vibrant southern state      War in the Shallows John Darrell Sherwood, 2015 War in the Shallows published in 2015 by the Naval History and Heritage Command is the authoritative account of the U S Navy's hard fought battle along Vietnam's rivers and coastline from 1965-1968. At the height of the U S Navy's involvement in the Vietnam War, the Navy's coastal and riverine forces included more than 30,000 Sailors and over 350 patrol vessels ranging in size from riverboats to destroyers. These forces developed the most extensive maritime blockade in modern naval history and fought pitched battles against Viet Cong units in the Mekong Delta and elsewhere. War in the Shallows explores the operations of the Navy's three inshore task forces from 1965 to 1968. It also delves into other themes such as basing technology, tactics and command and control. Finally, using oral history interviews, it reconstructs deckplate life in South Vietnam, focusing in particular on combat waged by ordinary Sailors. Vietnam was the bloodiest war in recent naval history, and War in the Shallows strives above all else to provide insight into the men who fought it and honor their service and sacrifice. Illustrated throughout with photographs and maps, Author John Darrell Sherwood has served as a historian with the Naval History and Heritage Command (NHHC) since 1997. Provided by publisher

African American War Heroes James B. Martin, 2014-05-12 Detailed profiles bring stories of African American heroism in the U S armed forces to life from the American Revolution through the conflict in Afghanistan. African American war heroes remain largely unsung; their courage and valor relegated to the less traveled corners of history. This work seeks out those heroes: soldiers, sailors, flyers, and marines who earned their nation's highest medals in defense of freedom and equality. Some of these men and women died on the battlefield. Others returned to civilian life in a segregated country. What they share across time and circumstance is devotion to duty and to the country they defended, even in the face of personal and racial prejudice. Entries profile decorated African Americans from all of the U S conflicts since the Revolutionary War. In addition to providing basic biographical data, each profile offers a detailed account of the individual's heroic actions. The book also offers sidebars on events and topics relevant to African Americans in the U S armed forces, such as histories of the 54th Massachusetts and the Tuskegee Army.

Weapons technology has taken inspiration from science fiction, from the bazooka and the atomic bomb to weaponized lasers and drones. Star-spangled superheroes sold war bonds in comic books sent to GIs during World War II and adorned the noses of bombers. The same superheroes now appear in big budget movies, made with military assistance, fighting evil in today's war zones. A missile shield of laser satellites dreamed up by writers and embraced by the high command is partially credited with ending the Cold War. Sci-fi themes and imagery are used to sell weapons programs, military service, and wars to the public. Some science fiction creators have willingly cooperated with the military others have been conscripted Some have used the genre as a forum for protest This book examines the relationship between the U S military and science fiction through more than 80 years of novels comics films and television series including Captain America Starship Troopers The Twilight Zone Dr Strangelove Star Trek Iron Man Bill the Galactic Hero The Forever War Star Wars Aliens Ender s Game Space Above and Beyond and Old Man s War      Great Stories of the American West Martin Harry Greenberg,1994 Stories on gunslingers and cowpunchers The collection includes Dorothy Johnson s Lost Sister on a white girl raised by Indians      Gothiniad Surazeus Astarius,2017-10 Gothiniad of Surazeus Oracle of Gotha presents 150 792 lines of verse in 1 948 poems lyrics ballads sonnets dramatic monologues eulogies hymns and epigrams written by Surazeus 1993 to 2000      Mediterranean Cruise 1984 Jeff Elliott,2017-03-03 Phillip Mattingly is a Senior Chief Gunners Mate in the US Navy newly assigned to Charleston South Carolina Hes expecting a normal peacetime deployment until he meets Chief Petty Officer Gail Cornell He never expected to be attracted to one of his fellow officers but he cant get the blue eyed beauty out of his mindand she seems to feel the same about him They set out on their military cruise to the Mediterranean aboard a US ammunition ship Once there Phillip and Gail discover the riches of the land enjoying the food drink and romantic ambiance of foreign countries Neither one expects the danger that awaits them and the rest of the crew as they soon find themselves staring into the face of extreme danger A man known as Timekeeper enters the fray and the CIA gets involved Now the mission of these brave Navy servicemen and women changes as they agree to work undercover to stop a madman Everyones lives are at stake in the hands of the so called Parabellum Terrorist Will Phillip and Gail put an end to his violence or will their blossoming relationship make them vulnerable to attack
