History Claude Bragdon,2005-11-01 Suddenly the thought came into my mind What if this be but hallucination from The Arabian Nights in New York The philosophical discipline of theosophy enjoyed a flowering in the late 19th century a spiritual reaction to the materialism aggressive scientific exploration and the newly ascendant corporate culture seemed to be promoting In 1910 Claude Bragdon published this overview of the roots of theosophy and it remains an important document of this influential movement key reading for anyone interested in the origins and aims of early New Age thought Though known primarily as an architect and later as a stage designer Bragdon dabbled in mysticism and brings his well deserved renown as a delightful charming writer to this little volume Other works by Bragdon available from Cosimo Classics More Lives Than One The Beautiful Necessity Architecture and Democracy and A Primer of Higher Space The Fourth Dimension American architect stage designer and writer CLAUDE FAYETTE BRAGDON 1866 1946 helped found the Rochester Architectural Club in the city where he made his greatest mark as a building designer with structures including Rochester Central Station Rochester Institute of Technology and the First Universalist Church he also designed Peterborough Bridge in Ontario In later life Bragdon worked on Broadway as scenic designer for 1930s productions of Cyrano de Bergerac and Hamlet among others Episodes from an Unwritten History (Classic Reprint) Claude Fayette Bragdon,2015-06-29 Excerpt from Episodes From an Unwritten History About two years ago there was slipped under my office door an announcement of a series of lectures to be given under the auspices of the Theosophical Society by one C Jinarajadasa of Columbo Island of Ceylon On the front page of the folder was his portrait in half tone a dusky young gentleman with curly hair an untroubled intellectual brow eyes dreamy yet penetrating behind gold bowed glasses a sweet mouth and a firm chin It was a face to which I took an instant liking but the announced lectures did not attract me for they appeared to deal with matters with which I had been long familiar through the theosophical literature I had read when it was first given to the world in the eighties I had been interested in that literature but in common with many others I had been deterred from following up my interest by the bad odor which soon afterwards came to be attached to the very word Theosophy by reason of the internecine warfare of the Society and of the alleged exposure of Madame Blavatsky its founder by a member of the London Society for Psychical Research About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Episodes from an Unwritten History Claude Fayette Bragdon,2016-05-17 This
