Irish Bagpipes:

The story of the bagpipe William Henry Grattan Flood, The Story of the Bagpipe William Henry Grattan Flood, 1911

The Bagpipes Richard McLauchlan, 2025-04-24 In the early second century CE someone was described as playing a pipe with a bag tucked under his armpit That man the first named piper in history was the Roman Emperor Nero Since then this improbable conflation of bag and sticks has become one of the most beloved and contested instruments of all time When another piping emperor Tsar Peter the Great watched his pet bear take its last breath he decided the creature would live on as a bagpipe This rich and vivid history tells the story of an instrument boasting over 130 varieties yet commonly associated with just one form and one country Scotland and its familiar Great Highland Bagpipe In fact the pipes are played across the globe and their story is a highly diverse one which illuminates society in remarkable unexpected ways Richard McLauchlan charts the rise of women pipers investigates how class privilege and capitalism have shaped the world of piping and explores how the meaning of a national instrument can shift with the currents of a people s identity The vibrancy and inventiveness characterising today s pipers still speak to the potency of this fabled and once feared instrument to which McLauchlan is our surefooted guide The Highland Bagpipe William Laird Manson, 1901 Beyond the Bagpipes Nicholas

Carter Hall, Mrs. S. C. Hall, 1850 The Pipes of War - A Record of Achievements of Piping during the War 1914-18, John Grant - Bruce Seton, 2016-08-26 This record of the achievements of pipers during the war of 1914-18 is not intended to be an appeal to emotionalism. It aims at showing that in spite of the efforts of a very efficient enemy to prevent individual gallantry in spite of the physical conditions of the modern battlefield the pipes of war, the oldest instrument in the world, have played an even greater part in the orchestra of battle in this than they have in past campaigns. The piper be he Highlander or Lowlander or Scot from Overseas has accomplished the impossible not rarely and under favourable conditions but almost as a matter of routine and to him not Scotland only but the British Empire owes more than they have yet appreciated. In doing so he has sacrificed himself and Scotland and the world must face the fact that a large proportion of the men who played the instrument and kept alive the old traditions have completed their self-imposed task. With 500 pipers killed and 600 wounded something must be done to raise a new generation of players; it is a matter of national importance that this should be taken in hand at once and that the sons of those who have gone should follow in the footsteps of their fathers. A Descriptive Catalogue of the Musical Instruments Recently Exhibited at the Royal Military Exhibition, London, 1890, 1891 The South and Killarney Samuel Carter Hall, 1853 The Bagpipe Francis Collinson, 2021-10-12 Originally published in 1975 and written by an authority on Scottish music, this book traces the evolution of the bagpipe whilst also narrating the fortunes of the Great Highland Bagpipe itself. Exploring history and archaeology of civilizations as far removed from the Scottish Highlands as Egypt and Mesopotamia, Greece and Rome, this book offers a unique full-length history of one of the world's most interesting and ancient musical instruments. Appendices list the bagpipes of other countries and the materials used in the instrument's manufacture as well as a comprehensive bibliography. Inis Fail, 1904 The Bible Educator, ed. by E.H.
