International Perspectives on Consumers' Access to Justice Charles E. F. Rickett, Thomas G. W. Telfer, 2003-03-20 Consumer protection law in the age of globalisation poses new challenges for policy makers This book highlights the difficulties of framing regulatory responses to the problem of consumers access to justice in the new international economy The growth of international consumer transactions in the wake of technological change and the globalisation of markets suggests that governments can no longer develop consumer protection law in isolation from the international legal arena Leading scholars consider the broader theme of access to justice from socio legal law and economics perspectives Topics include standard form contracts the legal challenges posed by mass infections such as mad cow disease and CJD ombudsman schemes class actions alternative dispute resolution consumer bankruptcy conflict of laws and cross border transactions This book demonstrates that advancing and achieving access to justice for consumers proves to be a challenging and sometimes elusive task

Foreigners, Refugees or Minorities? Dr Sergio Carrera, Professor Didier Bigo, Professor Elspeth Guild, 2013-03-28 When immigration policy and the treatment of Roma collide in international relations there are surprising consequences which are revelatory of the underlying tensions between internal and external policies in the European Union This book examines the relationship of citizenship ethnicity and international relations and how these three aspects of the State its people and its neighbours relate to one another It studies the wide issue of international relations citizenship and minority discrimination through the lens of the case study of European Roma who seek refugee status in Canada on account of their persecution in Europe The volume assesses the relationships among citizenship state protection and persecution and minority status and how they can intersect with and destabilize foreign affairs The central background to the book is the European treatment of Roma their linkages with visa and asylum policies and their human rights repercussions The various contributions reveal how modern liberal democracies can find themselves in contradictory positions concerning their citizens when these are looking for protection abroad and foreigners in search of international protection as a consequence of visa and pre border surveillance policies and practices

Justice in Young Adult Speculative Fiction Marek C. Oziewicz, 2015-04-17 This book is the first to offer a justice focused cognitive reading of modern YA speculative fiction in its narrative and filmic forms It links the expansion of YA speculative fiction in the 20th century with the emergence of human and civil rights movements with the communitarian revolution in conceptualizations of justice and with spectacular advances in cognitive sciences as applied to the examination of narrative fiction Oziewicz argues that complex ideas such as justice are processed by the human mind as cognitive scripts that scripts when narrated take the form of multiply indexable stories and that YA speculative fiction is currently the largest conceptual testing ground in the forging of justice consciousness for the 21st century world Drawing on recent research in the cognitive and evolutionary sciences Oziewicz explains how poetic retributive restorative environmental social and global types of justice have been represented in narrative fiction from 19th century folk and fairy tales through 21st century fantasy dystopia and science fiction Suggesting that the appeal of these and other nonmimetic genres is largely predicated on the dream of justice Oziewicz theorizes new justice scripts as conceptual tools essential to help humanity survive the qualitative leap toward an environmentally conscious culturally diversified global world This book is an important contribution to studies of children s and YA speculative fiction adding a new perspective to discussions about the educational as well as social potential of nonmimetic genres It demonstrates that the justice imperative is very much alive in YA speculative fiction creating new visions of justice relevant to contemporary challenges     The Business of Criminal Justice Daniel Adrian
