Lay Action:

Laypeople Into Action Joseph Cardijn, 2018-01-01 A reprint of Cardijn's classic 1964 Laymen into Action now titled Laypeople into Action. This seminal work has been for many years the principal introduction to the Jocist movements and the Jocist method of See Judge Act: the review of life method. The Jocist See Judge Act were to become key words in various documents from Vatican II due to the influence of Cardijn and others associated with him and his work in the Jocist movements who wrote or contributed in some way to some of the key documents from Vatican II. Born in Belgium, ordained in 1906, Cardijn was nine years old when the papal encyclical Rerum Novarum was released. His life can be seen as a brilliant application of the principles of that social document. He dedicated himself to the working class and especially to young workers whom he saw leading degraded and dechristianised lives in the industrial lives in the industrial society of Northern Belgium. Cardijn established the Young Christian Workers (YCW) movement, an international movement in the early part of this century. His sound apostolic theology has provided inspiration and guidance for the YCW and for other apostolic movements including the YCS and TYCS. Laypeople into Action is a collection of writings and speeches by Cardijn explaining his conception of the person and their mission, methods of formation, Cardijn's hopes for the future and his understanding of the Church in the modern world. There is solid food for thought here for those actively engaged in the lay apostolate, giving a detailed outline of a theology of the laity, a theology of mission for the laypeople and for priests, the role of priest in forming lay leaders, a foundational document on the how and why of lay formation, of formation through like to like and the importance and role in the Church and society of international movements of laypeople such as the YCW and the YCS.

Action and Responsibility Andrew Sneddon, 2006-01-27 This book is an exploration of what it takes for an event to count as an action. I first became interested in this topic nearly a decade ago while working on a different topic. I kept coming across philosophers making claims about the nature of action that seemed false or at least dubious to me. As a consequence, I turned to the philosophy of action directly to get to the heart of the matter. I have wrestled with this territory ever since. I hope that with this book I have finally earned the intuitions that put me at odds with the philosophers I was originally reading. This book develops ideas in Part Two of my doctoral dissertation which I wrote at Queen's University in Kingston, Ontario, Canada. I loved being at Queen's for both professional and personal reasons. My thanks go to the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada for financial support as a doctoral candidate, Steve Leighton and Ronald de Sousa were readers for my dissertation. They provided some early and invaluable challenges to the ideas developed here. My deepest debt of gratitude is owed to David Bakhurst, my supervisor. I learned a lot from David; this book would not be the same without his help.
