Impressionism Anne Distel, Michel Hoog, Charles S. Moffett, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1974 The Women Impressionists Russell T. Clement, Christiane Erbolato-Ramsey, Annick Houzé, 2000-02-28 This reference organizes and describes the primary and secondary literature surrounding Mary Stevenson Cassatt Berthe Morisot Eva Gonzal s and Marie Bracquemond four major women Impressionist artists The Impressionist group included several women artists of considerable ability whose works and lives were largely ignored until the advent of feminist art criticism in the early 1970s They studied worked and exhibited with their male counterparts including Degas Manet Monet and Pissarro The entries provide extensive coverage of the careers critical reception exhibition history and growing reputations of these four female artists and discuss women Impressionists in general as they shared the challenges of becoming accepted as professional artists in late 19th century society Containing nearly 900 citations of manuscripts books articles reproductions films exhibitions and reviews this unique sourcebook will appeal to both art and women s studies scholars Each artist receives a biographical sketch chronology information about individual and group exhibitions and reviews and a primary and secondary bibliography which captures details about the artist s life career and relationship with other artists An art works index and names index complete the volume Neo-Impressionism and Anarchism in Fin-de-Si?e France Robyn Roslak, 2017-07-05 In Neo Impressionism and Anarchism in Fin de Si e France Robyn Roslak examines for the first time the close relationship between neo impressionist landscapes and cityscapes and the anarchist sympathies of the movement s artists She focuses in particular on paintings produced between 1886 and 1905 by Paul Signac and Maximilien Luce the neo impressionists whose fidelity to anarchism to the art of landscape and to a belief in the social potential of art was strongest Although the neo impressionists are best known for their rational and scientific technique they also heeded the era s call for art surpassing the mundane realities of everyday life By tempering their modern subjects with a decorative style they hoped to lead their viewers toward moral and social improvement Roslak s ground breaking analysis shows how the anarchist theories of Elis Reclus Pierre Kropotkin and Jean Grave both inspired and coincided with these ideals Anarchism attracted the neo impressionists because its standards for social justice were grounded like neo impressionism itself in scientific exactitude and aesthetic idealism Anarchists claimed humanity would reach its highest level of social and moral development only in the presence of a decorative variety of nature and called upon progressive thinkers to help create and maintain such environments The neo impressionists who primarily painted decorative landscapes therefore discovered in anarchism a political theory consistent with their belief that decorative harmony should be the basis for socially responsible art Neo-Impressionist Painters Russell T. Clement, Annick Houzé, 1999-09-30 This reference provides biographical historical and critical information on Neo Impressionist painting and its most significant painters Neo Impressionism also called Divisionism and Pointillism was one of the most innovative and startling late 19th century French avant garde styles Over 2

000 books articles manuscripts and audiovisual materials as well as chronologies biographical sketches and exhibition lists are cited Also provided are both primary and secondary bibliographies for each artist Secondary bibliographies capture details about each artist s life and career relationships with other artists work in various media iconography critical reception and interpretation archival sources and more Art scholars will appreciate the comprehensive bibliographic research contained in this one volume Entries on Neo Impressionism in general on exhibitions and the primary and secondary bibliographies of artists follow an introduction about Neo Impressionism and a Neo Impressionism chronology that spans the years 1881 to 1905 An index of art works and an index of personal names complete the volume
