Sectarianization Nader Hashemi,Danny Postel,2017-03-15 As the Middle East descends ever deeper into violence and chaos sectarianism has become a catch all explanation for the region's troubles The turmoil is attributed to ancient sectarian differences putatively primordial forces that make violent conflict intractable In media and policy discussions sectarianism has come to possess trans historical causal power This book trenchantly challenges the lazy use of sectarianism as a magic bullet explanation for the region's ills focusing on how various conflicts in the Middle East have morphed from non-sectarian or cross-sectarian and nonviolent movements into sectarian wars Through multiple case studies including Syria Iraq Lebanon Saudi Arabia Bahrain Yemen and Kuwait this book maps the dynamics of sectarianisation exploring not only how but also why it has taken hold The contributors examine the constellation of forces from those within societies to external factors such as the Saudi-Iran rivalry that drive the sectarianisation process and explore how the region's politics can be de-sectarianised Featuring leading scholars and including historians anthropologists political scientists and international relations theorists this book will redefine the terms of debate on one of the most critical issues in international affairs today

Diversity

Education in the MENA Region Hassan Abouabdellah,Barry Tomalin,2023-12-13 This book outlines a landscape of diversity education in the MENA region and its repercussions on learners' abilities, outcomes and prospects It addresses the concerns of language educators, curriculum designers, language education researchers, students and trainers Theoretically, the issues of diversity, inclusion and equity share common principles and insights yet they are not conceived of in this book as interchangeable These subtle distinctions as delineated in this book show that they are complementary and include the principles of quality education which leverage human rights, sustainability and promotion of the human capital What makes this book distinctive is that it reconsiders the existing pedagogical trends in terms of the current social upheavals and with reference to the principles of development and progress needed in twenty-first century education

Théâtre de la

Guimbarde Anonyme,1993 Art, the Sublime, and Movement Amanda du Preez,2022-01-31 This book is a critical interdisciplinary approach to the study of contemporary visual culture and image studies exploring ideas about space and place and ultimately contributing to the debates about being human in the digital age The upward and downward pull seem in a constant contest for humanity's attention Both forces are powerful in the effects and affects they invoke When tracing this iconological history Amanda du Preez starts in the early nineteenth century moving into the twentieth century and then spanning the whole century up to contemporary twenty first century screen culture and space travels Du Preez parses the intersecting pathways between Heaven and Earth up and down flying and falling through the concept of being spaced out The idea of being spaced out is applied as a metaphor to trace the visual history of sublime encounters that displace Earth gravity locality belonging home real life and embodiment The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual culture media and cultural studies phenomenology digital culture mobility studies and urban studies
