Le Palais Royal:

Le Palais Royal. Vol. One. Boston, May 5, 1875. No. Six. ... Le Palais Royal (Boston, Mass.),1875 Le Palais-Royal. ...
,1792 In Search of Elegance Michel Lincourt,1999 What is architecture How is it made How is it judged These fundamental questions have intrigued architects for centuries While the questions are philosophical the answers have important ramifications for architectural practice In Search of Elegance provides answers to these complex questions and in so doing develops a new theory for the practice of architecture and urban design The City of Ugarit at Tell Ras Shamra Marguerite Yon,2006 However by that time the site had already seen more than 6 000 years of occupation and the data from Ras Shamra Ugarit thus have become important as a reference point for the early history of the Near East along the Levantine coast and the eastern Mediterranean Memory & Oblivion A.W. Reinink,Jeroen Stumpel,2012-12-06 Memory is a subject that recently has attracted many scholars and readers not only in the general historical sciences but also in the special field of art history However in this book in which more than 130 papers given at the XXIXth International Congress of the History of Art Amsterdam 1996 have been compiled Memory is also juxtaposed to its counterpart Oblivion thus generating extra excitement in the exchange of ideas The papers are presented in eleven sections each of which is devoted to a different aspect of memory and oblivion ranging from purely material aspects of preservation to social phenomena with regard to art collecting from the memory of the art historian to workshop practices from art in antiquity to the newest media from Buddhist iconography to the Berlin Wall The book addresses readers in the field of history history of art and psychology Material Histories of Time Gianenrico Bernasconi,Susanne Thürigen,2020-12-16 The historiography of timekeeping is traditionally characterized by a dichotomy between research that investigates the evolution of technical devices on the one hand and research that is concerned with the examination of the cultures and uses of time on the other hand Material Histories of Time opens a dialogue between these two approaches by taking monumental clocks table clocks portable watches carriage clocks and other forms of timekeeping as the starting point of a joint reflection of specialists of the history of horology together with scholars studying the social and cultural history of time The contributions range from the apparition of the first timekeeping mechanical systems in the Middle Ages to the first evidence of industrialization in the 18th and 19th centuries Host Bibliographic Record for Boundwith Item Barcode 30112002644547 and Others ,1856 Academy Architecture and Architectural Review Alexander Koch,Hugh W. Martin-Kaye,1906 L'herméneutique analogique du Judaïsme antique d'après les témoins textuels d'Isaïe Jean Koenig,2015-02-04 Society and Economy in the Eastern Mediterranean, C. 1500-1000 B.C. Michael Heltzer,Edward Lipiński,1988 The actual progress in the study of social and economic structures of Late Bronze Age societies requires a general overview of the historical process in the area of the Eastern Mediterranean as a whole This was the purpose of the symposium the proceedings of which are collected in the form of articles in the present volume They are studies dealing with the Mycenaean world with the Hittite Empire Nuzi

Emar Alalakh Ugarit the Pharaonic lands in the Izreel Valley Particular attention is paid to the trade between the Aegean and the Levant as well as to the Sea Peoples The proceedings give a comprehensive view of the social and economic historical process in the Eastern Mediterranean between 1500 and 1000 B C and constitute an important contribution to the study of this crucial period in the history of the Ancient Middle East Medieval and Renaissance Famagusta Michael J. K.

Walsh, Peter W. Edbury, Nicholas S.H. Coureas, 2016-12-05 There was a time seven centuries ago when Famagusta's wealth and renown could be compared to that of Venice or Constantinople The Cathedral of St Nicholas in the main square of Famagusta serving as the coronation place for the Crusader Kings of Jerusalem after the fall of Acre in 1291 symbolised both the sophistication and permanence of the French society that built it From the port radiated impressive commercial activity with the major Mediterranean trade centres generating legendary wealth cosmopolitanism and hedonism unsurpassed in the Levant These halcyon days were not to last however and a 15th century observer noted that following the Genoese occupation of the city a malignant devil has become jealous of Famagusta When Venice inherited the city it reconstructed the defences and had some success in revitalising the city's economy But the end for Venetian Famagusta came in dramatic fashion in 1571 following a year long siege by the Ottomans Three centuries of neglect followed which combined with earthquakes plague and flooding left the city in ruins The essays collected in this book represent a major contribution to the study of Medieval and Renaissance Famagusta and its surviving art and architecture and also propose a series of strategies for preserving the city's heritage in the future They will be of particular interest to students and scholars of Gothic Byzantine and Renaissance art and architecture and to those of the Crusades and the Latin East as well as the Military Orders After an introductory chapter surveying the history of Famagusta and its position in the cultural mosaic that is the Eastern Mediterranean the opening section provides a series of insights into the history and historiography of the city There follow chapters on the churches and their decoration as well as the military architecture while the final section looks at the history of conservation efforts and assesses the work that now needs to be done Paris Herself Again in 1878-9 George

