Murder in an Irish Bookshop Carlene O'Connor, 2021-02-23 In Carlene O'Connor's seventh installment of her USA Today bestselling Irish Village Mystery series the grand opening of a new bookstore in Kilbane becomes the closing chapter of an author's life and a whodunit that tests even Garda Siobhán O'Sullivan's deductive reasoning. A mélange of clues from classic mysteries plus plenty of Irish charm produce an enjoyable read. Kirkus Reviews Join a bestselling author and travel to County Cork in Ireland to solve a bookish mystery full of twists in a cozy whodunit perfect for fans of Sheila Connolly, Kate Carlisle and Laura Childs. Between training the new town garda and trying to set a wedding date with her fiancé Macdara Flannery Siobhán O'Sullivan is feeling a bit overwhelmed. She's looking forward to visiting the new bookshop and curling up with an exciting novel only to discover the shelves contain nothing but Literature with a capital L. The owner not only refuses to stock romances, mysteries and science fiction but won't even let customers enter his store unless they can quote James Joyce or Sean Hennessey. Despite the owner deliberately limiting his clientele he's hosting a reading and autographing event featuring up and coming Irish writers who will be taking up residency in Kilbane for a month. Among them is indie author Deirdre Walsh who spends more time complaining about the unfairness of the publishing industry and megastar bestsellers instead of her own creative works causing a heated debate among the writers. She seems to have a particular distaste for the novels of Nessa Lamb. Then Deirdre's body is found the next day in the back of the store with pages torn from Nessa's books stuffed in her mouth. Now Siobhán must uncover which of Kilbane's literary guests took Deirdre's criticisms so personally they'd engage in foul play.

Murder in an Irish Pub Carlene O'Connor, 2019-02-26 When competing card sharps stir up Siobhán O'Sullivan's quiet Irish village a poker tournament turns into a game of Hangman. In the small village of Kilbane in County Cork for a cuppa tea or a slice of brown bread you go to Naomi's Bistro managed by the many siblings of the lively O'Sullivan brood. For a pint or a game of darts or for the poker tournament that's just come to town it's the pub you want. One player's reputation precedes him. Eamon Foley, a tinker out of Dublin called the Octopus for playing like he has eight hands under the table. But when Foley is found at the end of a rope swinging from the rafters of Rory Mack's pub it's time for the garda to take matters into their own hands. Macdara Flannery would lay odds it's a simple suicide after all there's a note and the room was locked. But Siobhán suspects foul play as does Foley's very pregnant widow. Perhaps one of Foley's fellow finalists just raised the stakes to life and death. With conflicting theories on the crime not to mention the possibility of a proposal tensions are running high between Siobhán and Macdara. Soon it's up to Siobhán to call a killer's bluff but if she doesn't play her cards right she may be the next one taken out of the game.
