Life Matters:

Life Matters Adrian Ebens, 2011-04-04 I have often found myself chasing this treasure of memories I recently traveled to a place I lived when I was a child and I just soaked up the sights and the sounds visited my old home and relived the memories Memories of Dad and Mum my sister and I sitting around the lounge memories of going running with my Dad memories of playing with my friends in the creek climbing trees and riding bikes I know that the memories are slightly rose glass tinted and there is an incredibly strong bias to only remember the good times but it feels so good and satisfying Building and protecting this kind of treasure safeguards the health of communities and gives hope to generations yet to emerge The treasures of love and affection sweet memories laid down in family rituals and experiences are the fabric of life Without this treasure life has no heart and soul and is reduced to the drudgery of survival Without a series of warm memories connected to special relationships life is meaningless No person can centre and stabilise themselves without some place they can point to with warmth and call home

Life Matters Colin Murray, 2023-09-12 In his late fifties and having one eye on a well earned retirement Colin Murray a full time decorator and Church pastor in North East Scotland received the bombshell news he was suffering from Motor Neurone Disease From the sheer panic of his first night following his MND diagnosis Colin confronts the brutal merciless muscle wasting disease head on with prayer and positivity Accepting his diagnosis he continues to fight his prognosis with positivity and prayer In Life Matters Colin reminds us that we should never minimise or over spiritualise anyone's struggle with pain and that secular groups are more compassionate empathetic and Christlike than Christians with questionable doctrine While many question their faith and recoil with fear in the face of a terminal diagnosis Colin remains a persevering shining light to many during his declining health and an ever increasing loss of mobility This book is testimony that hope is real Spirit life is real and in God's strength is made perfect in weakness As a Church pastor Colin realises that his life now is his greatest sermon It is clear reading this powerful book that Colin is no whitewashed tomb He is alive in Christ already a possessor of the life of the age to come Although outwardly wasting away Colin is being inwardly renewed daily This is a must read for anyone battling a serious illness
