Are the Lips a Grave? Lynne Huffer, 2013-10-08
 Lynne Huffer's ambitious inquiry redresses the rift between feminist and queer theory traversing the space of a new post moral sexual ethics that includes pleasure desire connection and betrayal She begins by balancing queer theorists politics of sexual freedoms with a moralizing feminist politics that views sexuality as harm Drawing on the best insights from both traditions she builds an ethics centered on eros following Michel Foucault's ethics as a practice of freedom and Luce Irigaray's lyrical articulation of an ethics of sexual difference Through this theoretical lens Huffer examines everyday experiences of ethical connection and failure connected to sex including queer sexual practices sodomy laws interracial love pornography and work life balance Her approach complicates sexual identities while challenging the epistemological foundations of subjectivity She rethinks ethics beyond good and evil without underestimating as some queer theorists have done the persistence of what Foucault calls the catastrophe of morality

Elaborating a thinking feeling ethics of the other Huffer encourages contemporary intellectuals to reshape sexual morality from within defining an ethical space that is both poetically suggestive and politically relevant both conceptually daring and grounded in common sexual experience Gardens and the Passion for the Infinite International Society for Phenomenology, Fine Arts, and Aesthetics. Goulson, 1981-12-15 This is a comprehensive primary reference to a rich and often neglected storehouse of information on Canada's educational background. More than 300 inquiries are included among them general special interest judicial legislative parliamentary and other governmental committees. The information provided for each includes the type of commission or committee its size chairman purpose dates of appointment and reporting and primary source references as well as a selection of its major conclusions and or recommendations. Official governmental records and documents including the Reports themselves Legislative Journals House Debates and Hansard Sessional Papers Statutes and Department of Education records were used as the resource base.
