-10-25 War reparations have been large and small repaid and defaulted on but the consequences have almost always been significant Ever since Keynes made his case against German reparations in The Economic Consequences of the Peace the effects of transfer payments have been hotly debated When Nations Can t Default tells the history of war reparations and their consequences by combining history political economy and open economy macroeconomics It visits often forgotten episodes and tells the story of how reparations were mostly repaid and when they were not Analysing fifteen episodes of war reparations this book argues that reparations are unlike other sovereign debt because repayment is enforced

Fear Thy Neighbor Lorenzo Vidino, Francesco Marone, Eva Entenmann, 2017-09-11 Over the last three years

Europe and North America have been hit by an unprecedented wave of terrorist attacks perpetrated by individuals motivated by jihadist ideology Who are the individuals who have carried out these attacks Were they born and raised in the West Or were they an imported threat refugees and migrants How did they radicalize Were they well educated and integrated or social outcasts Did they act alone What were their connections to the Islamic State The answers to these and other questions have large implications for our understanding of the threat facing us and consequently help us design sounder policy solutions built on empirical evidence This study the first of its kind seeks to analyze the demographic profile radicalization trajectories and connections to the Islamic State of all the individuals who have carried out attacks inspired by jihadist ideology in North America and Europe in the three years since the proclamation of the caliphate in June 2014 Securing America's Interest in Iraq United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Foreign Relations, 2007 Women of Kurdistan: A Historical and Bibliographic Study Shahrzad Mojab, Amir Hassanpour, 2021-04-19 Women of Kurdistan A Historical and Bibliographic Study documents a century long history of Kurdish women s struggles against oppressive gender relations and state violence It speaks to bibliographic silences on Kurdish women silences that are systemic and structured with many factors contributing to their re production The book records extensive literature on violence perpetrated by the family community and the state as well as presenting the reader with a vibrant archive of resistance and struggle of Kurdish women The analysis avoids the fashionable state centered scholarship which purifies processes of nation building state building and disguises their violence The image depicted of the women of Kurdistan in this bibliography is shaped also by the languages we have chosen English French and German It is a record of material in languages that are not spoken by the majority of the Kurds It will therefore be different from a bibliography of works in the Kurdish language which have a majority of Kurdish authors with more entries on topics such as poetry fiction education and arts Love and learning made the making of this bibliography imaginable It began more than 20 years ago when Amir was expanding his theoretical ground for class analysis of nationalism and peasant movement in the Kurdish region of Mukriyan Hassanpour 2021 Simultaneously I was engaged with debates on Marxist feminism and transnational feminism while grappling with post al tendencies in feminism such as post colonialism post structuralism and post modernism We wanted to better understand the explanatory power and political implications of Marx s dialectical historical materialism in explicating the intersecting and refracting relations of gender class race culture nation and nationalism This commitment nonetheless did not remain in the realm of epistemology as a disembodied intellectual exercise As a member of a dominant nation a Shirazi born Iranian I wanted to critically confront this national identity and the sense of belonging Amir sought to scrutinize patriarchal structures and gender relations in Kurdish history society culture and nation This intertwined mind and heart desire put us onto a path of renewed discoveries of our personal and intellectual relations In a nutshell this was the beginning of the making of Women of Kurdistan A Historical and Bibliographic Study Women of Kurdistan provides a meticulously researched source book for readers interested in women gender and sexuality in Kurdistan and the Middle East It covers a wealth of bibliographic material including both scholarly and non academic publications many of which have not previously been accessible to broader audiences But Women of Kurdistan is more than a source of information It is also an eloquent reflection on the entanglement of knowledge production and political power and a call to recognize scholarship s potential in shaping historical change Above all it is a passionate statement about the impossibility to comprehend the intersection of colonial capitalist and nationalist forces without attention to women s lives and struggles Marlene Sch fers British Academy Newton International Fellow University of Cambridge Women of Kurdistan is simply an excellent template for how to chronicle women s resistance politics By framing the Kurdish women s struggles within a historical materialism under different modes of production and discussing the political influence of five different nations on the Kurdish peoples the authors offer a rich context that surpasses the common fetishization of women s armed resistance Internationally known for their Marxist and feminist works Mojab and Hassanpour apply theories of nationalism capitalism peasantry knowledge production and relationship between state and non state to understand the Kurdish experience while honouring the struggle voice and poetry of Kurdish women activists The book is as unapologetically critical of regional and religious hegemonies as it is of Kurdish patriarchies and is candid about the slipperiness of the concept of the ideal Kurdish woman while skeptical of the benefits of transnationalization for the women honoured in this book Afiya Zia author of Faith and Feminism Religious Agency or Secular Autonomy
