How The World Was Won: The Americanization of Everywhere Peter Conrad, 2014-12-09 From politics and war to jeans and sneakers a look at America's influence on the world from an international perspective On the day after 9 11 foreign newspapers ran headlines announcing We Are All Americans Now Though the sentiment was not new it was also not quite the same as when Henry Luce announced in 1941 the inauguration of what he called the American Century during which the US was to raise all men from the level of the beasts to what the Psalmist calls a little lower than angels When America suddenly emerged as a global power in the postwar period the world with pockets of resistance from France Russia and Japan in particular was happy to be remade in the US image America dazzled and sometimes intimidated older staler less innovative cultures The affluence it placed on display was something to which most other countries aspired and it was this fantasy that helped win the Cold War Fast forward to today and the Chinese state news agency Xinhua days before a possible financial default by the US government calling for a de Americanized world A context for Peter Conrad's grand tale is inevitably politics war and commerce but for the most part he draws on his brilliant repertoire of cultural skills to assess surprise invigorate and delight us with his kaleidoscopic presentation of the movies and music jeans and sneakers food and refrigerators novels and paintings that have shaped so much of the world in our lifetimes

The New Biographical Dictionary of Film David Thomson, 2010 Thomson independent scholar writing of The Biographical Dictionary of Film aka A Biographical Dictionary of the Cinema 1975 edition described it as a personal opinionated and obsessive biographical dictionary of the cinema Thirty five years and several editions later that description still holds true of this expanded work The new dictionary summarizes salient facts about its subjects lives and discusses their film credits in terms of the quality of the filmmakers work In ambition it has competitors including Leslie Halliwell's various editions of Halliwell's Filmgoers Companion 12th ed 1997 and Halliwell's Who's Who in the Movies edited by John Walker 4th ed rev and updated 2006 which cover films and technical terms categories not included in Thomson's but whose entries are neutral and exceedingly brief. Additionally, Francophile Richard Roud's edited Cinema: A Critical Dictionary: The Major Filmmakers 2 v 1980 is as passionate a work as Thomson's but narrower in scope with entries written by various experts rather than only by Roud. Finally, the multivolume magnum opus The International Dictionary of Films and Filmmakers 4th ed 2000 ed by T. Pendergast and S. Pendergast 2nd ed ed by N. Thomas v 1 CH May 91 1st ed ed by C. Lyon v 1 2 CH Jan 85 v 3 CH Apr 87 v 4 5 CH Jun 88 covers everything: films, directors, actors, writers, and production artists with generous, measured, scholarly entries and lavish illustrations. However, it looms large and heavy, unlike the handy one-volume work by Thomson. Arguably, Thomson's work for its scope is the most fun, the most convenient, and the most engaging title. All libraries supporting people interested in film should buy it. It will get lots of use and provide very good value for the money. Summing Up: Highly recommended. Lower level undergraduates and above, general readers. Movie Lists Paul Simpson, 2011-05-26. Action, African, greats, alcohol, Robert Aldrich, aliens, Woody Allen, Pedro Almodovar, Robert Altman, animated, anime, apocalypses, Argentina, art, Asia, minor, avant garde. And that's just A for you. A taste of this fabulously quirky and enjoyable book which is both a celebration of movies and movie trivia and a handy entertaining guide to films that we know you will enjoy. It is fantastically functional. The lists are well conceived and easy to understand, mostly assembled by genre, actor, director, theme, or country of origin, and the reviews are witty and informative. Oddly enough, most movie guides are not full of recommendations. But Movie Lists is in spades, leaving readers in no doubt that the films reviewed are the business. Oh, and you don't have to watch them all before you die. There is no premise of death in this book. You just need to get down to the local Blockbusters or flick your remote to Movies on Demand. Only the popcorn is not supplied.

Studying French Cinema Isabelle Vanderschelden, 2013-04-22. Taking a text-led approach with the emphasis on more recent popular films, Studying French Cinema is directed at non-specialists such as students of French Film Studies and the general reader with an interest in post-war French cinema. Each of the chapters focuses on one or more key films from the ground-breaking films of the nouvelle vague: Les 400 coups 1959 to contemporary documentary Etre et avoir 2002, and puts them into their relevant contexts. Depending on the individual film, these include explorations of childhood, adolescence, and coming of age. Les 400 coups, L'Argent de poche, auteur ideology, and individual style: the films of Jean-Luc Godard and Agnès Varda; the representation of recent French history: Lacombe Lucien and Au revoir les enfants; transnational production practices: Le Pacte des loups and popular cinema; comedy and gender issues: e.g. Le Diner de cons. Each film is embedded in its cultural and political context. Together, the historical discussions provide an overview of post-war French history to the present. Useful suggestions are made as to studies of related films, both those discussed within the book and outside.

Rififi Alastair Phillips, 2009-11-30. Du rififi chez les hommes 1955, directed by the exiled American film director Jules Dassin, recounts the nail biting tale of a Parisian gangster heist gone wrong Famed for its extended dialog free robbery sequence it is both a classic French film noir and one of the greatest most influential crime films In this lively companion to the film Alastair Phillips reveals Dassin s role as a director of socially conscious Hollywood film noir and argues that his seminal contribution to the regeneration of the thriller in post war France therefore uniquely complicated relations between French genre cinema and American mass culture Phillips also examines the film s innovative narrative construction and use of sound its performance style and mise en scene and discusses the film s legacy showing how even today the term Rififi remains a byword for both criminal glamor and the enduring virtues of French popular classical film making

Historical Dictionary of Film Noir Andrew Spicer, 2010-03-19 Film noir literally black cinema is the label customarily given to a group of black and white American films mostly crime thrillers made between 1940 and 1959 Today there is considerable dispute about what are the shared features that classify a noir film and therefore which films should be included in this category These problems are partly caused because film noir is a retrospective label that was not used in the 1940s or 1950s by the film industry as a production category and therefore its existence and features cannot be established through reference to trade documents The Historical Dictionary of Film Noir is a comprehensive guide that ranges from 1940 to present day neo noir It consists of a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography a filmography and over 400 cross referenced dictionary entries on every aspect of film noir and neo noir including key films personnel actors cinematographers composers directors producers set designers and writers themes issues influences visual style cycles of films e g amnesiac noirs the representation of the city and gender other forms comics graphic novels television and videogames and noir s presence in world cinema It is an essential reference work for all those interested in this important cultural phenomenon