Augustus Sala, 1882 Encyclopédie méthodique, ou, par ordre de matières, 1804 Officials and Administration in the Hittite World Tayfun Bilgin, 2018-12-03 There are few studies that deal with an overall treatment of the Hittite administrative system and various other works on its offices and officials have tended to be limited in scope focusing only on certain groups or certain time periods This book provides a comprehensive investigation of the administrative organization of the Hittite state throughout its history ca 1650-1180 BCE with particular emphasis on the state offices and their officials Bringing together previous works and updating with data recovered in recent years the study presents a detailed survey of the high offices of the state a prosopographical study of about 140 high officials and a theoretical analysis of the Hittite administration in respect to factors such as hierarchy kinship and diachronical changes Cuban Stories about People, Terraces, Food, Revolution, and Good-Bye's Maria Martinez, 2011 Cuba Family Customs Childhood Beaches Homicide in the Biblical World Pamela Barmash, 2005 Homicide in the Biblical World analyses the treatment of homicide in the Hebrew Bible and demonstrates that it is directly linked to the unique social structure and religion of ancient Israel Close parallels between biblical law and ancient Near Eastern law are evident in the laws of the ox that gored and the pregnant woman who is assaulted but when the total picture of the process by which homicide was adjudicated comes into view what is most noticeable is how little of it is similar to ancient Near Eastern law This book reconstructs biblical law from both legal texts and narrative texts and analyses both the law collections and documents from actual legal cases from the ancient Near East

The Architecture of the Renaissance in France William Henry Ward, 1926 Revolutionary Paris and the Market for Netherlandish Art Darius A. Spieth, 2017-11-06 Seventeenth century Dutch and Flemish paintings were aesthetic intellectual and economic touchstones in the Parisian art world of the Revolutionary era but their importance within this framework while frequently acknowledged never attracted much subsequent attention Darius A Spieth's inquiry into Revolutionary Paris and the Market for Netherlandish Art reveals the dominance of Golden Age pictures in the artistic discourse and sales transactions before during and after the French Revolution A broadly based statistical investigation undertaken as part of this study shows that the upheaval reduced prices for Netherlandish paintings by about 55% compared to the Old Regime and that it took until after the July Revolution of 1830 for art prices to return where they stood before 1789 The Politics Of Resentment , The establishment of the Third Republic in France in the 1870s swept the nobility from power and established republican government supported by the professional classes the peasantry and small businessmen Paris shopkeepers at first allied themselves with this new republican order but then broke away from it claiming it favored the rise of large department stores that threatened their livelihood This work offers a broader interpretation of their protests within the context of general social and cultural developments providing a colorful and convincing description and analysis of Parisian politics in this critical era of French history Historians previous explanations of shopkeeper discontent during the period have centered on the rise of the department store In contrast Nord shifts the locus of interpretation to the impact of Baron Haussmann's rebuilding of Paris and the economic crisis of the 1880s on the Paris retail market In addition the author challenges the assumption that retailers protest translates directly into a politics of reaction His interpretation is an example of social history at its best and will appeal to those interested in France social movements and nineteenth century Europe Available for the first time in paperback this edition includes a new introduction by the author that discusses the book's themes politics of consumption nationalism anti-Semitism in terms of current historiographical concerns He also examines whether our own era is not one of political realignment with a potential for right wing extremism Old and New Paris: Its History, Its People, and Its Places, v. 1 Henry Edwards, 2021-03-16
