Jim Thompson Sleep With The Devil:

Jim Thompson Michael J. McCauley, 1991-04-01 Traces the life of the American writer and discusses the influence of his unloving father and alcoholism on his fiction Turncoats, Traitors, and Fellow Travelers Arthur Redding, 2009-10-08 The Cold War was unique in the way films books television shows colleges and universities and practices of everyday life were enlisted to create American political consensus This coercion fostered a seemingly hegemonic nationally unified perspective devoted to spreading a capitalist socially conservative notion of freedom throughout the world to fight Communism In Turncoats Traitors and Fellow Travelers Culture and Politics of the Early Cold War Arthur Redding traces the historical contours of this manufactured consent by considering the ways in which authors playwrights and directors participated in responded to and resisted the construction of Cold War discourses The book argues that a fugitive resistance to the status quo emerged as writers and activists variously fled into exile went underground or grudgingly accommodated themselves to the new spirit of the times To this end Redding examines work by a wide swath of creators including essayists W E B Du Bois and F O Matthiessen novelists Ralph Ellison Patricia Highsmith Jane Bowles and Paul Bowles playwrights Arthur Miller poets Sylvia Plath and filmmakers Elia Kazan and John Ford The book explores how writers and artists created works that went against mainstream notions of liberty and offered alternatives to the false dichotomy between capitalist freedom and totalitarian tyranny These complex responses and the era they reflect had and continue to have profound effects on American and international cultural and intellectual life as can be seen in the connections Redding makes between past and present The Encyclopedia of Murder and Mystery B. Murphy, 1999-12-09 Bruce Murphy's Encyclopedia of Murder and Mystery is a comprehensive guide to the genre of the murder mystery that catalogues thousands of items in a broad range of categories authors titles plots characters weapons methods of killing movie and theatrical adaptations What distinguishes this encyclopedia from the others in the field is its critical stance American Noir Film M. Keith Booker, 2024-11-19 A deep dive into classic noir films and how filmmakers today are refreshing and updating the genre for new generations Publishers Weekly praises the book noting Cinephiles will be enthralled and Library Journal says it's a well written introduction to noir films and how the genre has continued to thrive as times changed Booklist calls it a riveting history of the film noir genre in a starred review saying This is one of the best best written most insightful analyses of film noir and it demands to be read by fans of film history In American Noir Film M Keith Booker introduces readers to the cult favorite genre of film noir and discusses the ongoing power and popularity of the genre's key elements and themes in modern films often considered neo noir well into the twenty first century Booker covers a wide range of noir favorites from the early classics The Maltese Falcon and The Big Sleep to late twentieth century neo noir such as Chinatown and ultimately newer iterations of the genre as seen in such films as Inherent Vice Promising Young Woman and Uncut Gems American Noir Film contains three separate parts each exploring crucial categories of noir the detective film the lost man film and femme fatale films Within each section Booker discusses the essential classic noir films that embody these themes as well as neo noir films that invite viewers to analyze how the traditional components of noir have evolved with filmmaking Finally each section concludes with twenty first century films that evoke noir elements while refreshing the genre and enhancing viewers appreciation of the originals that inspired them what Booker terms revisionary noir Whether new to noir films students of the genre or long time fans readers will be sure to learn what makes this genre so special discover why filmmakers keep coming back to it and find a new favorite movie to add to their shelves

America Noir David Cochran, 2016-06-21 In America Noir David Cochran details how ten writers and filmmakers challenged the social pieties prevalent during the Cold War such as the superiority of the American democracy the benevolence of free enterprise and the sanctity of the suburban family Rod Serling's The Twilight Zone featured victims of vast faceless bureaucratic powers Jim Thompson's noir thrillers such as The Grifters portrayed the ravages of capitalism on those at the bottom of the social ladder Patricia Highsmith in The Talented Mr Ripley placed an amoral con man in an international setting implicitly questioning America's fitness as leader of the free world Charles Willeford's pulp novels such as Wild Wives and Woman Chaser depicted the family as a hotbed of violence and chaos These artists pioneered a detached ironic sensibility that radically juxtaposed cultural references and blurred the distinctions between high and low art Their refusal to surrender to the pressures for political conformity and their unflinching portrayal of the underside of American life paved the way for the emergence of a 1960s counterculture that forever changed the way America views itself

