Impossible Desires:

Impossible Desires Gayatri Gopinath, 2005-04-19 Argues for the uses of queer feminist transnational theory in order to understanding South Asian and South Asian diasporic identities and cultural production Ghostly Desires Arnika Fuhrmann, 2016-05-19 Through an examination of post 1997 Thai cinema and video art Arnika Fuhrmann shows how vernacular Buddhist tenets stories and images combine with sexual politics in figuring current struggles over notions of personhood sexuality and collective life The drama horror heritage and experimental art films she analyzes draw on Buddhist informed conceptions of impermanence and prominently feature the motif of the female ghost In these films the characters eroticization in the spheres of loss and death represents an improvisation on the Buddhist disavowal of attachment and highlights under recognized female and queer desire and persistence Her feminist and queer readings reveal the entangled relationships between film sexuality Buddhist ideas and the Thai state's regulation of heteronormative sexuality Fuhrmann thereby provides insights into the configuration of contemporary Thailand while opening up new possibilities for thinking about queer personhood and femininity Homemaking Anindya Raychaudhuri, 2018-10-19 Is it possible to think of a counter hegemonic progressive nostalgia that celebrates and helps sustain the marginalised What might such a nostalgia look like and what political importance might it have Homemaking Radical Nostalgia and the Construction of a South Asian Diaspora examines diasporic life in south Asian communities in Europe North America and Australia to map the ways in which members of these communities use nostalgia to construct distinctive identities Using a series of examples from literature cinema visual art music computer games mainstream media physical and virtual spaces and many other cultural objects this book argues that it is possible and necessary to read this nostalgia as helping to create a powerful notion of home that can help to transcend international relations of empire and capital and create instead a pan national space of belonging This homemaking represents the persistent search for somewhere to belong on one's own terms Constructed through word image and music preserved through dreams and imagination the home provides sustenance in the continuing struggle to change the present and the future for the better Perversion Stephanie S. Swales, 2012-08-21 Lacan's psychoanalytic take on what makes a pervert perverse is not the fact of habitually engaging in specific abnormal or transgressive sexual acts but of occupying a particular structural position in relation to the Other Perversion is one of Lacan's three main ontological diagnostic structures structures that indicate fundamentally different ways of solving the problems of alienation separation from the primary caregiver and castration or having limits set by the law on one's jouissance The perverse subject has undergone alienation but disavowed castration suffering from excessive jouissance and a core belief that the law and social norms are fraudulent at worst and weak at best In Perversion Stephanie Swales provides a close reading a qualitative hermeneutic reading of what Lacan said about perversion and its substructures i.e. fetishism voyeurism exhibitionism sadism and masochism Lacanian theory is carefully explained in accessible language and perversion is elucidated in terms of its etiology characteristics symptoms and fundamental fantasy Referring to sex offenders as a sample she offers clinicians a guide to making differential diagnoses between psychotic neurotic and perverse patients and provides a treatment model for working with perversion versus neurosis Two detailed qualitative clinical case studies are presented one of a neurotic sex offender and the other of a perverse sex offender highlighting crucial differences in the transference relation and subsequent treatment recommendations for both forensic and private practice contexts Perversion offers a fresh psychoanalytic approach to the subject and will be of great interest to scholars and clinicians in the fields of psychoanalysis psychology forensic science cultural studies and philosophy The Ecstasies of Roland Barthes Mary Bittner Wiseman, 2016-08-19 In this book first published in 1989 Mary Bittner Wiseman interprets Roland Barthes's experiments as efforts to reposition the human subject with respect to language and to time in order to let the subject escape from the language of a particular culture and the present time With her insistent pushing against the boundaries of our standard academic assumptions Mary Bittner Wiseman succeeds in interpreting Barthes's effort to join the traditional and the new This title will be of interest to students of literature and philosophy Pakistan Desires Omar Kasmani, 2023-10-06 Drawing on history anthropology

Desire, Gift, and Recognition Jan-Olav Henriksen, 2009-02-15 A major work in the philosophy of religion this book interprets the Jesus story in terms of postmodern philosophy particularly using Jacques Derrida's categories of desire gift and recognition Author Jan Olav Henriksen also attempts to reformulate Christology without resorting to such metaphysical concepts as substance transcendence etc While not denying traditional doctrines Henriksen explicates the meaning of Jesus life and death in ways that engage contemporary philosophy and challenge contemporary academic Christians to rethink the basics of their faith and he outlines the possibility of a post metaphysical Christology Henriksen's book is a clearly reasoned guide not only to the argument that Christology still has something to say to contemporary believers but also to ways in which theologians must learn to reconnect to everyday human experience

Male-to-Female Crossdressing in Early Modern English Literature Simone Chess, 2016-04-14 This volume examines and theorizes the oft ignored phenomenon of male to female MTF crossdressing in early modern drama prose and poetry inviting MTF crossdressing episodes to take a fuller place alongside instances of female to male crossdressing and boy actors crossdressing which have long held the spotlight in early modern gender studies The author argues that MTF crossdressing episodes are especially rich sources for socially oriented readings of queer gender that crossdressers genders are constructed and represented in relation to romantic partners communities and broader social structures like marriage economy and sexuality Further she argues that these relational representations show that the crossdresser and his her allies often benefit financially socially and erotically from his her queer gender presentation a corrective to the dominant idea that queer gender has always been associated with shame containment and correction By attending to these relational and beneficial representations of MTF crossdressers in early modern literature the volume helps to make a larger space for queer genderqueer male bodied and queer feminine representations in our conversations about early modern gender and sexuality
