Trilogies of Thought 4 Life's Lessons Kathleen Avino, 2012-08-14 This book was a ten year labor of love inspired and directed by Kathleen Avino's spirit guides. The stories were given to her and she systematically put them down on paper. Her sincere hope is that these stories will bring a sense of joy, self exploration and healing to those who read them. This book is divided into a series of sets, each with its own theme and divided into three parts: a traditional haiku, a poem and a descriptive short story. It is presented in a workshop format intended to provide readers with an opportunity for reflection and healing. The book's true intention is to provide pleasure and a respite from daily difficulties. Kathleen carries an international clientele. She works via respected and established psychic networks and psychic and new age festivals. Kathleen is also available for private consultations in the New York City, Long Island, New Jersey area and by telephone via her website www.katsangeleyes.net.

Life's Lessons from a Father to His Daughter Bob Grossmann, 2003-05-21 Life's Lessons from a Father to his Daughter uses twenty-four stories, pictures and artwork to help teach our children life's lessons with the aim of helping our children learn to make good decision-making skills. Decision-making skills are often not well taught or integrated into a strong sense of personal philosophy. Human nature can be impulsive. The use of stories, real life or metaphors to pass on life lessons from one generation to another is at the core of our oral and written traditions. Parents can help to pass on this information as a creative way to install core values, help reduce the chance of mishap and enhance lifelong success. Part of the challenge is establishing a dialogue that allows worldviews to be discussed, both the commonalities and the differences. Perhaps part of the failure to achieve a sustained dialogue is that we as parents wait too long to start the dialogue. Part of the challenge too is that the lessons have different levels of meaning as we age. So Life's Lessons from a Father to his Daughter was written to have meaning at the different stages of life: in one's mid-teens, mid-twenties and again in mid-life. Value exists in the stories being real. Non-fiction can carry more weight. Children need to learn early that their parents continue to go through what they are experiencing. We too make mistakes that we try and fail and we are both individuals and members of larger communities. All the increasing access to information may not make decision-making easier. Greater discrimination and better choices will be essential. So read the vignettes with your children and see where the discussion goes. Be sure to have a few good laughs along the way. Life's Lessons from a Father to his Daughter is a tool to help parents communicate with their children by providing a context for parents to add their own personal stories.

Miss Lillie's Home Training: Life Lessons for Your Soul M Kirby Toombs, 2020-01-08 Miss Lillie made a conscious choice at a young age to not only survive her father's abusive alcoholism but to excel. Spending her formative years as a ward of the state, she graduated valedictorian from TIS TPS in Nashville, Tennessee and was awarded a full scholarship to George Peabody College, now a division of Vanderbilt University. She chose, however, to raise a family and make sure her family had what she didn't: growing up stability and love. She never met a stranger and never stopped learning. These memories and her teachings are full of joy, imagination and humor.
