Social Perspectives on Death and Dying Jeanette A. Auger, 2020-07-25T00:00:00Z Death is inevitable but our perspectives about death and dying are socially constructed This updated third edition takes us through the maze of issues both social and personal which surround death and dying in Canada Topics include euthanasia and medically assisted death palliative care and hospices the high incidence of opioid deaths the impact of cyber bullying in suicide deaths the sociology of hiv aids funeral and burial practices the high rates of suicide in Canada and dealing with grief and bereavement among others Additionally Auger explores alternative methods for helping dying persons and their loved ones deal with death in a holistic patient centred way Each chapter includes suggested readings discussion questions and in class assignments RQ.

,1994 The Story of a Heart Rachel Clarke,2024-09-10 One summer day nine year old Keira Ball was in a terrible car accident and suffered catastrophic brain injuries As the rest of her body began to shut down her heart continued to beat In an act of extraordinary generosity Keira s parents and siblings immediately agreed that she would have wanted to be an organ donor Meanwhile nine year old Max Johnson had been in a hospital for nearly a year valiantly fighting the virus that was causing his young heart to fail When Max s parents received the call they had been hoping for they knew it came at a terrible cost to another family in what Clarke calls the brutal arithmetic of transplant surgery The act of Keira s heart resuming its rhythm inside Max s body was a medical miracle But this was only part of the story While waiting on the transplant list Max had become the hopeful face of a campaign to change the UK s laws around organ donation Following his successful surgery Keira s mother saw the little boy beaming on the front page of the newspaper and knew it was the same boy whose parents had recently sent her an anonymous letter overflowing with gratitude for her daughter s heart The two mothers began to exchange messages and eventually decided to meet One Hundred Days David Biro,2007-12-18 It is a situation we all fear and none of us can imagine a life threatening diagnosis But what if the person receiving the diagnosis young physically fit poised for a bright future is himself a doctor At thirty one David biro has just completed his residency and joined his father s successful dermatology practice Struck with a rare blood disease that eventually necessitates a bone marrow transplant Biro relates with honesty and courage the story of his most transforming journey He is forthright about the advantages that his status as a physician may have afforded him and yet no such advantage can protect him from the anxiety and doubt brought on by his debilitating therapies The pressures that Biro s wild one hundred days brings to bear on his heretofore well established identity as a caregiver are enormous as is the power of this riveting story of survival

Canadian Periodical Index ,1995 Passing Through Jeanette A. Auger,2003 This study of the challenges that same sex couples face in Nova Scotia considers the legal issues that have arisen since Nova Scotia passed legislation permitting same sex couples to legally register their relationship and the social expectations that continue to affect personal decisions Closeted relationships and the history of discrimination have led many partners to avoid making end of life decisions The personal interviews and group discussions presented offer insight into the challenges that same sex couples face and provide a framework for discussing what partners need to consider to assert their legal rights Julie: The Courage to Breathe Roy E. Ice,2013-02-01 I don t think I m coming home Something doesn t feel right Julie said She was right Her lungs functions had dropped to even lower levels and doctors were unsure of what to do next For the first time in our marriage I saw my wife using oxygen With the air flowing her oxygen levels were 91% Without it they were 62% My Julie s lungs were dying As the days passed I would witness her health decline further As Julie lay motionless throughout the night I would hold her as we listened to the steady unrelenting grind of her feeding tube pump On this hospitalization the words End Stage

Cystic Fibrosis were spoken for the first time A double lung transplant would be the only way to save her life If we could keep her alive long enough she could walk out of the hospital on her own She would have to rely on her courage to breathe to do it

A Woman in My Position Linda Wilson,Dianne Brown,1995 Linda Wilson was diagnosed with fibrocystic disease of the breast in 1985 and her doctors recommended using the Meme breast implant as part of her treatment But Wilson s experience with the implant turned into a nightmare of pain and infection Here she tells of the inept handling of her case by doctors lawyers government officials and politicians and of her fight to have Meme implants taken off the market

Williams,1995 Jamaica is the land where the rooster lays an egg When a Jamaican is born of a black woman and some English or Scotsman the black mother is literally and figuratively kept out of sight as far as possible but no one is allowed to forget that white father however questionable the circumstances of birth You get the impression that these virile Englishmen do not require women to reproduce They just come out to Jamaica scratch out a nest and lay eggs that hatch out into pink Jamaicans Zora Neale Hurston We may no longer issue scarlet letters but from the way we talk we might as well W for welfare S for single B for black CC for children having children WT for white trash To a culture speaking with barely masked hysteria in which branding is done with words and those branded are outcasts this book brings a voice of reason and a warm reminder of the decency and mutual respect that are missing from so much of our public debate Patricia J Williams whose acclaimed book The Alchemy of Race and Rights offered a vision for healing the ailing spirit of the law here broadens her focus to address the wounds in America s public soul the sense of community that rhetoric so subtly but surely makes and unmakes In these pages we encounter figures and images plucked from headlines from Tonya Harding to Lani Guinier Rush Limbaugh to Hillary

Clinton Clarence Thomas to Dan Quayle and see how their portrayal encoding certain stereotypes often reveals more about us than about them What are we really talking about when we talk about welfare mothers for instance Why is calling someone a redneck okay and what does that say about our society When young women appear on Phil Donahue to represent themselves as Jewish American Princesses what else are they doing These are among the questions Williams considers as she uncovers the shifting often covert rules of conversation that determine who we are as a nation
