Le Baron Perché Italo Calvino, 1957

The Canadian Encyclopedia James H. Marsh, 1999 This edition of The Canadian Encyclopedia is the largest most comprehensive book ever published in Canada for the general reader It is COMPLETE every aspect of Canada from its rock formations to its rock bands is represented here It is UNABRIDGED all of the information in the four red volumes of the famous 1988 edition is contained here in this single volume It has been EXPANDED since 1988 teams of researchers have been diligently fleshing out old entries and recording new ones as a result the text from 1988 has grown by 50% to over 4 000 000 words It has been UPDATED the researchers and contributors worked hard to make the information as current as possible Other words apply to this extraordinary work of scholarship AUTHORITATIVE RELIABLE and READABLE Every entry is compiled by an expert Equally important every entry is written for a Canadian reader from the Canadian point of view The finished work many years in the making and the equivalent of forty average sized books is an extraordinary storehouse of information about our country This book deserves pride of place on the bookshelf in every Canadian Home It is no accident that the cover of this book is based on the Canadian flag For the proud truth is that this volume represents a great national achievement From its formal inception in 1979 this encyclopedia has always represented a vote of faith in Canada in Canada as a separate place whose natural worlds and whose peoples and their achievements deserve to be recorded and celebrated At the start of a new century and a new millennium in an increasingly borderless corporate world that seems ever more hostile to national distinctions and aspirations this Canadian

Encyclopedia is offered in a spirit of defiance and of faith in our future The statistics behind this volume are staggering The opening sixty pages list the 250 Consultants the roughly 4 000 Contributors all experts in the field they describe and the scores of researchers editors typesetters proofreaders and others who contributed their skills to this massive project The 2 640 pages incorporate over 10 000 articles and over 4 000 000 words making it the largest some might say the greatest Canadian book ever published There are of course many special features These include a map of Canada a special page comparing the key statistics of the 23 major Canadian cities maps of our cities a variety of tables and photographs and finely detailed illustrations of our wildlife not to mention the colourful informative endpapers But above all the book is encyclopedic which the Canadian Oxford Dictionary describes as embracing all branches of learning This means that with rare exceptions there is satisfaction for the reader who seeks information on any Canadian subject From the first entry A mari usque ad mare from sea to sea which is Canada s motto and a good description of this volume s range to the Zouaves who mustered in Quebec to fight for the beleaguered Papacy there is the required summary of information clearly and accurately presented For the browser the constant variety of entries and the lure of regular cross references will provide hours of fascination The word encyclopedia derives from Greek expressions alluding to a grand circle of knowledge Our knowledge has expanded immeasurably since the time that one mind could encompass all that was known Yet now Canada s finest scientists academics and specialists have distilled their knowledge of our country between the covers of one volume The result is a book for every Canadian who values learning and values Canada

A Destiny in the Making Boudewijn Mohr, 2018-04-23

When the Wall Street banker takes the side of the indebted developing countries in his feature articles reviewing the impact of the global sovereign debt crisis of the 1980s in the Dutch daily NRC Handelsblad it is time to leave banking He is attracted to Unicef s vision and goal of Health for All and its tireless pursuit of structural economic adjustment programmes with a human face In Africa Boudewijn Mohr jumps into Unicef s hands on work in the field He spearheads the clearing of landmines in Unicef project areas in Mozambique and engages with children throughout his travels on the continent Thus he can be found playing football with former child soldiers in Monrovia touring Nouakchott with street children who show him the tricks of pick pocketing or gate crashing a diamond mine that exploits child labour near Kenema in the rebel infested east of Sierra Leone His stories are both an adventure and the search of fulfilment but at the same time a call to all those who want to do more and are uncertain of what the world holds Part of the proceeds of this book are going to Hands Up Foundation a British charity working with Syrian doctors and nurses in Syria under harsh circumstances

A King Seen from the Sky Bruno Gibert, 2015-10-19

This delightful book by award winning children s book author and illustrator Bruno Gibert is inspired by the true story of the first flight of living creatures in a handmade aircraft On September 19 1783 the Montgolfier brothers demonstrated their new invention the hot air balloon or montgolfi re at the Palace of Versailles before a large crowd including Louis XVI and Marie Antoinette Considered too dangerous for human passengers the experimental vessel carried a sheep a duck and a hen in its basket The balloon flew for about eight minutes covered a distance of roughly two miles and reached an altitude of more than 1 500 feet before landing safely The animals balloon ride caused a sensation and the first human flight followed a few months later By the end of 1783 Louis XVI had ennobled the Montgolfier family in recognition of the brothers important achievements which perhaps prompted a royal celebration for the animals like the one depicted in the book In Gibert s fantasy the animals anger the king at the fete by describing him as no bigger than the tiniest snail when viewed from high above the ground and Louis imprisons them in the Bastille While the direct role of talking animals in the storming of the Bastille in 1789 can t quite be supported by historical evidence this book does vividly evoke the stirring developments in aeronautics that took place right around the time of the French Revolution Ages five to seven

