Counseling in an Eritrean Context Belainesh Araya, 2001 The Eritrean National Service Gaim Kibreab, 2017

Gives voice to the conscripts who are forced to serve indefinitely without remuneration under the ENS in a powerful critical survey of its effect from the Liberation Struggle to today The Eritrean National Service ENS lies at the core of the post independence state not only supplying its military but affecting every aspect of the country's economy its social services its public sector and its politics Over half the workforce are forcibly enrolled into it by the government driving the country's youth to escape national service by seeking employment and asylum elsewhere Yet how did the ENS which began during the 1961-91 liberation struggle as part of the idea of the common good in which individual interests were sacrificed in pursuit of the grand scheme of independence and the country's development degenerate into forced labour and a modern form of slavery And why when Eritrea no longer faces existential threat does the government continue to demand such service from its citizens This book provides for the first time an in depth and critical scrutiny of the ENS achievements and failures and its overarching impact on the social fabric of Eritrea The author discusses the historical backdrop to the ENS and the rationales underlying it its goals and objectives its transformative effects as well as its impact on the country's defence capability national unity national identity construction and nation building He also analyses the extent to which the national service functions as an effective mechanism of transmitting the core values of the liberation struggle to the conscripts and through them to the rest of country's population Finally the book assesses whether the core aims and objectives of the ENS proclaimed by various governments have been or are in the process of being accomplished and drawing on the testimony of the hitherto voiceless conscripts themselves its impact on their lives and livelihoods GAIM KIBREAB is Professor of Research and Director of Refugee Studies School of Law and Social Science London South Bank University He is the author of Eritrea A Dream Deferred James Currey 2009 and People on the Edge in the Horn James Currey 1996 The Making of the Eritrean Constitution Bereket Habte Selassie, 2003 For the first time in their history Eritreans were engaged in the making of a document by which they would be governed Seen as the culmination of their struggle for self determination the Constitution was written over a three year period informed by intensive public debate held in villages and towns throughout the newly liberated country Written by a scholar who led the process of constitution drafting this book analyses the process from beginning to end arguing that the value of a constitution lies in the degree of public participation that goes into its making
