Haynes, 2013-03-18 Legendary philosopher and literary critic Mikhail Bakhtin 1895 1975 developed concepts which are bywords within poststructuralist and new historicist literary criticism and philosophy yet have been under utilised by artists art historians and art critics Deborah

Haynes aims to adapt Bakhtin's concepts particularly those developed in his later works to an analysis of visual culture and art practices addressing the integral relationship of art with life the artist as creator reception and the audience and context intertextuality This provides both a new conceptual vocabulary for those engaged in visual culture ideas such as answerability unfinalizability heteroglossia chronotope and the carnivalesque defined in the glossary and a new practical approach to historical analysis of generic breakdown and narrative re emergence in contemporary art Haynes uses Bakhtinian concepts to interpret a range of art from religious icons to post Impressionist painters and Russian modernists to demonstrate how the application of his thought to visual culture can generate significant new insights Rehabilitating some of Bakhtin's neglected ideas and reframing him as a philosopher of aesthetics Bakhtin Reframed will be essential reading for the huge community of Bakhtin scholars as well as students and practitioners of visual culture Book of This Place

Deborah J. Haynes, 2009-09-01 The title of this engaging work emphasizes that the author lives works and creates art in this place a particular site in the foothills of the Colorado Rocky Mountains The subtitle indicates that place is the arena for investigating engagement with the land and nature art and creativity and spiritual life By exploring the significance of place in our fragmented world and by using her artistic practice as an example the author hopes to offer readers new definitions of the interrelationship of religion and art Haynes is the first to examine the intersection of these three themes which may be variously defined First the land and nature provide the literal site for the book and the language of ecology is woven throughout In the face of contemporary global crises Haynes believes that we have a moral imperative to address how we live and work in the physical environment Second visual art creativity and the creative process are discussed using historical and contemporary examples Haynes is a philosopher of art and an artist whose primary creative work involves carving marble and drawing Using her stone sculptures to frame the book's chapters she takes readers on a meandering journey into the history philosophy and practice of art Third the religious and spiritual life is highlighted with examples from both her practice of yoga and Buddhist meditation as well as from her work with hospice patients The Fabric of the Future M. J.

Duncan, Robert J. Bertholf, Albert Gelpi, 2004 This volume presents the complete correspondence between two of the most important and influential American poets of the postwar period The almost 500 letters range widely over the poetry scene and the issues that made the period so lively and productive But what gives the exchange its special personal and literary resonance is the sense of spiritual affinity and shared conviction about the power of the visionary imagination Duncan and Levertov explore these matters in rich detail until under the stress of dealing with the Vietnam War in poetry they discover deep seated differences in the religious and ethical convictions underlying their politics and poetic stance The issues that drew them together and those that drove them apart create a powerful personal drama with far reaching historical and cultural significance The editors have provided a critical Introduction full notes a chronology and a glossary of names
