A Layman's Bible Digest Leslie Peyton, 1978-11-01      Digest, 1895      The Literary Digest Edward Jewitt Wheeler, Isaac Kaufman Funk, William Seaver Woods, Arthur Stimson Draper, Wilfred John Funk, 1895      The Layman's Bible Commentary Balmer H. Kelly, 1967      Church and State inseparable. By a layman, 1835      Digest; Review of Reviews Incorporating Literary Digest, 1895      A Layman's Daily Devotional Curt Donahue, 2017-02-27

A Layman's Daily Devotional was written by a layman for laypeople of all ages. It is mostly devoid of theological terms so it is easier for the average person to understand. There are applicable illustrations to help people comprehend the message from Scripture and its application to the message of the day. There is a devotion for every day of the year and several devotions for specific days in the Christian calendar as well as for days on which we honor both mothers and fathers. The reader will likely gain a closer relationship with their Lord and Savior Jesus Christ through daily use and may also develop a closer relationship with family members when used as a family devotion. The changing and challenging circumstances in our world today require closer relationships with both God and family. A Layman's Daily Devotional lends itself to development of both relationships. With few exceptions, each devotion is a stand-alone devotion. This book would make a meaningful gift to a young person venturing out on their own who could develop the habit early of spending time each day with God, which is always a good way to start every day. A Layman's Daily Devotional is written such that it can be used year after year throughout one's life.

The credential of the author is based upon the fact that he is a trained psychologist, a biologist, and a scientist and has been in management/business fields for many years, having been exposed in all aspects of commerce and finance. He has a Master's degree in Industrial Psychology from the University of Sydney, a Bachelor of Science degree with a double major in psychology from Australian National University, and a major in Biology from RMIT. Was awarded the Elizabeth and Martin Summit Prize in Psychology, an annual award given to the most outstanding student in Psychology at Sydney University. He has been teaching in a university for several years and was involved in politics for some time but voluntarily chose to pursue a different path because of the incompatible sets of values that are required against what he believed in. He has a background of Buddhist and Confucian upbringing and was converted to being a follower of Jesus as a Catholic. However, he had been battling with what the churches taught and his knowledge and understanding in the fields of biology and psychology, new discoveries of physical sciences in which he was trained against the background of his upbringing in a culture that was homogenous and has survived for more than 5000 years of history and his life experiences in the modern commercial/materialistic world culture. He believes in doing God's work in whatever circumstances he was placed to be guided by the principles of what he believed Jesus has taught in establishing a consistent logical framework that is universal and more holistic, the result of which is the writing of this book. One of his greatest gifts is his ability to analyze things logically and he has been a good debater when he was at school He has thus put all his thoughts down gathered from his training life experiences and his wide exposure in the modern world environment to establish an overall consistent logical framework in understanding the meaning of life in the order of things and the role religion plays in assisting each individuals to achieve the universal objective of a salvation and the conflicts that are generated as a result of different derivatives of history and culture of the world
