attempts to break down the barriers between genders The photograph N ez Noriega uses to explore the shifting attitudes and perceptions of sexuality and gender provokes more questions than answers Recognizing the societal regulations at play the author demonstrates the existence in contemporary Mexico of an invisible regime of power that constructs and regulates the field of possibilities for men s social actions especially acts of friendship affection and eroticism with other men The work investigates modes of speaking about being a man on being gay on the implicit meanings of the words homosexual masculine trade fair and others words that construct possibilities for intimacy particularly affective and erotic intimacy among men Multiple variants of homoeroticism fall outside the dominant model N ez Noriega argues a finding that offers many lessons on men and masculine identities This book challenges patriarchal definitions of sex gender and identity it promotes the unlearning of dominant conventions of masculinity to allow new ways of being

Parent-child Relations Throughout Life Karl Pillemer, Kathleen McCartney, 2013-09-05 The study of parent child relationships has long been of interest to behavioral scientists both for its theoretical importance and for its practice and policy implications There are however certain limitations to the knowledge in this area First research on parents and children is spread throughout a number of disciplines and as a consequence is not well integrated Further there has been little dialogue among researchers concerned with parents of young children and those interested in middle aged and elderly parents and their offspring The present volume predicates the notion that there is considerable similarity in the issues explored by researchers on different points of the life course Contributions by leading scholars in psychology sociology and anthropology are organized into four sections each of which contains a treatment of at least two stages in the life course The sections cover attachment in early childhood and in later life life course transitions relationships within families and the influence of social structural factors on parent child relations Although the chapters make important contributions to basic research and theory many also deal with issues of public concern such as day care maternal employment gay and lesbian relationships and care of the elderly serious There is a discernible difference between an offensive remark and an incitement to commit murder There is also a fundamental distinction between intentional and unintentional discrimination In this book Cortese rethinks some of the issues that have been silenced in ways harmful to many especially those that have been brutalized oppressed manipulated dominated segregated and disadvantaged We should recognize the grave injuries inflicted by hate speech and the potential tensions between legal solutions to those injuries and the First Amendment We must push for moral education educational speech codes and when necessary a formal legal structural response to hate speech in order to reinforce our commitment to tolerance as a value
