

The background is a monochromatic blue-toned illustration. It depicts a serene night scene in a forest. In the foreground, a calm lake reflects the sky and the trees. A woman, dressed in a long, light-colored gown, stands on the right bank of the lake, holding a glowing lantern. Her reflection is clearly visible in the water. The middle ground is filled with a dense forest of tall, dark evergreen trees. The sky above is a deep blue, with a large, bright, glowing orb (likely the moon) partially obscured by wispy clouds. The overall mood is quiet and contemplative.

amount of recent work Filled with despair and soul searching both for the elements that have passed him by and for the desire to find meaning and relevance this collection visits recurring themes of solitude darkness relationships and distrust In the selection Lament Spradlin writes about the darkness night shines a deadly smile at me let the sinners roam and flee it s in this world that i relate to things that i ve yet to create and so the march goes on and on as i attempt to block the sun because brightness never has been me let me lament to let things be let be An avid poet and songwriter for more than twenty years Spradlin penned the bulk of the poems in the hushed cold of winter Like the season they were written in the feelings are sometimes frigid but also thoughtful and provocative In The Night Never Sleeps Spradlin shares the demons he has conquered and the ones he has yet to vanquish Morning, Noon, and Night Arnold Weinstein,2011-02-15 From Homer and Shakespeare to Toni Morrison and Jonathan Safran Foer major works of literature have a great deal to teach us about two of life s most significant stages growing up and growing old Distinguished scholar Arnold Weinstein s provocative and engaging new book Morning Noon and Night explores classic writing s insights into coming of age and surrendering to time and considers the impact of these revelations upon our lives With wisdom humor and moving personal observations Weinstein leads us to look deep inside ourselves and these great books to see how we can use art as both mirror and guide He offers incisive readings of seminal novels about childhood Huck Finn s empathy for the runaway slave Jim illuminates a child s moral education Catherine and Heathcliff s struggle with obsessive passion in Wuthering Heights is hauntingly familiar to many young lovers Dickens s Pip in Great Expectations must grapple with a world that wishes him harm and in Marjane Satrapi s autobiographical Persepolis little Marjane faces a different kind of struggle growing into adolescence as her country moves through the pain of the Iranian Revolution In turn great writers also ponder the lessons learned in life s twilight years both King Lear and Willy Loman suffer as their patriarchal authority collapses and death creeps up Brecht s Mother Courage displays the inspiring indomitability of an aging woman who has borne every possible blow but is still standing still moving And older love can sometimes be funny Rip Van Winkle conveniently sleeps right through his marriage and sometimes tragic as J M Coetzee s David Lurie learns the hard way in Disgrace Tapping into the hearts and minds of memorable characters from Sophocles Oedipus to Artie in Art Spiegelman s Maus Morning Noon and Night makes an eloquent and powerful case for the role of great literature as a knowing window into our lives and times Its intelligence passion and genuine appreciation for the written word remind us just how crucial books are to the business of being human
