The New Biographical Dictionary of Film David Thomson, 2010-10-26 For almost thirty years David Thomson's Biographical Dictionary of Film has been not merely the finest reference book ever written about movies Graham Fuller Interview not merely the desert island book of art critic David Sylvester not merely a great crazy masterpiece Geoff Dyer The Guardian but also fiendishly seductive Greil Marcus Rolling Stone This new edition updates the older entries and adds 30 new ones Darren Aronofsky Emmanuelle Béart Jerry Bruckheimer Larry Clark Jennifer Connelly Chris Cooper Sofia Coppola Alfonso Cuarón Richard Curtis Sir Richard Eyre Sir Michael Gambon Christopher Guest Alejandro González Inárritu Spike Jonze Wong Kar Wai Laura Linney Tobey Maguire Michael Moore Samantha Morton Mike Myers Christopher Nolan Dennis Price Adam Sandler Kevin Smith Kiefer Sutherland Charlize Theron Larry Wachowski and Andy Wachowski Lew Wasserman Naomi Watts and Ray Winstone In all the book includes more than 1300 entries some of them just a pungent paragraph some of them several thousand words long In addition to the new musts Thomson has added key figures from film history lively anatomies of Graham Greene Eddie Cantor Pauline Kael Abbott and Costello Noël Coward Hoagy Carmichael Dorothy Gish Rin Tin Tin and more Here is a great rare book one that encompasses the chaos of art entertainment money vulgarity and nonsense that we call the movies Personal opinionated funny daring provocative and passionate it is the one book that every filmmaker and film buff must own Time Out named it one of the ten best books of the 1990s Gavin Lambert recognized it as a work of imagination in its own right Now better than ever a masterwork by the man playwright David Hare called the most stimulating and thoughtful film critic now writing

New York Magazine, 1979-04-23 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Seen That, Now What? Andrea Shaw, 1996-04-09 You've never used a video guide like this before You loved Chariots of Fire and you want to see something like it Where do you start Look up Chariots of Fire in the index and find it in Drama There you'll see it listed under White Flannel Films

Welcome to the glory days of the British empire when the ruling class rode horses on large country estates servants were in plentiful supply and only an adulterous lover questioned the status quo As in other costume dramas the period details are celebrations of all that was brilliant and luxurious with the camera sweeping over British Indian or African countrysides and exquisite turn of the century interiors But all this lush upholstery doesn't cover up the intelligent thoughtful stories usually based on Lawrence Forster and Waugh novels played by stellar British actors In White Flannel Films there are concise witty reviews of select movies like A Room with a View A Passage to India Heat and Dust The Shooting Party Out of Africa White Mischief and more There is also a unique ratings system that helps you distinguish the bombs from the sleepers But the key is that all these films offer the same kind of viewing experience if you like one chances are good you'll like the others too

Seen That Now What is your own personal video genius who knows everything about movies and exactly what you like to watch

A Truffaut Notebook Sam Solecki, 2015-11-01 François Truffaut 1932-1984 ranks among the greatest film directors and has had a worldwide impact on filmmaking as a screenwriter producer film critic and founding member of the French New Wave His most celebrated films include The 400 Blows Shoot the Piano Player Jules and Jim Day for Night and The Last Metro A Truffaut Notebook is a lively and eclectic introduction to the life and work of this major cinematic figure In entries as brief as a page as well as in full length essays it examines topics such as Truffaut's mentors the autobiographical nature of his films his place in the film tradition his film criticism his reputation his relationships with other directors and the formal and thematic coherence of his body of work Sam Solecki also argues for Truffaut's continuing appeal and relevance by examining his influence on filmmakers like Woody Allen Noah Baumbach Alexander Payne Patrice Leconte and Jean Pierre Jeunet and on writers such as Julian Barnes Ann Beattie and Salman Rushdie Because the book returns regularly to the author's shifting responses to Truffaut's work over the last fifty years it also offers an autobiographical meditation on his own lifelong fascination with film Consisting of over eighty short entries and essays as well as provocative lists dreams and quizzes A Truffaut Notebook is an original and exciting text and a model of passionate engagement with cinema

