The Failures of Public Art and Participation Cameron Cartiere, Anthony Schrag, 2022-08-25 This collection of original essays takes a multi disciplinary approach to explore the theme of failure through the broad spectrum of public art and social practice The anthology brings together practicing artists curators activists art writers administrators planners and educators from around the world to offer differing perspectives on the many facets of failure in commissioning planning producing evaluating and engaging communities in the continually evolving field of art in the public realm As such this book offers a survey of currently unexplored and interconnected thinking and provides a much needed critical voice to the commissioning of public and participatory arts The volume includes case studies from the UK the US China Cuba and Denmark as well as discussions of digital public art collections The Failures of Public Art and Participation will be of interest for students and scholars of visual arts design and architecture interested in how art in the public realm fits within social and political contexts

Lawrence - Selected (Something) D. H. Lawrence, 1966-08-24 This is the first critical study of Sons and Lovers to engage with the new Cambridge edition which prints for the first time the whole text that Lawrence wrote restoring the substantial cuts made by the first editor Michael Black gives special attention to the genesis of the book the writing and editing processes where Jessie Chambers and then Edward Garnett made decisive interventions He analyzes Sons and Lovers in detail relates it to Lawrence s other works and traces the history of its reception Historical context and a guide to further reading are also provided

Filming Literature Neil Sinyard, 2013-07-18 This is a comprehensive survey of the relationship between film and literature It looks at the cinematic adaptations of such literary masters as Shakespeare Henry James Joseph Conrad and D H Lawrence and considers the contribution to the cinema made by important literary figures as Harold Pinter James Agnew and Graham Greene Elsewhere the book draws intriguing analogies between certain literary and film artists such as Dickens and Chaplin Ford and Twain and suggests that such analogies can throw fresh light on the subjects under review Another chapter considers the film genre of the bio pic the numerous cinematic attempts to render in concrete terms the complexities of the literary life whether the writer be Proust Joyce Oscar Wilde Dashiell Hammett Agatha Christie or Boris Pasternak Originally published in 1986 this is a book to appeal to any reader with an interest in film or literature and is of especial value to those involved in the teaching or study of either subject

Place in Literature Roberto Maria Dainotto, 2000 Since the 1840s when Victorian England emerged into the modern era and industrial cities became the new cultural centers regionalist literature has posited itself as an aesthetic alternative to nationalist culture Yet what differentiates regionalism's claims of authenticity derived from blood and soil from those of nationalism Through close readings and theoretical elaborations Roberto M Dainotto reveals the degree to which regionalism mimics nationalism in valorizing ethnic purity He interprets regionalism not as a genre in the pastoral tradition but as a rhetorical trope a way of reading in which regionalism figures as the other against a historical process that disrupts the organic wholeness of place Dainotto traces the genealogy of the idea of place in literature examining European texts from Victorian England to Fascist Italy He finds for example in Thomas Hardy's The Return of the Native a virtual thesaurus of regionalist commonplaces Elizabeth Gaskell's North and South mediates between Madame de Stal's privileging of the sophisticated north and Jean Jacques Rousseau's nostalgia for the naive south The regionalism of the Sicilian philosopher Giovanni Gentile exhibits a deep longing for the humanities as they define Italy and Western culture Dainotto concludes with a close look at the rhetoric of Nazism and Fascism dramatizing the convergence of regionalist aesthetics and nationalist ideology in Italy and Germany between the two World Wars

Moral Tradition and Individuality John Kekes, 2021-01-12 In this study John Kekes develops the view that good lives depend on maintaining a balance between one's moral tradition and individuality Our moral tradition provides the forms of good lives and the permissible ways of trying to achieve them But to do so the author argues we must grow in self knowledge and self control to make our characters suitable for realizing our aspirations In addressing general readers as well as scholars Kekes makes these philosophical views concrete by drawing on a rich variety of literary sources including among others the works of Sophocles Henry James Tolstoy and Edith Wharton The first half of the work concentrates on social morality establishing the conditions all good lives must meet The second discusses personal morality the sphere of individuality Its development enables us to discover what is important to us and how we can fit our personal aspirations into the forms of life our moral tradition provides Kekes's argument derives its inspiration from Aristotle's objectivism Hume's emphasis on custom and feeling and Mill's concentration on individuals and their experiments in living This book is a nontechnical yet closely reasoned attempt to provide a contemporary answer to the age old question of how to live well

Axelrod-Sokolov,2019-04-30 One can approach the notion of otherness or alterity in various ways politically aesthetically ethically culturally religiously and sexually Writing in Saylor org Lilia Melani defined the other as an individual who is perceived by the group as not belonging as being different in some fundamental way Any stranger becomes the Other The Other in a society may have few or no legal rights may be characterized as less intelligent or as immoral and may even be regarded as sub human The collection of essays Notions of Otherness addresses many of these approaches as ways of interrogating how varied yet how similar they are in relation to the individual literary texts The Dublin Literary Journal and Select Family Visitor ,1845 To record and disseminate the reports of the various Irish literary and scientific societies
