Hering, 2007 In this groundbreaking study James P. Hering investigates the theological and ethical motivation that informs the controversial New Testament household codes Haustafeln found in the epistles to the Colossians 3 18 4 1 and Ephesians 5 22 6 9 Within most New Testament scholarship the household code has been regarded as an imported element within its host letter reflecting either pagan or embarrassingly sub Christian values Is the household code merely a nod to the pragmatic demands of culture or can it be understood as a reflection of the author's theological concerns What can it teach us today Hering provides a unique analysis of these passages revealing the Haustafeln in their historical context and examining their theological roots This book is of vital importance for courses on Christian ethics and New Testament backgrounds