The A to Z of French Cinema Dayna Oscherwitz, MaryEllen Higgins, 2009-09-02 It can be argued that cinema was created in France by Louis Lumière in 1895 with the invention of the cinematographe the first true motion picture camera and projector While there were other cameras and devices invented earlier that were capable of projecting intermittent motion of images the cinematographe was the first device capable of recording and externally projecting images in such a way as to convey motion Early films such as Lumière's La Sortie de l'usine a minute long film of workers leaving the Lumière factory captured the imagination of the nation and quickly inspired the likes of Georges Méliès Alice Guy and Charles Pathé Through the years French cinema has been responsible for producing some of the world's best directors Jean Renoir Jean Luc Godard François Truffaut and Louis Malle and actors Charles Boyer Catherine Deneuve Gérard Depardieu and Audrey Tautou The A to Z of French Cinema covers the history of French film from the silent era to the present in a concise and up to date volume detailing the development of French cinema and major theoretical and cultural issues related to it This is done through a chronology an introduction photographs a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on many of the major actors directors films movements producers and studios associated with French cinema Going beyond mere biographical information entries also discuss the impact and significance of each individual film movement or studio included This detailed scholarly analysis of the development of film in France is useful to both the novice and the expert alike

ois Truffaut An unprecedented critical tribute to the director who in France wound up becoming the most controversial figure of the New Wave he helped found Raymond Bellour Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique This exciting collection breaks through the widely held critical view that Truffaut abandoned the iconoclasm of his early work for an academicism he had consistently railed against in his own film criticism Indeed if fever and fire were Truffaut's most consistent motifs the essays in this collection live up to his lifelong burning passion for the cinema Written by world famous scholars the essays exhaustively explore the themes and styles of the films as well as Truffaut's relationships to Andr Bazin Alfred Hitchcock and the directors of the New Wave his ground breaking and controversial film criticism and his position in the complex politics of French cultural life from the Popular Front to 1968 and after Angelo Restivo Georgia State University Although the New Wave one of the most influential aesthetic revolutions in the history of cinema might not have existed without him Fran ois Truffaut has largely been ignored by film scholars since his death almost thirty years ago As an innovative theoretician an influential critic and a celebrated filmmaker Truffaut formulated disseminated and illustrated the ideals of the New Wave with exceptional energy and distinction Yet no book in recent years has focused on Truffaut's value and his overall contribution to cinema deserves to be redefined not only to reinstate him in his proper place but to let us rethink how cinema developed during his lifetime In this new Companion thirty four original essays by leading film scholars offer new readings of individual films and original perspectives on the filmmaker's background influences and consequence Hugely influential around the globe Truffaut is assessed by international contributors who delve into the unique quality of his narratives and establish the depth of his distinctively styled work An extended interview with French filmmaker Arnaud Desplechin tracks Truffaut's controversial stature within French cinema and vividly identifies how he thinks and works as a director adding an irreplaceable perspective to this essential volume

Truffaut Antoine De Baecque, Serge Toubiana, 2022-02-23 One of the most celebrated filmmakers of all time Francois Truffaut was an intensely private individual who cultivated the public image of a man completely consumed by his craft But his personal story from which he drew extensively to create the characters and plots of his films is itself an extraordinary human drama Now with captivating immediacy Antoine de Baecque and Serge Toubiana give us the definitive story of this beloved artist They begin with the unwanted mischievous child who learned to love movies and books as an escape from sadness and confusion as a boy Francois came to identify with screen characters and to worship actresses Following his early adult years as a journalist during which he gained fame as France's most iconoclastic film critic the obsessive prodigy began to make films of his own and before he was thirty notched the two masterpieces The 400 Blows and Jules and Jim As Truffaut's dazzling body of work evolves in the shadow of the politics of his day including the student uprisings of 1968 we watch him learning the lessons of his masters Fellini and Hitchcock And we witness the progress of his often tempestuous personal relationships including his violent falling out with Jean Luc Godard who owed Truffaut the idea for Breathless and his rapturous love affairs with the many glamorous actresses he directed among them Jacqueline Bisset and Jeanne Moreau With Fanny Ardant Truffaut had a child only thirteen months before dying of a brain tumor at the age of fifty two Here is a life of astonishing emotional range from the anguish of severe depression to the exaltation of Oscar victory Based on unprecedented access to Truffaut s papers including notes toward an unwritten autobiography de Baecque and Toubiana s richly detailed work is an incomparably authoritative revelation of a singular genius French Cinema Rémi Fournier Lanzoni,2015-10-22 To a large extent the story of French filmmaking is the story of moviemaking From the earliest flickering images of the late nineteenth century through the silent era Surrealist influences the Nazi Occupation the glories of the New Wave the rebirth of the industry in the 1990s with the exception culturelle and the present R mi Lanzoni examines a considerable number of the world s most beloved films Building upon his 2004 best selling edition the second edition of French Cinema maintains the chronological analysis factual reliability ease of use and accessible prose while at once concentrating more on the current generation of female directors mainstream productions such as The Artist and The Intouchables and the emergence of minority filmmakers Beur cinema The Encyclopedia of Film Composers Thomas S.
