Irish Art Now:

Irish Art Now, 2025 Irish Art Now is an exhibition running at the the Embassy of Ireland in London to celebrate established and emerging Irish visual artists who have made London their creative home It showcases a diverse array of works in sculpture painting and printmaking and captures the richness of Irish artistic talent and its distinctive presence within the UK s cultural scene Embassy of Ireland website Irish Art Now Declan McGonagle, Fintan O'Toole, Kim Levin, 1999 Reflecting the seismic changes in Ireland s political social economic and cultural realities of the 1990s contemporary Irish artists have begun to redefine identities raising questions about the relationships between male and female urban and rural North and South history and the present The struggle over identities which used to marginalize Ireland and societies like it has now become central to debates around the globe This strikingly illustrated book presents a reading of Irish art in the 1990s and examines the repositioning of Irish identity in works drawn primarily from the collection of the Irish Museum of Modern Art Dublin The artists examined including Kathy Prendergast Willie Doherty and Alice Maher have initiated a dialogue with their own society and others beyond Ireland using painting photography sculpture video and installation to explore subjects ranging from the personal and poetic to the political Their concerns and the way they are conveyed through non traditional materials and new interpretations of more conventional media link these works to new art being made elsewhere in the world This publication accompanies an exhibition touring the United States and Canada BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved German Art Now Cornelia Homburg, Sean Rainbird, Catharina Manchanda, 2003 German Art Now focuses on the extraordinary group of artists and photographers that emerged in Germany in the decades following the end of World War II and whose wide ranging themes and powerful aesthetic have established them as major figures on the world art stage Featuring Joseph Beuys Georg Baselitz Jorg Immendorff Anselm Kiefer Markus Lupertz A R Penck Sigmar Polke and Gerhard Richter this survey examines the way in which through their sculptures paintings and drawings these artists have confronted issues of national identity defeat and recovery mythology and the burdens of history and the responsibilities of art in society They have developed new forms of expression in which to address these themes and their impact on the fields of abstract and figurative art Pop Art photo realism and performance art has been significant Similarities of background and generation bind them into a recognizable group yet as the authors show their resistance to any similarities of subject matter medium style or artistic persona continues to ensure their individuality The New Monthly Magazine, 1823 Sources in Irish Art Fintan Cullen, 2000 The publication of these texts in a single volume enables the reader to create useful historical comparisons as well as facilitating the careful examination of historical documents Sources in Irish Art A Reader will be an ideal text for Irish Studies and relevant Art History courses both at undergraduate and postgraduate levels BOOK JACKET Ireland William Laffan, Christopher P. Monkhouse, Leslie Fitzpatrick, 2015-01-01 A sweeping survey of the arts of Ireland spanning 150 years and an astonishing range of artists and media This groundbreaking book captures a period in Ireland's history when countless foreign architects artisans and artists worked side by side with their native counterparts Nearly all of the works within this remarkable volume many of them never published before have been drawn from North American collections This catalogue accompanies the first exhibition to celebrate the Irish as artists collectors and patrons over 150 years of Ireland's sometimes turbulent history Featuring the work of a wide range of artists known and unknown and a diverse array of media the catalogue also includes an impressive assembly of essays by a pre eminent group of international experts working on the art and cultural history of Ireland Major essays discuss the subjects of the Irish landscape and tourism Irish country houses and Dublin's role as a center of culture and commerce Also included are numerous shorter essays covering a full spectrum of topics and artworks including bookbinding ceramics furniture glass mezzotints miniatures musical instruments pastels silver and textiles
