Why Love Hurts Eva Illouz, 2012-06-05 Few of us have been spared the agonies of intimate relationships They come in many shapes loving a man or a woman who will not commit to us being heartbroken when we are abandoned by a lover engaging in Sisyphean internet searches coming back lonely from bars parties or blind dates feeling bored in a relationship that is so much less than we had envisaged these are only some of the ways in which the search for love is a difficult and often painful experience Despite the widespread and almost collective character of these experiences our culture insists they are the result of faulty or insufficiently mature psyches For many the Freudian idea that the family designs the pattern of an individual's erotic career has been the main explanation for why and how we fail to find or sustain love Psychoanalysis and popular psychology have succeeded spectacularly in convincing us that individuals bear responsibility for the misery of their romantic and erotic lives The purpose of this book is to change our way of thinking about what is wrong in modern relationships The problem is not dysfunctional childhoods or insufficiently self-aware psyches but rather the institutional forces shaping how we love The argument of this book is that the modern romantic experience is shaped by a fundamental transformation in the ecology and architecture of romantic choice The samples from which men and women choose a partner the modes of evaluating prospective partners the very importance of choice and autonomy and what people imagine to be the spectrum of their choices all these aspects of choice have transformed the very core of the will how we want a partner the sense of worth bestowed by relationships and the organization of desire This book does to love what Marx did to commodities it shows that it is shaped by social relations and institutions and that it circulates in a marketplace of unequal actors

Madly. Truly. Badal Verma,2022-08-20 Souls in Love Madly Truly is a love story that transcends time The book is premised on the imagination that everything is connected and everything that once lived lives on forever in the eternity of time The spinning wheel turns round and round in a circle One fate is tied to the next The thread red like blood cleaves together all our deeds One cannot unravel the knots but they can be severed Someone severed the knot of the protagonists with a sharp blade Yet something remained behind that could not be severed an invisible bond The bond is held together by a love that admits to hierarchical needs and is a subject of souls Love evolves with time and reaches an intermediate stage where souls fall in love and identical souls yearn to reunite much before the bodies meet each other The story of Souls in Love is a small part of the journey of love that is experienced by Rahul and Saral in their present life felt in a future life as Param and Sneha and again experienced in the next life where their identical souls reunite as Abhay and Nusrat in most unlikely circumstances When they do so they feel the bond of love from their past lives The Creator communes with them through dreams imagination intuition hope longing and love to make them aware of such a bond between them But there is no way of knowing that ever Rahul and Saral or Param and Sneha or for that matter Abhay and Nusrat are just the names The choice of couple and or names are immaterial because souls are experiencing love through the bodies In that sense mythology defines every couple as cloud and rain that is Badal and Varsha Mishmi Verma Rao The Nature of Love, Volume 2 Irving Singer,2009-02-20 An examination of ideas and ideals of medieval courtly love and the transition into later Romantic love analyzing the work of Dante Shakespeare and Schopenhauer among many others Review monumental Boston Globe one of the major works of philosophy in our century Nous wise and magisterial Times Literary Supplement and a masterpiece of critical thinking that is a timely eloquent and scrupulous account of what after all still makes the world go round Christian Science Monitor In the second volume Singer studies the ideas and ideals of medieval courtly love and nineteenth century Romantic love as well as the transition between these two perspectives According to the traditions of courtly love in the twelfth century and thereafter not only God but also human beings in themselves are capable of authentic love The pursuit of love between man and woman was seen as a splendid ideal that ennobles both the lover and the beloved It was something more than libidinal sexuality and involved sophisticated and highly refined courtliness that emulated religious love in its ability to create a holy union between the participants Adherents to Romantic love in later centuries affirmed the capacity of love to effect a merging between two people who thus became one Singer analyzes the transition from courtly to Romantic by reference to the writings of many artists beginning with Dante and ending with Richard Wagner as well as Neoplatonist philosophers of the Italian Renaissance Descartes Spinoza Rousseau Hume Kant Hegel and Schopenhauer In relation to romanticism itself he distinguishes between two aspects benign romanticism and Romantic pessimism that took on renewed importance in the twentieth century Love's Confusions C. D. C. Reeve,2009-07-01 Ranging from Plato to writers as diverse as Shakespeare Proust Forster Beckett Huxley and Lawrence Reeve brings the vast resources of Western literature and philosophy to bear on the question of love He invites us to think more broadly about love and to find the confusions that inevitably result to be creative rather than disturbing
