On The Waterfront: Water Distribution, Technology And Agrarian Change In A South Indian Canal Irrigation System Peter P. Mollinga, 2003 Series Wageningen University Water Resources Series This book analyses the struggle over water in a large scale irrigation system in Raichur District Karnataka South India It looks at water control as a simultaneously technical managerial and socio political process The triangle of accommodation of different categories of farmers irrigation department officials and local politicians involving water votes money employment credit and harassment is documented The book shows that the physical infrastructure notably the division structures are signposts of struggle expressing the balance of power between farmers and the irrigation department and that between head and tail end farmers It concludes with a discussion of irrigation reform efforts in India reasons for the very slow transformation of the sector and how a more integrated perspective on irrigation could provide directions for the way forward

Water Architecture in South Asia Julia Hegewald, 2022-08-01 Water architecture in South Asia represents some of the most beautiful and spectacular building achievements of the region This study provides a holistic approach to the subject suggesting common links and regional contrasts between types of water structures and their contexts with a comprehensive interpretation of the history and meaning of water architecture in India Nepal and Sri Lanka Five types of water structures are identified Their development is traced from simple to more complex forms considering how these accommodate secular and religious functions and present expressions of sacred and royal authority This publication is the first reference work on the subject Many of the structures discussed and illustrated here have never been published before Its comprehensive approach will have a wide relevance for other South Asian disciplines Architecture and Art of Southern India George Michell,1995-08-17 George Michell provides a pioneering and richly illustrated introduction to the architecture sculpture and painting of Southern India under the Vijayanagara empire and the states that succeeded it This period encompassing some four hundred years from the fourteenth to the eighteenth century was endowed with an abundance of religious and royal monuments which remain as testimonies to the history and ideology behind their evolution The author evaluates the legacy of this artistic heritage describing and illustrating buildings sculptures and paintings that have never been published before In a previously neglected area of art history the author presents an original and much needed reassessment A Social History of the Deccan, 1300-1761 Richard M. Eaton,2005-11-17 In this fascinating account of one of the least known parts of South Asia Eaton recounts the history of the Deccan plateau in southern India from the fourteenth century to the rise of European colonialism He does so vividly through the lives of eight Indians who lived at different times during this period and who each represented something particular about the Deccan In the first chapter for example the author describes the demise of the regional kingdom through the life of a maharaja In the second a Sufi sheikh illustrates Muslim piety and state authority Other characters include a merchant a general a slave a poet a bandit and a female pawnbroker Their stories are woven together into a rich narrative tapestry which illumines the most important social processes of the Deccan across four centuries This is a much needed book by the most highly regarded scholar in the field

The Archaeology of Early Medieval and Medieval South Asia Swadhin Sen,Supriya Varma,Bhairabi Prasad Sahu,2022-11-30 This book looks at the ways in which archaeological methods have been used in debates concerning the early medieval and medieval periods in South Asia Despite the incorporation and use of archaeological data to corroborate historical narratives the theories and methods of archaeology are largely ignored in and excluded from the dominating institutionalized and hegemonic disciplinary discourses The volume offers contesting insights polemical narratives and new data from archaeological contexts to initiate a debate on many foundational premises of archaeological and historical narratives It focuses on the much neglected region of the Eastern Ganga Brahmaputra Basin as a spatial frame to do this and studies themes such as spatial and temporal scales of concepts and methods multi scalar factors and processes of continuity and changes the settlement archaeology of the alluvial landscape changing patterns of agrarian transformation and material cultures including coins inscriptions pottery and sculptures in their contexts in sub regional regional and supra regional intersections Dedicated to historian Brajadulal Chattopadhyaya this volume presents a crucial and unprecedented intervention in the study of the early medieval and the medieval periods It will be useful for scholars and researchers of archaeology ancient history medieval history water history earth sciences palaeoecology historical ecology epigraphy art

Wagoner, Jayaram Poduval, 2001 Cultural Resource Management in Contemporary Society Alf Hatton, Francis P. MacManamon, 2003-05-20 This innovative collection of essays from an international range of contributors describes various means of preserving protecting and presenting vital cultural resources within the context of economic development competing claims of ownership of particular cultural resources modern uses of structures and space and other aspects of late twentieth century life Buddhist Landscapes in Central India Julia Shaw, 2016-08-12 The monumental bias of Buddhist archaeology has hampered our understanding of the socio religious mechanisms that enabled early Buddhist monks to establish themselves in new areas To articulate these relationships Shaw presents here the first integrated study of settlement archaeology and Buddhist history carried out in the area around Sanchi a Central Indian UNESCO World Heritage site Her comprehensive data rich and heavily illustrated work provides an archaeological basis for assessing theories regarding the dialectical relationship between Buddhism and surrounding lay populations It also sheds light on the role of the introduction of Buddhism in changing settlement patterns This volume was originally published in 2007 by the British Association of South Asian Studies The City in South Asia James Heitzman, 2008-03-31 The macro region of South Asia including Bangladesh India Nepal Pakistan and Sri Lanka today supports one of the world s greatest concentrations of cities but as James Heitzman argues in the first comprehensive treatment of urban South Asia this has been the case for at least 5 000 years With a strong emphasis on the production of space and periodic excursions into literature art and architecture religion and public culture this interdisciplinary study is a valuable text for students and scholars interested in comparative history urban studies and the social sciences Middle East Garden Traditions Michel Conan, Dumbarton Oaks, 2007 This book unites new information and surprising results from the last fifteen years of garden research at a remove from the clichés of Orientalism Garden archaeology reveals the economic importance of Judean gardens in Roman times and the visual complexity of gardens created and transformed in Moorish Spain More contemporary approaches unravel the cultural continuities variations and differences between gardens in the Middle East since Roman times and in the Islamic world

Historical Dictionary of the Tamils Vijaya Ramaswamy, 2017-08-25 The Tamils have an unbroken history of more than two thousand years Tamil the language they speak is one of the oldest living languages in the world The only people comparable to the Tamils in terms of their hoary past and vibrant present would be the Jews with one marked difference The Tamils have always had their homeland Tamilaham alternately pronounced and spelt Tamizhaham known today as Tamil Nadu which to them represents their mother and is revered by them as Tamizh Tai literally Tamil Mother This is in striking contrast to the Jews who have been through a long and arduous struggle to gain their homeland a deeply contested site to this day with Hebrewisation of Israel being a key marker of Jewish identity in the region Tamils by contrast have a clear numerical majority in the region that now comprises Tamil Nadu and the language unites rather than divides adherents of different faiths The second edition of Historical Dictionary of the Tamils contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Tamils