The Post-Utopian Imagination M. Keith Booker, 2002-01-30 In America the long 1950s were marked by an intense skepticism toward utopian alternatives to the existing capitalist order This skepticism was closely related to the climate of the Cold War in which the demonization of socialism contributed to a dismissal of all alternatives to capitalism This book studies how American novels and films of the long 1950s reflect the loss of the utopian imagination and mirror the growing concern that capitalism brought routinization alienation and other dehumanizing consequences The volume relates the decline of the utopian vision to the rise of late capitalism with its expanding globalization and consumerism and to the beginnings of postmodernism In addition to well known literary novels such as Nabokov's Lolita Booker explores a large body of leftist fiction popular novels and the films of Alfred Hitchcock and Walt Disney The book argues that while the canonical novels of the period employ a utopian aesthetic that aesthetic tends to be very weak and is not reinforced by content The leftist novels on the other hand employ a realist aesthetic but are utopian in their exploration of alternatives to capitalism The study concludes that the utopian energies in cultural productions of the long 1950s are very weak and that these works tend to dismiss utopian thinking as naïve or even sinister The weak utopianism in these works tends to be reflected in characteristics associated with postmodernism

Fictions of Masculinity Peter F. Murphy, 1994-07 We are just beginning to understand masculinity as a fiction or a localizable historical and therefore unstable construct This book points the way to a much needed interrogation of the many modes of masculinity as represented in literature Both women and men who are engaged in critical thinking about genders and sexualities will find these essays always thoughtful and often provocative Thas E Morgan Associate Professor of English Arizona State University Peter Murphy has assembled an innovative challenging and important set of contributions to a growing field of inquiry into constructions of masculinities in literature inspired principally by feminist and gay studies Illuminatingly crossing lines of genders sexualities cultures and methodologies Fictions of Masculinity greatly advances our understanding of representations of men masculinities misandry and misogyny in a wide range of literary works and genres and helps us to imagine and thereby ultimately bring about alternative constructions Harry Brod Editor The Making of Masculinities The New Men s Studies A Mensch Among Men Explorations in Jewish Masculinity and Theorizing Masculinities Women writing about women dominates contemporary work on sexuality Men have been far more willing to discuss female sexuality than male sexuality while the most radical and insightful analyses of male sexuality have come from women When men consider the issue of female sexuality they often speak from assumptions of security about their own unexamined sexuality This book maintains that men have to interrogate their own sexuality if there is to be a revision of phallogocentric discourse and that this revision of masculinity must be done in dialogue with women The essays included in this collection examine the deep structure of masculine codes They ask the question Who are the men in modern literature Examining the force of the dominant values of Western masculinity they synthesize insights from feminism psychoanalysis post structuralism and new historicism These perspectives help explain how male sexuality has been structured by fictional representations By examining the images of masculinity in modern literature the essays explore traditional and non traditional roles of men in society and in personal relationships They look at how men are represented in literature the fiction of manhood They attempt to unravel the assumptions behind these representations by looking at the implications of this imagination And they speculate on possibilities for creating a new imaginary of masculinity by identifying what literature has to say about that change With analyses of a range of genres novels poetry plays and autobiography Western and Third World literatures and theoretical perspectives Fictions of Masculinity provides a significant contribution to this rapidly growing field of study Contributors are David Bergman Towson State University Miriam Cooke Duke University Martin Danahy Emory University Richard Dellamora Trent University Ontario Leonard Duroche University of Minnesota Jim Elledge Illinois State University Alfred Habegger University of Kansas Suzanne Kehde California Polytechnic University San Luis Obispo David Leverenz University of Florida Christopher Metress Wake Forest University Peter F Murphy SUNY Empire State College Rafael Prez Torres University of Pennsylvania David Radavich Eastern Illinois University and Peter Schwenger St Vincent University Nova Scotia
