is of significance for each writer in this collection most crucially that the premonition of catastrophe which defined Bataille's fluid political positions is also located between tragedy and irony

The Studio, 1910 Saints of the Impossible

Alexander Irwin, 2002 The transgressive writing of Georges Bataille 1897-1962 and the rigorous ethical philosophy of social activist and Christian mystic Simone Weil 1909-1943 seem to belong to different worlds Yet in the political ferment of 1930s Paris Bataille and Weil were intellectual adversaries who exerted a powerful fascination on each other Saints of the Impossible provides the first in depth comparison of Bataille's and Weil's thought showing how an exploration of their relationship reveals new facets of the achievements of two of the twentieth century's leading intellectual figures and raises far reaching questions about literary practice politics and religion Book jacket Life M. Kronegger, Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2012-12-06 In her Introduction Tymieniecka states the core theme of the present book sharply Is culture an excess of nature's prodigious expansiveness an excess which might turn out to be dangerous for nature itself if it goes too far or is culture a natural congenial prolongation of nature life If the latter then culture is assimilated into nature and thus would lose its claim to autonomy its criteria would be superseded by those of nature alone Of course nature and culture may both still be seen as being absorbed by the inner powers of specifically human inwardness on which view human being caught in its own transcendence becomes separated radically in kind from the rest of existence and may not touch even the shadow of reality except through its own prism Excess therefore or prolongation And on what terms The relationship between culture and nature in its technical phase demands a new elucidation Here this is pursued by excavating the root significance of the multiple rationalities of life In contrast to Husserl who differentiated living types according to their degree of participation in the world the phenomenology of life disentangles living types from within the onto-poietic web of life itself The human creative act reveals itself as the Great Divide of the Logos of Life a divide that does not separate but harmonizes thus dispelling both naturalistic and spiritualistic reductionism , Fronaison et autres poèmes : Jardin d'enfance, Roseaie, Cristaux, Croissance, Tryptique Michel Lepoivre, 1988-01-01 T23:00:00+01:00 Cet ouvrage est une réédition numérique d'un livre paru au XXe siècle désormais indisponible dans son format d'origine danse de l'architecture et de la musique L'ensemble est précédé par un texte de Michel Henry consacré à l'œuvre picturale de Pierre Magr What is the status of art and aesthetic affectivity in Michel Henry Is the place occupied by art within the economy of his material phenomenology the most appropriate site for the immanent exploration of appearing and the auscultation of the transcendental affectivity of life This book locates some remarkable avenues through which the need to prepare the ground for a material aesthetic becomes urgent enough to be given attention In order to clear this path and take the first steps in the direction it leads the studies gathered here each in its own way are engaged in the study of the status of art in Michel Henry from the perspective of painting of course but also the fields of language literature dance architecture and music The collection is preceded by an essay by Michel Henry devoted to the painting of Pierre Magr Contemporary French and francophone art Michael Bishop, Christopher Elson, 2005 Pr sente vingt trois essais consac s l'art fran ais et francophone depuis 1980 en proposant une analyse critique d'une cinquantaine d'artistes aussi divers que des crivains photographes peintres Encyclopedie Methodique, 1816 Modern Islam in the Maghrib Pessah Shinar, 2004
