How Green Was Our Wave Kevin Cavey, 2017-10-17 1970 Irish team competes in Jersey Channel Islands Left to right Harry Evans Dave Kenny Hugh O'Brien Moran David Govan Roger Steadman Eamon Matthews Bo Vance Kevin Cavey Alan Duke This nostalgic story takes one back to the beginning of surfing in Ireland which was hammered into reality by one ambitious youth attempting to live the dream He was entranced by the Hawaiian Islands and sunny California and thus yearned to make Ireland in that image This meant expanding the sport and putting Ireland on the world map of surfing nations and that's just what happened Much of this was inspired by his reading an article in the 1962 edition of Reader's Digest The story depicted surfers in Oahu on head high waves just like the waves in Ireland he thought As he went he gathered supporters and soon formed Ireland's first surf club In March 1966 they mounted an exhibit stand in at the Irish Boat Show At this show valuable contacts were made that were to become lifelong His club went on a series of surfaris around the coast and introduced the sport in such places as Strandhill Rosslough and Tramore He then competed in the 1966 World Surfing Championships in San Diego and with his colleagues staged the first Irish Surfing Championships in Tramore County Waterford in September of 1967 The story tells of the people who responded to the clarion call and just how proficient these surfers were to become It also relates comical yarns told by the people they met on their way and also the encounters that early surfers experienced as they attempted to make fiberglass boards and then try them in the heaving ocean The book concludes with a look at the 2006 Silver Surfari celebrating the fifty years of the sport Old timers returned for the event held in Lahinch County Clare and Rossnowlagh County Donegal All this was done because it was felt that before the passage of time dimmed memories of old it was good to rally those icons to whom so much is owed