Translation and Race Corine Tachtiris, 2024-02-06 Translation and Race brings together translation studies with critical race studies for a long overdue reckoning with race and racism in translation theory and practice This book explores the unbearable whiteness of translation in the West that excludes scholars and translators of color from the field and also upholds racial inequities more broadly Outlining relevant concepts from critical race studies Translation and Race demonstrates how norms of translation theory and practice in the West actually derive from ideas rooted in white supremacy and other forms of racism Chapters explore translation's role in historical processes of racialization racial capitalism and intellectual property identity politics and Black translation praxis the globalization of critical race studies and ethical strategies for translating racist discourse Beyond attempts to diversify the field of translation studies and the literary translation profession this book ultimately calls for a radical transformation of translation theory and practice This book is crucial reading for advanced students and scholars in translation studies critical race and ethnic studies and related areas as well as for practicing translators The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

African Art Reframed Bennetta Jules-Rosette, J.R. Osborn, 2020-06-22 Once seen as a collection of artifacts and ritual objects African art now commands respect from museums and collectors Bennetta Jules-Rosette and J.R. Osborn explore the reframing of African art through case studies of museums and galleries in the United States Europe and Africa The authors take a three-pronged approach Part One ranges from curiosity cabinets to virtual websites to offer a history of ethnographic and art museums and look at their organization and methods of reaching out to the public In the second part the authors examine museums as ecosystems and communities within communities and they use semiotic methods to analyze images signs and symbols drawn from the experiences of curators and artists The third part introduces innovative strategies for displaying disseminating and reclaiming African art The authors also propose how to reinterpret the art inside and outside the museum and show ways of remixing the results Drawing on extensive conversations with curators collectors and artists African Art Reframed is an essential guide to building new exchanges and connections in the dynamic worlds of African and global art

Republic of Islamophobia James Wolfreys, 2018-05-01 Why does Islamophobia dominate public debate in France Islamophobia in France is rising with Muslims subjected to unprecedented scrutiny of what they wear eat and say Championed by Marine Le Pen and drawing on the French colonial legacy France's new secularism gives racism a respectable veneer Jim Wolfreys exposes the dynamic driving this intolerance a society polarized by inequality and the authoritarian neoliberalism of the French political mainstream This officially sanctioned Islamophobia risks going unchallenged It has divided the traditional anti racist movement and undermined the left's opposition to bigotry Wolfreys deftly unravels the problems facing those trying to confront today's rise in racism Republic of Islamophobia illuminates both the uniqueness of France's anti Muslim backlash and its broader implications for the West

The Uncollected Baudrillard Jean Baudrillard, 2001-05-25 Jean Baudrillard is generally recognized as one of the most important and provocative contemporary social theorists But in the English speaking world his reputation is largely based on books published after the 1960s as he moved towards becoming the premier commentator on postmodernism This wide ranging and expertly edited book examines the work of the young Baudrillard it deepens our understanding of his seminal work on consumer culture by presenting his early essays on McLuhan Lefebvre and Marcuse The influence of German traditions of thought are clearly revealed and Baudrillard's neglected and out of print writing on aesthetics is rediscovered and reprinted Extracts from his political diaries and commentaries on Civil Disorder, Domestic Terrorism and Education Policy Jonathan S. James, Jan Germen Janmaat, 2019-10-15 This book explores the links between education policy and occurrences of civil disorder and domestic terrorism in England and France Since 2001 both England and France have experienced outbreaks of rioting in which young people of immigrant origin have been implicated both have also been the targets of domestic terror attacks perpetrated by their own citizens Both countries have had similar experiences of immigration since the end of the Second World War but they are considered to have taken divergent approaches to immigrant integration and education While Britain has tended towards a multicultural race relations approach France veers towards a Republican assimilationist approach Through the analysis of policy discourse and documents the authors seek to establish whether these distinct approaches to immigrant integration and education policy have been maintained or whether they are converging This book will appeal to students and scholars of education policy as well as immigration and integration in both France and England

To Exist is to Resist Akwugo Emejulu, Francesca Sobande, 2019-05-20 This book brings together activists artists and scholars of colour to show how Black feminism and Afrofeminism are being practiced in Europe

today exploring their differing social positions in various countries and how they organise and mobilise to imagine a Black feminist Europe Deeply aware that they are constructed as Others living in a racialised and hierarchical continent the contributors explore gender class sexuality and legal status to show that they are both invisible presumed to be absent from and irrelevant to European societies and hyper visible assumed to be passive and sexualised angry and irrational Through imagining a future outside the neocolonial frames and practices of contemporary Europe this book explores a variety of critical spaces including motherhood and the home friendships and intimate relationships activism and community and literature dance and film

Museums in Postcolonial Europe Dominic Thomas, 2013-09-13 The history of European nation building and identity formation is inextricably connected with museums and the role they play in displaying the acquired spoils and glorious symbols of geopolitical power in order to mobilize public support for expansionist ventures This book examines the contemporary debate surrounding the museum in postcolonial Europe Although there is no consensus on the European colonial experience the process of decolonization in Europe has involved an examination of the museum's place and ethnic minorities and immigrants have insisted upon improved representation in the genealogies of European nation states Museological practices have been subjected to greater scrutiny in light of these political and social transformations In addition to the refurbishment and restructuring of colonial era museums new spaces have also been inaugurated to highlight the contemporary importance of museums in postcolonial Europe as well as the significance of incorporating the perspective of postcolonial European populations into these spaces This book includes contributions from leading experts in their fields and represents a comparative trans historical and transcolonial examination which contextualises and reinterprets to the legacies and experiences of European museums This book was published as a special issue of Africa and Black Diaspora An International Journal
